I know I'm at the age where I'm looking forward to retirement. I can only hope that the next AG is as good as you have been to us. It's a bittersweet time for you and us at BCI. You were right, when you said you were the only AG I knew since I was hired. I'd like to ask that before you go, you find time to autograph the picture of us when I was hired on. It's something that I will display proudly.  North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigations Special Agent Pat Helfrich PO Box 1054 Bismarck, ND 58502-1054 phone: 701-328-5500 fax: 701-328-5510 email: ph420@nd.gov <hr/> From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, December 17, 2021 10:20 AM To: -Grp-AG All Staff &lt;agall@nd.gov&gt; Subject: To all staff To my colleagues in the Office of Attorney General: For the last 22 years it has been my honor to work with the dedicated people in the office of Attorney General on behalf of the citizens of North Dakota. I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one. After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends. The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure. The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known. My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us. When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live. I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022! Warmly, Wayne |

I know I'm at the age where I'm looking forward to retirement. I can only hope that the next AG is as good as you have been to us. It's a bittersweet time for you and us at BCI. You were right, when you said you were the only AG I knew since I was hired. I'd like to ask that before you go, you find time to autograph the picture of us when I was hired on. It's something that I will display proudly.  North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigations         Special Agent Pat Helfrich         PO Box 1054         Bismarck, ND 58502-1054         phone: 701-328-5500         fax: 701-328-5510         email: ph420@nd.gov <hr/> From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, December 17, 2021 10:20 AM To: -Grp-AG All Staff &lt;agall@nd.gov&gt; Subject: To all staff To my colleagues in the Office of Attorney General: For the last 22 years it has been my honor to work with the dedicated people in the office of Attorney General on behalf of the citizens of North Dakota. I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one. After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends. The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure. The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known. My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us. When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live. I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022! Warmly, Wayne |

I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one. After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends. The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure. The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known. My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us. When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live. I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022! Warmly, Wayne |

Not to put too fine a point on it, Steve, but you've been one of the best.
 Leaving the dedicated agents at BCI is one of the hardest things about my decision.
 Wayne
 Merry Christmas to you and your family!

To my colleagues in the Office of Attorney General:

For the last 22 years it has been my honor to work with the dedicated people in the office of Attorney General on behalf of the citizens of North Dakota. I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one.

After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends.

The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure.

The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known.

My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us.

When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live.

I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022!

Warmly,
Wayne

To my colleagues in the Office of Attorney General:

For the last 22 years it has been my honor to work with the dedicated people in the office of Attorney General on behalf of the citizens of North Dakota. I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one.

After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends.

The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure.

The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known.

My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us.

When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live.

I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022!

Warmly,

Wayne

Everyone,

The district court just granted us a preliminary injunction in the federal contractor mandate case. I'm not sure why the court only ruled on the request for a preliminary injunction when the parties agreed to convert the preliminary injunction motion into a request for a permanent injunction. But a win is still a win. See attached.

The scope of the injunction appears to apply to all contractors in our respective states. Here's what the court said: "Defendants are enjoined from enforcing the vaccine mandate for federal contractors and subcontractors in all covered contracts in Missouri, Nebraska, Alaska, Arkansas, Iowa, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming."

Thanks to Michael Talent in Missouri for all his great work on this case.

So if you could aim to send Michael and me any edits you have by 2:00 Central, that would be great. Thanks to Michael for the excellent work he has done on this. You'll notice that the intro hasn't been written yet. We will be working on that while you all review.

Good evening,

Per the district court's order, we have been working with DOJ to put together a Joint Statement of Material Facts for the non-APA claims. The district court indicated it will use them in issuing a permanent injunction/judgment on those claims. Attached is a near-final draft. We are still having some back-and-forth on DOJ on certain paragraphs, but believe the final product will look something like this.

If you have any comments, please provide them Monday mid-morning, since the statement is due on Monday.

Good morning,

We had a status conference with the Court this morning. An order is imminent, but to summarize: the district court indicated that it will consolidate the preliminary injunction with a hearing on the merits for at least the legal issues (i.e., the non-arbitrary and capricious claims) and possibly the entire case and appears willing to rule before December 8. The court directed the parties to work to file a statement of stipulated facts by December 6.

I hope everyone has a happy Thanksgiving.

Advice To Passengers On Limitations Of Liability

International travel to or from another country, where liability is governed by the Montreal Convention, there are no financial limits for flight or bodily injury, and the airline is an automatic payment to cover reasonable economic needs. The airline's liability for passenger death or loss, injury or damage to baggage may be limited by the Convention. In case of baggage, liability limit is 1131 Special Drawing Rights (approximately US $1700) per passenger for international travel. The baggage limit is US $3,500 per ticketed passenger for US domestic travel. These baggage liability limitations apply unless you declare a higher valuation and pay additional charges at check-in.

In case of international travel, any actions in court to claim damages must be brought within two years of date of the actual or scheduled arrival of the aircraft; and, in case of baggage claims, written notice to the carrier must be made within 7 days of the receipt of checked baggage in case of damage, in case of delay, within 21 days from the date on which it was placed at the disposal of the passenger or journey also involves damage by other airlines, you should contact them for information on its limits of liability. See the notice with your tickets or consult your airline or travel agent for further information.

Attached is a new amicus request. Deadline to join is Dec. 27. Here is the explanation from below:

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the cruelest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern.

Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely,
Drew

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:
 On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latinx, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Attached is a new amicus request. Deadline to join is Dec. 27. Here is the explanation from below:

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Subject: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern.

Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely,
Drew

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:
 On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latinx, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-llc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission—on a 3-2 party-line vote—approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-17179/p.301>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

Attached is a new amicus request. Deadline to join is Dec. 27. Here is the explanation from below:

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challenges as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Subject: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern.

Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely,

Drew

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:

On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latinx, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-ltc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/2021-17179/p.30>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

Subject: Re: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challenges as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Sincerely,

Drew

Subject: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern.

Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely,

Drew

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:

On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latinx, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-ltc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/2021-17179/p.30>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

Having read the brief, I am in complete agreement with Ohio. Why they waited until the last minute to let us join, I don't know. We'll hold off for now. If you haven't heard otherwise by the deadline, we will pass, and cheer from the sidelines.

While, in theory, this is a favorable position for a state, I would be very reluctant to recommend joining at this time and I'm not sure Wayne will want to sign on for the following reasons:

Very short deadline for noon tomorrow:

The brief is fairly aggressive:

We do not have any idea, unless you or Civil Lit. does, whether under North Dakota law a state can release the claims of its political subdivisions; and In light of ongoing negotiations with political subdivisions, litigating and non-litigating, to get them to agree to sign on to the national opioid distributors, with acritical deadline by January 2, I don't think now would be the time to take such a public position...

Obviously, if Wayne would like to join, it is a decision he could make.

Please note that I will be out the rest of today and tomorrow and therefore, if anyone needs further discussion, you will want to do so by contacting me on my cell phone.

Thanks.

Subject: FW: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Attached is a new amicus request. Deadline to join is Dec. 27. Here is the explanation from below:

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

Body

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Sincerely,

Drew

Subject: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 4pm Eastern.

Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely,

Drew

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:
 On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 80 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/11/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-lc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-17179/p.301>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

Attached is a new amicus request. Deadline to join is Dec. 27. Here is the explanation from below:

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tools available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Hi all,

Body

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC's Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tools available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:
 On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-llc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-17179/p-201>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-llc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-17179/p-201>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

Hi General,

I don't blame you at all! Which flight do you prefer on the 9th? The first option departs 12:24PM and arrives at 6:31PM or the one that departs at 5:36PM and arrives at 10:50PM.

I'm sorry to hear we likely won't see you at the Winter meeting. I will connect with the travel agent and get these flights booked for you next week. Have a wonderful Christmas!

Best,
 Caroline

Caroline,
 This looks like the best flight to me.
 [I hate that very early flight!!]
 Merry Christmas to you as well.
 I am trying to see if I can attend the winter meeting, but it means changing a meeting of our state Industrial Commission with our governor and ag. Commissioner, so it's looking doubtful.

I know I'm at the age where I'm looking forward to retirement. I can only hope that the next AG is as good as you have been to us. It's a bittersweet time for you and us at BCI. You were right, when you said you were the only AG I knew since I was hired. I'd like to ask that before you go, you find time to autograph the picture of us when I was hired on. It's something that I will display proudly.   North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigations         Special Agent Pat Helfrich         PO Box 1054         Bismarck, ND 58503-1054         phone: 701-328-5500         fax: 701-328-5510         email: ph420@nd.gov  <hr/> From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, December 17, 2021 10:20 AM To: Grp-AG All Staff &lt;agall@nd.gov&gt; Subject: To all staff To my colleagues in the Office of Attorney General: For the last 22 years it has been my honor to work with the dedicated people in the office of Attorney General on behalf of the citizens of North Dakota. I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one. After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends. The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure. The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known. My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us. When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live. I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022! Warmly, Wayne |

I know I'm at the age where I'm looking forward to retirement. I can only hope that the next AG is as good as you have been to us. It's a bittersweet time for you and us at BCI. You were right, when you said you were the only AG I knew since I was hired. I'd like to ask that before you go, you find time to autograph the picture of us when I was hired on. It's something that I will display proudly.   North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigations Special Agent Pat Helfrich PO Box 1054 Bismarck, ND 58503-1054 phone: 701-328-5500 fax: 701-328-5510 email: ph420@nd.gov  <hr/> From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, December 17, 2021 10:20 AM To: Grp-AG All Staff &lt;agall@nd.gov&gt; Subject: To all staff To my colleagues in the Office of Attorney General: For the last 22 years it has been my honor to work with the dedicated people in the office of Attorney General on behalf of the citizens of North Dakota. I have had to make many difficult decisions in that time, but never one as difficult as this one. After visiting with Beth and others, I have decided that this term will be my last. The decision has been a hard one because I have truly enjoyed my time in this office, and that is in large part because I have been able to work with some of the most dedicated and loyal employees anyone could ask for. You are trusted colleagues, and for many of you, I regard you as dear friends. The citizens of North Dakota have seen fit to elect me to this important office six times and it has been an honor beyond measure. The end of my current term will mark 22 years as North Dakota's 29th Attorney General. For all but a couple of you, I'm the only boss in the office you've known. My current term runs through the end of 2022, and we still have lots of time to continue together the important work we have ahead of us. When you walk into the front of our office in the Capitol you see that composite photograph of all the people who have served North Dakota as Attorney General over the years. After my photo there are seven blank spots. Those spots are reserved for the people who will come after me. I know that whoever is fortunate enough to have his or her photo included after mine will inherit a talented, dedicated group of employees who come to work every day with the goal of keeping North Dakota the very best place to work and live. I wish you all the best of the Holiday Season, and look forward to continuing to work with you through 2022! Warmly, Wayne |

Hi all,
 Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.
 Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social-justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).
 We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.
 Sincerely,
 Drew

Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here. For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Sincerely, Drew From: Ensign, Drew Sent: Tuesday, December 14, 2021 7:42:49 AM To: Benjamin Flowers; Dewhurst, David; Chanay, Jeff; Murrill, Elizabeth; Maddox, Victor (KYOAG); Brasington, Charles F (LAW); Judd Stone; Joshua Richardson; Henry Whitaker; Bowdrie, Barrett; Mills, Cori M (LAW); Alloway, Jessie M (LAW); Dixon, Nina R (LAW); Roydies, Beau; Daniel Bell; James Percival; Jeffrey DeSouza; Drew Waldbeser; Ross Bergethson; brian.kane@ag.idaho.gov; tom.fisher@atg.in.gov; Laue, Brant; Meredith, Chad (KYOAG); Kuhn, Matt F (KYOAG); St. John, Joseph; Whitney.Lippcomb@ago.ms.gov; Scott.Stewart@ago.ms.gov; Justin.Matheny@ago.ms.gov; John.sauer@ago.mo.gov; Campbell, Jim; Daniel E. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy these quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so. Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27. Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern. Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions. Sincerely, Drew Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview: On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-lc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-1. On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. https://www.federalregister.gov/2021/08/12/2021-17179/p30. On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCFPR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021. |

Hi all,
 Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.
 Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 8 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.
 Sincerely,
 Drew

 Subject: Re: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Hi all,
 Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.
 Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social-justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).
 We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.
 Sincerely,
 Drew

The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy these quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so. Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27. Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern. Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions. Sincerely, Drew Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview: On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-lc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-15. On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. https://www.federalregister.gov/2021/12/17/2021-17179. On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCFPR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021. |

Mike Schwab of the North Dakota Pharmacists Association reached out to me about speaking at a convention that they are planning to hold in March. He'd like me to discuss Rutledge and Wehbi. Mike also mentioned that Wayne might participate.Because of my role on behalf of the State, I would not agree to participate without your approval and Mark's. And because of the pendency of the litigation, I would only speak factually about the case. I would not make any predictions about how Wehbi affects other statutes. Indeed, my approach, and Howard's, has always been to assume that our adversary is sitting in the room. As a result, we have been very careful about what we've said about Rutledge in the past. Mark and I spoke the other day, and he is comfortable with me giving a presentation along the lines I've just proposed. Howard and I wanted to make sure you agree before I accept any invitation from Mike. Howard and I are also happy to share in advance any PowerPoint presentation we prepare, so that you can vet it beforehand. Again, this is not urgent. When you have a few minutes, please let us know if you are comfortable with my participation at the conference. I will then get back to Mike. Finally, on behalf of Howard and myself, I wanted to express our appreciation for the opportunity to work with you and serve the people of North Dakota. This litigation has had its ups and downs, but we always have had steady support from your office and Mark's. We're grateful for the partnership we have been able to forge. Best wishes and Merry Christmas,Rob Robert T. Mike Schwab of the North Dakota Pharmacists Association reached out to me about speaking at a convention that they are planning to hold in March. He'd like me to discuss Rutledge and Wehbi. Mike also mentioned that Wayne might participate.Because of my role on behalf of the State, I would not agree to participate without your approval and Mark's. And because of the pendency of the litigation, I would only speak factually about the case. I would not make any predictions about how Wehbi affects other statutes. Indeed, my approach, and Howard's, has always been to assume that our adversary is sitting in the room. As a result, we have been very careful about what we've said about Rutledge in the past. Mark and I spoke the other day, and he is comfortable with me giving a presentation along the lines I've just proposed. Howard and I wanted to make sure you agree before I accept any invitation from Mike. Howard and I are also happy to share in advance any PowerPoint presentation we prepare, so that you can vet it beforehand. Again, this is not urgent. When you have a few minutes, please let us know if you are comfortable with my participation at the conference. I will then get back to Mike. Finally, on behalf of Howard and myself, I wanted to express our appreciation for the opportunity to work with you and serve the people of North Dakota. This litigation has had its ups and downs, but we always have had steady support from your office and Mark's. We're grateful for the partnership we have been able to forge. Best wishes and Merry Christmas. Rob Robert T. It comes in response to judge Beever asking about the impact that releases from State Attorneys General have on subdivision claims. The amicus brief has to be filed Thursday, so we're on a very short turn. If you are interested in joining, please email Jonathan Blanton (jblanton@OhioAGO.gov) and Charles Miller (Charles.Miller@OhioAGO.gov) by 1 PM Eastern on Thursday, December 23.  Ben FlowersOhio Solicitor GeneralOffice of Ohio Attorney General Dave YostOffice number: (614) 728-7511Cell phone: (614) 736-4938benjamin.flowers@ohioattorneygeneral.gov  |

