

Drew Steele

FLORIDA'S CONSERVATIVE TALK SHOW HOST

About Drew

Florida's Voice with Drew Steele is a conservative morning show that airs every weekday from 3 to 6 PM, offering a unique blend of news, commentary, and humor. But it's more than just a show; it's a three-hour wake-up call that energizes listeners with a dynamic and engaging experience. Florida's Voice ensures you're not just informed, but also entertained.

Hosted by Drew Steele, a proud resident of Florida for 35 years, this consistently #1-rated show has quickly become a trusted and influential voice in the state's political landscape. Drew's deep-rooted connection to Florida, along with his keen understanding of both local and national issues, has earned him a loyal following. His ability to break down complex topics, offer insightful commentary, and inject humor into the conversation makes the show a must-listen for anyone who wants to stay informed and engaged in the day's events.