It comes in response to judge Beever asking about the impact that releases from State Attorneys General have on subdivision claims. The amicus brief has to be filed Thursday, so we're on a very short turn. If you are interested in joining, please email Jonathan Blanton (jonathan.blanton@ohioago.gov) and Charles Miller (Charles.Miller@OhioAGO.gov) by 1 PM Eastern on Thursday, December 23.  Ben Flowers                 Ohio Solicitor General                 Office of Ohio Attorney General Dave Yost                 Office number: (614) 728-7511                 Cell phone: (614) 736-4938 benjamin.flowers@ohioattorneygeneral.gov  |

As you can see, our flight home for today has been cancelled. We are now scheduled for tomorrow instead, so it looks like I will not be in the office tomorrow. I have that one opinion that Ally says must be out before next week so I will be working on that today. Let me know if there's anything else I need to do before the end of the year. Wayne

As you can see, our flight home for today has been cancelled. We are now scheduled for tomorrow instead, so it looks like I will not be in the office tomorrow. I have that one opinion that Ally says must be out before next week so I will be working on that today. Let me know if there's anything else I need to do before the end of the year. Wayne

Very well.
 Perhaps you can find out the answer to this question:
 We are required to have a negative COVID test within 24 hours to fly home.
 We got the tests (all negative) but now our flight leaves tomorrow at 3:40pm, 24 hours later.
 Do we have to have another test today to fly?
 (The Delta app is useless, and the wait for a phone call is 688 minutes)
 Can you find the answer for us somewhere?

According to the CDC information, for testing to return to the USA: if your FIRST flight in your trip is delayed past the 1-day limit of testing due to a situation beyond your control (e.g. delays because of severe weather or aircraft mechanical problem) and that delay is 24 hours or less past the 1-day limit for testing, you do not need to be retested. If the delay is more than 24 hours past the 1-day limit, then you will need to be retested. According to the CDC information, for testing to return to the USA, if your FIRST flight in your trip is delayed past the 1-day limit of testing due to a situation beyond your control (e.g. delays because of severe weather or aircraft mechanical problem) and that delay is 24 hours or less past the 1-day limit for testing, you do not need to be retested. If the delay is more than 24 hours past the 1 day limit, then you will need to be retested. See: https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/travelers/testing-international-air-travelers.html#anchor\_1635127083 (emphasis in original)

Very well
Perhaps you can find out the answer to this question:
We are required to have a negative COVID test within 24 hours to fly home.
We got the tests [all negative] but now our flight leaves tomorrow at 3:40pm, 24 hours later.
Do we have to have another test today to fly?
[the Delta app is useless, and the wait for a phone call is 688 minutes]
Can you find the answer for us somewhere?
Signed,

Very well
 Perhaps you can find out the answer to this question:
 We are required to have a negative COVID test within 24 hours to fly home.
 We got the tests [all negative] but now our flight leaves tomorrow at 3:40pm, 24 hours later.
 Do we have to have another test today to fly?

As you can see, our flight home for today has been cancelled.
We are now scheduled for tomorrow instead, so it looks like I will not be in the office tomorrow.
I have that one opinion that Ally says must be out before next week so I will be working on that today.
Let me know if there's anything else I need to do before the end of the year.

According to the CDC information, for testing to return to the USA: if your FIRST flight in your trip is delayed past the 1-day limit of testing due to a situation beyond your control (e.g. delays because of severe weather or aircraft mechanical problem) and that delay is 24 hours or less past the 1-day limit for testing, you do not need to be retested. If the delay is more than 24 hours past the 1-day limit, then you will need to be retested. The CDC page has a "last updated" date of December 17th.

Very well.
Perhaps you can find out the answer to this question:
We are required to have a negative COVID test within 24 hours to fly home.
We got the tests [all negative] but now our flight leaves tomorrow at 3-40pm, 24 hours later.
Do we have to have another test today to fly?
[the Delta app is useless, and the wait for a phone call is 685 minutes]
Can you find the answer for us somewhere?

Signed,
Exasperated in Montego Bay

Subject: OSHA ETS - State Plan States

Federal OSHA has informed State Plan states that we need to provide notice of whether we will be adopting the ETS by 1/7/22, the same date as oral argument.

Iowa's state agency is considering its options, including the possibilities of (1) announcing in advance that it will not adopt the ETS because it's no more effective than existing state standards or (2) declining to take action because of the pending litigation.

I'm curious if those of you from other state plans states have considered how to handle the deadline or any other potential impacts of those decisions on this litigation. I haven't been able to find any news reports of any other states announcing their intentions yet.

Best,
 Sam

Subject: OSHA ETS - State Plan States

Federal OSHA has informed State Plan states that we need to provide notice of whether we will be adopting the ETS by 1/7/22, the same date as oral argument.

Iowa's state agency is considering its options, including the possibilities of (1) announcing in advance that it will not adopt the ETS because it's no more effective than existing state standards or (2) declining to take action because of the pending litigation.

I'm curious if those of you from other state plans states have considered how to handle the deadline or any other potential impacts of those decisions on this litigation. I haven't been able to find any news reports of any other states announcing their intentions yet.

Best,
 Sam

I know you don't have time to read a whole research report on this, so I included the short conclusion synopsis so that you would have time to read if you were interested. Just some new research as to the airborne hazards that fire investigators are exposed to when examining a scene. And if you don't have time, no worries or expectations, just sharing information, I know you are both very busy. Let me know if you have any questions. Thanks,Doug Nelson <hr/> From: Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2021 12:28 PMTo: Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;Subject: FW: FSRI Journal Article Addresses Airborne Contamination During Post-Fire Investigations   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. Many of you have fire investigation within the responsibility of your office and this publication really shows the need to protect our fire investigators from airborne contaminations. If you have seen this I apologize for the duplication. Merry Christmas, Jim NarvaNASFM Executive Director <hr/> From: Williams, Jennifer &lt;jennifer.williams@ul.org&gt;Sent: Monday, December 20, 2021 8:50 AMTo: Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;; Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;; respondermarketing &lt;respondermarketing@gmail.com&gt;Subject: FSRI Journal Article Addresses Airborne Contamination During Post-Fire Investigations Good morning, Hope you are having a safe and happy holiday season! Today we have announced our latest publication that may be of particular interest to NASFM. Most chemical exposure studies have primarily focused on firefighters during suppression or overhaul. However, as you know, fire investigators may be occupationally exposed to many of the same compounds but are often tasked with working on the scene for longer periods of time with limited PPE. Our latest peer-reviewed journal article highlights the need to protect investigators' airways from particulates during investigations and post-fire reconstruction activities. "Airborne contamination during post-fire investigations: hot, warm and cold scenes" was recently published in the Journal of Occupational and Environmental Hygiene. Learn more about the study and download the article here: https://s.ul.org/3yNIRNFA Let us know if you have any questions about the study. We plan to highlight this again on our channels following the holidays. Thanks for all you do. Stay safe. Jennifer WilliamsSenior Content SpecialistFire Safety Research Institute Underwriters Laboratories Inc.6200 Old Dobbin Lane, Suite 150Columbia, MD 21045 USA C +1 240.401.0912E jennifer.williams@ul.orgW fsri.orgCloseYourDoor.orgSmokealarms.ul.org    <small>This e-mail may contain privileged or confidential information. I know you don't have time to read a whole research report on this, so I included the short conclusion synopsis so that you would have time to read if you were interested. Just some new research as to the airborne hazards that fire investigators are exposed to when examining a scene. And if you don't have time, no worries or expectations, just sharing information, I know you are both very busy. Let me know if you have any questions. Thanks,Doug Nelson <hr/> From: Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2021 12:28 PMTo: Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;Subject: FW: FSRI Journal Article Addresses Airborne Contamination During Post-Fire Investigations   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. Many of you have fire investigation within the responsibility of your office and this publication really shows the need to protect our fire investigators from airborne contaminations. If you have seen this I apologize for the duplication. Merry Christmas, Jim NarvaNASFM Executive Director <hr/> From: Williams, Jennifer &lt;jennifer.williams@ul.org&gt;Sent: Monday, December 20, 2021 8:50 AMTo: Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;; Jim Narva &lt;inarva@narvaassociates.com&gt;; respondermarketing &lt;respondermarketing@gmail.com&gt;Subject: FSRI Journal Article Addresses Airborne Contamination During Post-Fire Investigations Good morning, Hope you are having a safe and happy holiday season! Today we have announced our latest publication that may be of particular interest to NASFM. Most chemical exposure studies have primarily focused on firefighters during suppression or overhaul. However, as you know, fire investigators may be occupationally exposed to many of the same compounds but are often tasked with working on the scene for longer periods of time with limited PPE. Our latest peer-reviewed journal article highlights the need to protect investigators' airways from particulates during investigations and post-fire reconstruction activities. "Airborne contamination during post-fire investigations: hot, warm and cold scenes" was recently published in the Journal of Occupational and Environmental Hygiene. Learn more about the study and download the article here: https://j.oel.org/3yNIRNFA Let us know if you have any questions about the study. We plan to highlight this again on our channels following the holidays. Thanks for all you do. Stay safe. Jennifer WilliamsSenior Content SpecialistFire Safety Research Institute Underwriters Laboratories Inc.6200 Old Dobbin Lane, Suite 150Columbia, MD 21045 USA C: +1 240.401.0912E: jennifer.williams@ul.orgW: fsri.orgCloseYourDoor.orgSmokeAlarms.UL.org    <small>This e-mail may contain privileged or confidential information. How to Fix It

The address may be misspelled or may not exist. Try one or more of the following:

- Send the message again following these steps: In Outlook, open this non-delivery report (NDR) and choose Send Again from the Report ribbon. In Outlook on the web, select this NDR, then select the link "To send this message again, click here." Then delete and retype the entire recipient address. If prompted with an Auto-Complete List suggestion don't select it. After typing the complete address, click Send.
- Contact the recipient (by phone, for example) to check that the address exists and is correct.
- The recipient may have set up email forwarding to an incorrect address. Ask them to check that any forwarding they've set up is working correctly.
- Clear the recipient Auto-Complete List in Outlook or Outlook on the web by following the steps in this article: Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.1 in Office 365, and then send the message again. Retype the entire recipient address before selecting Send.

If the problem continues, forward this message to your email admin. If you're an email admin, refer to the More Info for Email Admins section below.

More Info for Email Admins

Status code: 550 5.1.1

This error occurs because the sender sent a message to an email address outside of Office 365, but the address is incorrect or doesn't exist at the destination domain. The error is reported by the recipient domain's email server, but most often it must be fixed by the person who sent the message. If the steps in the How to Fix It section above don't fix the problem, and you're the email admin for the recipient, try one or more of the following:

The email address exists and is correct - Confirm that the recipient address exists, is correct, and is accepting messages.

Synchronize your directories - If you have a hybrid environment and are using directory synchronization make sure the recipient's email address is synced correctly in both Office 365 and in your on-premises directory.

Errant forwarding rule - Check for forwarding rules that aren't behaving as expected. Forwarding can be set up by an admin via mail flow rules or mailbox forwarding address settings, or by the recipient via the Inbox Rules feature.

Mail flow settings and MX records are not correct - Misconfigured mail flow or MX record settings can cause this error. Check your Office 365 mail flow settings to make sure your domain and any mail flow connectors are set up correctly. Also, work with your domain registrar to make sure the MX records for your domain are configured correctly.

Do not click links or open attachments unless you know they are safe.   Good morning/afternoon, everyone, Attached is information that NAAG is sending to CP Chiefs and Chief Deputies/Chiefs of Staff about a robocall-related sign-on opportunity for Reply Comments to be filed with the FCC. These Reply Comments support the FCC's proposal to place new obligations on gateway providers that serve as the U.S. point of entry for foreign-originated illegal robocalls. This effort is co-sponsored by Arkansas, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina. Attached is a copy of the FNPRM, the sign-on memo and form, and of course the Reply Comments. If you are interested in joining as a signatory to these Reply Comments, please complete and return the sign-on form to me (tnayer@ncdoj.gov), Ryan Greenstein at NAAG (r.greenstein@naag.org), and Ashley Wynstra at NAAG (awynstra@naag.org) by NEXT Friday, January 7, 2022, at 3:00 pm ET. NOTE: The FCC filing is the following Monday, so we do have a bit of wiggle room if you need a few more hours beyond the 3pm ET deadline. Just keep me posted on your progress. YES, because of the holidays, this is an abbreviated sign-on period, since none of us should be checking email right now. And, YES, it is almost New Year's, and I sincerely apologize for intruding on your holiday (I, too, planned to turn off notifications on my email right now, I promise!). The delays in getting this to you lay squarely at the feet of North Carolina, so please direct your rightful indignation in my direction. NC's co-sponsors do not deserve your ire, and have been extraordinarily gracious and collaborative partners in this effort. HOWEVER, these Reply Comments need and deserve 51 sign-ons, because they concern important next steps in our collective advocacy and are absolutely significant and consequential. So PLEASE do not take your frustration in the timing of this sign-on out on the effort, because it is a worthy one. If you have any questions about the Reply Comments as you consider joining, please feel free to contact any of the following members of the Robocall Technologies Working Group Executive Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• John Abel in PA (jabel@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• Brandon Bingle in PA (bbingle@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• David McCoy in AR (david.mccoy@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Peggy Johnson in AR (peggy.johnson@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Tracy Nayer in NC (tnayer@ncdoj.gov).</li> </ul> Press will be coordinated for this sign-on through North Carolina's press office. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know they are safe.           Good morning/afternoon, everyone, Attached is information that NAAG is sending to CP Chiefs and Chief Deputies/Chiefs of Staff about a robocall-related sign-on opportunity for Reply Comments to be filed with the FCC. These Reply Comments support the FCC's proposal to place new obligations on gateway providers that serve as the U.S. point of entry for foreign-originated illegal robocalls. This effort is co-sponsored by Arkansas, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina. Attached is a copy of the FNPRM, the sign-on memo and form, and of course the Reply Comments. If you are interested in joining as a signatory to these Reply Comments, please complete and return the sign-on form to me (tnayer@ncdoj.gov), Ryan Greenstein at NAAG (rgreenstein@naag.org), and Ashley Wynstra at NAAG (awynstra@naag.org) by NEXT Friday, January 7, 2022, at 3:00 pm ET. NOTE: The FCC filing is the following Monday, so we do have a bit of wiggle room if you need a few more hours beyond the 3pm ET deadline. Just keep me posted on your progress. YES, because of the holidays, this is an abbreviated sign-on period, since none of us should be checking email right now. And, YES, it is almost New Year's, and I sincerely apologize for intruding on your holiday (I, too, planned to turn off notifications on my email right now, I promise!). The delays in getting this to you lay squarely at the feet of North Carolina, so please direct your rightful indignation in my direction. NC's co-sponsors do not deserve your ire, and have been extraordinarily gracious and collaborative partners in this effort. HOWEVER, these Reply Comments need and deserve 51 sign-ons, because they concern important next steps in our collective advocacy and are absolutely significant and consequential. So PLEASE do not take your frustration in the timing of this sign-on out on the effort, because it is a worthy one. If you have any questions about the Reply Comments as you consider joining, please feel free to contact any of the following members of the Robocall Technologies Working Group Executive Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• John Abel in PA (jabel@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• Brandon Bingle in PA (bbingle@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• David McCoy in AR (david.mccoy@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Peggy Johnson in AR (peggy.johnson@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Tracy Nayer in NC (tnayer@ncdoj.gov).</li> </ul> Press will be coordinated for this sign-on through North Carolina's press office. Hello General!

I wanted to email and say thank you very much for thinking of us this holiday season! You know how much we love our North Dakota flour! We have actually used one bag already!

I feel lucky that we get to work with someone as kind and considerate as yourself!

I hope you have a wonderful New Year and looking forward to seeing you in Avon!

Thank you again,

Do not click links or open attachments unless you know they are safe.   Good morning/afternoon, everyone, Attached is information that NAAG is sending to CP Chiefs and Chief Deputies/Chiefs of Staff about a robocall-related sign-on opportunity for Reply Comments to be filed with the FCC. These Reply Comments support the FCC's proposal to place new obligations on gateway providers that serve as the U.S. point of entry for foreign-originated illegal robocalls. This effort is co-sponsored by Arkansas, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina. Attached is a copy of the FNPRM, the sign-on memo and form, and of course the Reply Comments. If you are interested in joining as a signatory to these Reply Comments, please complete and return the sign-on form to me (tnayer@ncdoj.gov), Ryan Greenstein at NAAG (rgreenstein@naag.org), and Ashley Wynstra at NAAG (awynstra@naag.org) by NEXT Friday, January 7, 2022, at 3:00 pm ET. NOTE: The FCC filing is the following Monday, so we do have a bit of wiggle room if you need a few more hours beyond the 3pm ET deadline. Just keep me posted on your progress. YES, because of the holidays, this is an abbreviated sign-on period, since none of us should be checking email right now. And, YES, it is almost New Year's, and I sincerely apologize for intruding on your holiday (I, too, planned to turn off notifications on my email right now, I promise!!). The delays in getting this to you lay squarely at the feet of North Carolina, so please direct your rightful indignation in my direction. NC's co-sponsors do not deserve your ire, and have been extraordinarily gracious and collaborative partners in this effort. HOWEVER, these Reply Comments need and deserve 51 sign-ons, because they concern important next steps in our collective advocacy and are absolutely significant and consequential. So PLEASE do not take your frustration in the timing of this sign-on out on the effort, because it is a worthy one. If you have any questions about the Reply Comments as you consider joining, please feel free to contact any of the following members of the Robocall Technologies Working Group Executive Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• John Abel in PA (jabel@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• Brandon Bingle in PA (bbingle@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• David McCoy in AR (david.mccoy@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Peggy Johnson in AR (peggy.johnson@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Tracy Nayer in NC (tnayer@ncdoj.gov).</li> </ul> Press will be coordinated for this sign-on through North Carolina's press office. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know they are safe.   Good morning/afternoon, everyone, Attached is information that NAAG is sending to CP Chiefs and Chief Deputies/Chiefs of Staff about a robocall-related sign-on opportunity for Reply Comments to be filed with the FCC. These Reply Comments support the FCC's proposal to place new obligations on gateway providers that serve as the U.S. point of entry for foreign-originated illegal robocalls. This effort is co-sponsored by Arkansas, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina. Attached is a copy of the FNPRM, the sign-on memo and form, and of course the Reply Comments. If you are interested in joining as a signatory to these Reply Comments, please complete and return the sign-on form to me (tnayer@ncdoj.gov), Ryan Greenstein at NAAG (rgreenstein@naag.org), and Ashley Wynstra at NAAG (awynstra@naag.org) by NEXT Friday, January 7, 2022, at 3:00 pm ET. NOTE: The FCC filing is the following Monday, so we do have a bit of wiggle room if you need a few more hours beyond the 3pm ET deadline. Just keep me posted on your progress. YES, because of the holidays, this is an abbreviated sign-on period, since none of us should be checking email right now. And, YES, it is almost New Year's, and I sincerely apologize for intruding on your holiday (I, too, planned to turn off notifications on my email right now, I promise!!). The delays in getting this to you lay squarely at the feet of North Carolina, so please direct your rightful indignation in my direction. NC's co-sponsors do not deserve your ire, and have been extraordinarily gracious and collaborative partners in this effort. HOWEVER, these Reply Comments need and deserve 51 sign-ons, because they concern important next steps in our collective advocacy and are absolutely significant and consequential. So PLEASE do not take your frustration in the timing of this sign-on out on the effort, because it is a worthy one. If you have any questions about the Reply Comments as you consider joining, please feel free to contact any of the following members of the Robocall Technologies Working Group Executive Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• John Abel in PA (jabel@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• Brandon Bingle in PA (bbingle@attorneygeneral.gov)</li> <li>• David McCoy in AR (david.mccoy@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Peggy Johnson in AR (peggy.johnson@arkansasag.gov)</li> <li>• Tracy Nayer in NC (tnayer@ncdoj.gov).</li> </ul> Press will be coordinated for this sign-on through North Carolina's press office. Beth,

As we discussed Koda is willing to change the terms for the Surface use agreement to $20K for the pad and 1 well bore and $3,500k, 5 cents per barrel, $2000 per acre over 10 acres. I will ask Koda about bumping the disposal water to 10 cents and get back to you as soon as I hear.

For Janelle and your open minerals the best I can get Koda to offer for a lease is $200, 3 yrs., and 18%.

All,
 Attached is an updated draft of the CMS Mandate Comment letter, both as a new clean draft and a PDF showing changes from the original circulated text. The changes reflect several minor but helpful suggestions for sign-on states. At this point, in addition to the lead states of Kentucky, Arizona, Louisiana, and Montana, we have received sign-ons from Indiana, Georgia, Mississippi, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, and Texas. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with these redlined changes. If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST Tuesday, January 4.

Commerce takes the position that the records are confidential, and DOH will need to service Commerce with a subpoena for the records. Therefore, DOH will be serving Commerce with a subpoena for the records. I do not recall that we have had to do this before, so I just want to make sure you are aware of what is happening. Matt |

Matt,

Following up to get your thoughts on the below as well as the proposed revisions to S.3200 sent in e-mail dated 12/29/2021. Happy to discuss in a call if convenient.

Also, be advised that the McKenzie County Grazing Association has sent the attached letter to Representative Armstrong requesting that the Little Missouri National Grasslands be completely removed from the current bill. Paragraph 3 calls out the section line rights-of-way issue.

Thank You,

James

Matt,

I don't believe we have specifically discussed sections 54-01-12, 54-01-13, 54-01-13.2, 54-01-13.3, but I don't see any glaring issues aside from those we have already discussed. Here is my take, please let me know if you disagree with anything - I would be happy to discuss further.

- Article IX, § 6 of the constitution requires further legislative authority to exchange state- owned original grant lands with federal lands (see highlighted language below).
- This legislative authority appears in N.D.C.C. §§ 15-06-19.1, 54-01-12, and 54-01-13:
  - o § 15- 06- 19.1 grants the Board legislative authority to exchange "[o]riginal grant school or institutional lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands" with federal lands "of like character and value". I interpret this grant of authority to be quite broad and apply to all lands under the control of the Board (whether granted in the Enabling act or otherwise acquired thereafter, and wherever located).
  - o § 54- 01- 12 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located on Indian reservations within the state with federal lands also located on Indian reservations within the state. The language does not indicate that the lands exchanged must be located the same reservation.
  - o § 54- 01- 13 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located within the borders of Fort Berthold reservation with federal lands located outside of Fort Berthold reservation.
- S.3200 specifically proposes an exchange of state- owned land located within the Little Missouri National Grassland and within the reservations.
- N.D.C.C. §§ 54- 01- 13.1, 13.2, and 13.3 all appear to apply only to exchanges of land within Theodore Roosevelt National Park. It is my understanding that most (if not all) state- owned land within the Park has already been exchanged.

N.D. Const. art. IX, § 6.

Any of said lands that may be required for townsite purposes, schoolhouse sites, church sites, cemetery sites, sites for other educational or charitable institutions, public parks, airplane landing fields, fairgrounds, public highways, railroad right of way, or other railroad uses and purposes, reservoirs for the storage of water for irrigation, irrigation canals, and ditches, drainage ditches, or for any of the purposes for which private lands may be taken under the right of eminent domain under the constitution and laws of this state, may be sold under the provisions of this article, and shall be paid for in full at the time of sale, or at any time thereafter as herein provided. Any of said lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands, including state coal mineral interests, may, with the approval of said board, be exchanged for lands and coal mineral interests of the United States, the state of North Dakota or any county or municipality thereof as the legislature may provide, and the lands so acquired shall be subject to the trust to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject. and the state shall reserve all mineral and water power rights in land so transferred.

Matt,

Following up to get your thoughts on the below as well as the proposed revisions to S.3200 sent in e-mail dated 12/29/2021. Happy to discuss in a call if convenient.

Also, be advised that the McKenzie County Grazing Association has sent the attached letter to Representative Armstrong requesting that the Little Missouri National Grasslands be completely removed from the current bill. Paragraph 3 calls out the section line rights-of-way issue.

Thank You,

James

Matt,

I don't believe we have specifically discussed sections 54-01-12, 54-01-13, 54-01-13.2, 54-01-13.3, but I don't see any glaring issues aside from those we have already discussed. Here is my take, please let me know if you disagree with anything - I would be happy to discuss further.

- Article IX, § 6 of the constitution requires further legislative authority to exchange state- owned original grant lands with federal lands (see highlighted language below).
- This legislative authority appears in N.D.C.C. §§ 15-06-19.1, 54-01-12, and 54-01-13:
  - o § 15- 06- 19.1 grants the Board legislative authority to exchange "[o]riginal grant school or institutional lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands" with federal lands "of like character and value". I interpret this grant of authority to be quite broad and apply to all lands under the control of the Board (whether granted in the Enabling act or otherwise acquired thereafter, and wherever located).
  - o § 54- 01- 12 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located on Indian reservations within the state with federal lands also located on Indian reservations within the state. The language does not indicate that the lands exchanged must be located the same reservation.
  - o § 54- 01- 13 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located within the borders of Fort Berthold reservation with federal lands located outside of Fort Berthold reservation.
- S.3200 specifically proposes an exchange of state- owned land located within the Little Missouri National Grassland and within the reservations.
- N.D.C.C. §§ 54- 01- 13.1, 13.2, and 13.3 all appear to apply only to exchanges of land within Theodore Roosevelt National Park. It is my understanding that most (if not all) state- owned land within the Park has already been exchanged.

N.D. Const. art. IX, § 6.

Any of said lands that may be required for townsite purposes, schoolhouse sites, church sites, cemetery sites, sites for other educational or charitable institutions, public parks, airplane landing fields, fairgrounds, public highways, railroad right of way, or other railroad uses and purposes, reservoirs for the storage of water for irrigation, irrigation canals, and ditches, drainage ditches, or for any of the purposes for which private lands may be taken under the right of eminent domain under the constitution and laws of this state, may be sold under the provisions of this article, and shall be paid for in full at the time of sale, or at any time thereafter as herein provided. Any of said lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands, including state coal mineral interests, may, with the approval of said board, be exchanged for lands and coal mineral interests of the United States, the state of North Dakota or any county or municipality thereof as the legislature may provide, and the lands so acquired shall be subject to the trust to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject. and the state shall reserve all mineral and water power rights in land so transferred.

 | Body | Thanks so much for your email. I appreciate your kind comments about my impending retirement. It was a lot harder decision than I thought it would be! I will be happy to lend assistance to you and your effort on the open records. I realize it's a challenge put all the pieces together in a workable fashion. The person I have in mind is out of the office for the week now, but I'll visit about that with her first thing Monday morning. Again, thanks for you your kind words. Have a good weekend.Wayne <hr/> From: Tufte, Justice Jerod &lt;JTufte@ndcourts.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, January 7, 2022 3:12 PM To: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Subject: open records in the judicial branch   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. I hope this means that you and Beth will have even greater opportunities for interesting travel. Congratulations on your long and honorable service to the state. I reach out today because I am leading a work group to rewrite our court rule relating to open records (Admin. Rule 41). You may recall that about two years ago we amended this rule and implemented a policy of greater remote public access of court records that had been to that point available only in person at court houses. For a variety of reasons, that public access under the amended rule was suspended. Our Court Services Administration Committee spent more than a year working on another approach to these issues. Unfortunately, I believe the result of that effort did not leave us with a viable rule to manage access to records within the judicial branch. I have been working on a draft rule for consideration by the Supreme Court that would closely track the open records provisions in Chapter 44-04, in many cases by expressly incorporating those procedures by reference. As you are probably aware, Chapter 44-04 expressly excludes from the definition of "record" any documents in the possession of a court. This carve-out recognizes that the Court has authority to provide by rule for management of judicial records. I think the public should have a more consistent experience in terms of cost, response time, administrative procedure, etc whether records are requested from the executive branch or the judicial branch. I explain all this to you to ask if you would recommend someone in your office having knowledge and experience with our open records laws to participate in 2-3 meetings over the course of the next 3 months or so. I think the statutory procedures for requests, costs, response time, search and collection, and many of the exemptions and confidentiality exclusions are well crafted and would work well for court records. If this project leads where I believe it will, the court, and eventually the public, would benefit from your office's expertise in this area as we re-write our open records rule to harmonize it with Chapter 44-04. Thank you for your assistance with this and please let me know if your office has someone willing and able to assist us with this. You can also reach me on my cell phone at NDCC §44-04-18.3 if you'd like to discuss further. Jerod Jerod E. | Body | Thanks so much for your email. I appreciate your kind comments about my impending retirement. It was a lot harder decision than I thought it would be! I will be happy to lend assistance to you and your effort on the open records. I realize it's a challenge put all the pieces together in a workable fashion. The person I have in mind is out of the office for the week now, but I'll visit about that with her first thing Monday morning. Again, thanks for you your kind words. Have a good weekend.Wayne <hr/> From: Tufte, Justice Jerod &lt;JTufte@ndcourts.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, January 7, 2022 3:12 PM To: Stenehjsem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjsem@nd.gov&gt; Subject: open records in the judicial branch   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. I hope this means that you and Beth will have even greater opportunities for interesting travel. Congratulations on your long and honorable service to the state. I reach out today because I am leading a work group to rewrite our court rule relating to open records (Admin. Rule 41). You may recall that about two years ago we amended this rule and implemented a policy of greater remote public access of court records that had been to that point available only in person at court houses. For a variety of reasons, that public access under the amended rule was suspended. Our Court Services Administration Committee spent more than a year working on another approach to these issues. Unfortunately, I believe the result of that effort did not leave us with a viable rule to manage access to records within the judicial branch. I have been working on a draft rule for consideration by the Supreme Court that would closely track the open records provisions in Chapter 44-04, in many cases by expressly incorporating those procedures by reference. As you are probably aware, Chapter 44-04 expressly excludes from the definition of "record" any documents in the possession of a court. This carve-out recognizes that the Court has authority to provide by rule for management of judicial records. I think the public should have a more consistent experience in terms of cost, response time, administrative procedure, etc whether records are requested from the executive branch or the judicial branch. I explain all this to you to ask if you would recommend someone in your office having knowledge and experience with our open records laws to participate in 2-3 meetings over the course of the next 3 months or so. I think the statutory procedures for requests, costs, response time, search and collection, and many of the exemptions and confidentiality exclusions are well crafted and would work well for court records. If this project leads where I believe it will, the court, and eventually the public, would benefit from your office's expertise in this area as we re-write our open records rule to harmonize it with Chapter 44-04. Thank you for your assistance with this and please let me know if your office has someone willing and able to assist us with this. You can also reach me on my cell phone at NDCC 844-04-18.3 if you'd like to discuss further. Jerod Jerod E. Wayne and Troy,

Please find below an overview of a call for assistance for a suicide from the LaMoire County Sheriffs Department. Tragic loss of a young man.

S/A's Troy Kelly and Shawn Banet did a great job with a tough and emotional scene.

Thank you,

Lonnie

To add to this I would like to strongly commend the LaMoire Ambulance in going above and beyond their duty by offering to clean up the scene after we were done processing. The whole crew without hesitation cleaned up the biological material and blood so that the family wasn't retraumatized by dealing with the aftermath of their child's suicide. It is truly an honor to work with such great communities that care for one another to that level.

Subject: LaMoire Co Suicide

Thursday night S/A Kelly and myself assisted LaMoire County SO with the investigation of a suicide involving a 15 year old juvenile male.

Upon arrival we were advised by the Sheriff that the in the evening 12.1.35-03 went to his room locking the door behind himself. After some time his mother Ann went to his door to ask him to come out to play a card game with the family. It was at this point that she discovered that the door was locked. Ann then asked 12.1.35 to unlock the door as per their family rules the kids were not allowed to lock their doors. 12.1.35 did not respond. Ann went out to the kitchen to let her husband (Brett) know. It was at this time they heard a loud noise. Brett unlocked the door with a screwdriver and discovered 12.1.35 lying on the floor on top of his shot gun surrounded by a large pool of blood.

Upon interviewing the family I was advised that the family wasn't into hunting or guns but 12.1.35 had expressed interest in wanting to start to bird hunt. The parents decided with 12.1.35's parent interest they would give him a shot gun for Christmas along with a box of bird shot.

Further discussion revealed that 12.1.35 was a straight A student and an athlete. No recent break ups or apparent issues with his peers. Recently 12.1.35 had get into trouble for disrespecting his mother but the family did not disclose that it was anything beyond normal teenage issues.

Preliminary searching of 12.1.35's cell phone has not retrieved any obvious red flags, beyond online searches (relating to suicide and suicide by shotgun) that 12.1.35 did prior to committing suicide. 12.1.35's mother Charlie did disclose that LaMoire high school does have a significant amount of bullying but was unaware of any major issues that would have been affecting 12.1.35-03.

12.1.35 did leave a note next to his phone stating "Your Loss."

Preliminary autopsy results are constant with what we saw on scene, ruling the death as a suicide with the manner of death being a single oral gunshot wound.

After talking with the family they agreed to allow me to give our victim advocates their information to possibly offer some assistance in going through this process.

The following is a brief synopsis of the family:

Father Charles Brett Bowman (goes by Brett)
Mother Ann Bowman
Charlie Bowman (senior in HS)
12.1.35-03 (victim, was a sophomore in HS)

I will be pulling a case number on Monday and will have my initial report submitted early next week.

If you have more questions feel free to let me know.

| Body | Chief,                 Thanks again for reaching out to me and my office on this important issue. I've visited with Mary Kae Kelsch in my office, and she is more than willing to assist with the rule you are working on. As you know, she's had the open records portfolio in my office for years, and I'm sure you will find her assistance very helpful.                 Best to you,                 Wayne <hr/> From: Tufte, Justice Jerod &lt;JTufte@ndcourts.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, January 7, 2022 3:12 PM To: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Subject: open records in the judicial branch   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. I hope this means that you and Beth will have even greater opportunities for interesting travel. Congratulations on your long and honorable service to the state. I reach out today because I am leading a work group to rewrite our court rule relating to open records (Admin. Rule 41). You may recall that about two years ago we amended this rule and implemented a policy of greater remote public access of court records that had been to that point available only in person at court houses. For a variety of reasons, that public access under the amended rule was suspended. Our Court Services Administration Committee spent more than a year working on another approach to these issues. Unfortunately, I believe the result of that effort did not leave us with a viable rule to manage access to records within the judicial branch. I have been working on a draft rule for consideration by the Supreme Court that would closely track the open records provisions in Chapter 44-04, in many cases by expressly incorporating those procedures by reference. As you are probably aware, Chapter 44-04 expressly excludes from the definition of "record" any documents in the possession of a court. This carve-out recognizes that the Court has authority to provide by rule for management of judicial records. I think the public should have a more consistent experience in terms of cost, response time, administrative procedure, etc whether records are requested from the executive branch or the judicial branch. I explain all this to you to ask if you would recommend someone in your office having knowledge and experience with our open records laws to participate in 2-3 meetings over the course of the next 3 months or so. I think the statutory procedures for requests, costs, response time, search and collection, and many of the exemptions and confidentiality exclusions are well crafted and would work well for court records. If this project leads where I believe it will, the court, and eventually the public, would benefit from your office's expertise in this area as we re-write our open records rule to harmonize it with Chapter 44-04. Thank you for your assistance with this and please let me know if your office has someone willing and able to assist us with this. You can also reach me on my cell phone at NDCc §44-04-18.6 if you'd like to discuss further. Jerod Jerod E. | Body | Chief,                 Thanks again for reaching out to me and my office on this important issue. I've visited with Mary Kae Kelsch in my office, and she is more than willing to assist with the rule you are working on. As you know, she's had the open records portfolio in my office for years, and I'm sure you will find her assistance very helpful.                 Best to you,                 Wayne <hr/> From: Tufte, Justice Jerod &lt;JTufte@ndcourts.gov&gt; Sent: Friday, January 7, 2022 3:12 PM To: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Subject: open records in the judicial branch   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. I hope this means that you and Beth will have even greater opportunities for interesting travel. Congratulations on your long and honorable service to the state. I reach out today because I am leading a work group to rewrite our court rule relating to open records (Admin. Rule 41). You may recall that about two years ago we amended this rule and implemented a policy of greater remote public access of court records that had been to that point available only in person at court houses. For a variety of reasons, that public access under the amended rule was suspended. Our Court Services Administration Committee spent more than a year working on another approach to these issues. Unfortunately, I believe the result of that effort did not leave us with a viable rule to manage access to records within the judicial branch. I have been working on a draft rule for consideration by the Supreme Court that would closely track the open records provisions in Chapter 44-04, in many cases by expressly incorporating those procedures by reference. As you are probably aware, Chapter 44-04 expressly excludes from the definition of "record" any documents in the possession of a court. This carve-out recognizes that the Court has authority to provide by rule for management of judicial records. I think the public should have a more consistent experience in terms of cost, response time, administrative procedure, etc whether records are requested from the executive branch or the judicial branch. I explain all this to you to ask if you would recommend someone in your office having knowledge and experience with our open records laws to participate in 2-3 meetings over the course of the next 3 months or so. I think the statutory procedures for requests, costs, response time, search and collection, and many of the exemptions and confidentiality exclusions are well crafted and would work well for court records. If this project leads where I believe it will, the court, and eventually the public, would benefit from your office's expertise in this area as we re-write our open records rule to harmonize it with Chapter 44-04. Thank you for your assistance with this and please let me know if your office has someone willing and able to assist us with this. You can also reach me on my cell phone at NDCC §44-04-18.3 if you'd like to discuss further. Jerod Jerod E. I think we had some great discussion regarding case prioritizations, communication and paths forward. I will be sending you a prioritization scheme proposal soon. We have some great policies from MN and VA that we plan to mimic in our policy. We will send to the attendees of today's meeting for feedback, then send to you for approval. Once approved I will send a memo to all of our stakeholders. The hot topic of the meeting was what your decision is regarding firearms and latent print analyses. LEAs want to know what our plan is. Apparently, they have been holding these cases so there is a backlog at the LEAs. I have attached the proposal I sent to you in April for your review. We probably should set an in person meeting to discuss these items. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information. Regards,Robyn A. I think we had some great discussion regarding case prioritizations, communication and paths forward. I will be sending you a prioritization scheme proposal soon. We have some great policies from MN and VA that we plan to mimic in our policy. We will send to the attendees of today's meeting for feedback, then send to you for approval. Once approved I will send a memo to all of our stakeholders. The hot topic of the meeting was what your decision is regarding firearms and latent print analyses. LEAs want to know what our plan is. Apparently, they have been holding these cases so there is a backlog at the LEAs. I have attached the proposal I sent to you in April for your review. We probably should set an in person meeting to discuss these items. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information. Regards,                 Robyn A. Apparently a bit ago the Williston School Board held an executive session. Some school board members leaked some info about the meeting to Tom. He ran the story on Williston Trending Topics and on Facebook. Last night, while at another school board meeting in the school office, BCI agent Chrissa Remus showed up with a search warrant for Tom's phone signed by Judge Johnson and seized his phone. She said she was authorized by the warrant to search his phone to identify who leaked the info. The AP just called about it. This could be a start of a firestorm. The warrant is a violation of our shield law for a start, and I'm not sure how BCI gets involved with school board matters? Can you check on this? Jack McDonald WHEELER WOLF LAW FIRM Box 1776 Bismarck, ND 58502-1776 Ph: 701-751-1776; Fx: 701-751-1777 jackmcdonald@wheelerwolf.com |

Apparently a bit ago the Williston School Board held an executive session. Some school board members leaked some info about the meeting to Tom. He ran the story on Williston Trending Topics and on Facebook. Last night, while at another school board meeting in the school office, BCI agent Chrissa Remus showed up with a search warrant for Tom's phone signed by Judge Johnson and seized his phone. She said she was authorized by the warrant to search his phone to identify who leaked the info. The AP just called about it. This could be a start of a firestorm. The warrant is a violation of our shield law for a start, and I'm not sure how BCI gets involved with school board matters? Can you check on this? Jack McDonald WHEELER WOLF LAW FIRM Box 1776 Bismarck, ND 58502-1776 Ph: 701-751-1776; Fx: 701-751-1777 jackmcdonald@wheelerwolf.com |

Wayne: I just had a call from Tom Simon, controversial radio guy in Williston. Apparently a bit ago the Williston School Board held an executive session. Some school board members leaked some info about the meeting to Tom. He ran the story on Williston Trending Topics and on Facebook. Last night, while at another school board meeting in the school office, BCI agent Chrissa Remus showed up with a search warrant for Tom's phone signed by Judge Johnson and seized his phone. She said she was authorized by the warrant to search his phone to identify who leaked the info. The AP just called about it. This could be a start of a firestorm. The warrant is a violation of our shield law for a start, and I'm not sure how BCI gets involved with school board matters? Can you check on this?

Wayne, it looks like SA Burdick has entered into a stipulation with the Plaintiffs in this case, which will allow the county to essentially "sit the case out." Any objections? Even if we had objections, I bet the County would still file...

Matt, I understand you are now the lead on representing the State in the pending abortion case. We represent Birch Burdick in his official capacity, whose position is and always has been "tell me what the law is and I will enforce it." We've been riding the State's coattails in this case, but with the recent depositions it has become more and more expensive for us to participate in the case. I believe we have found a way out of this dilemma.

Attached you will find a stipulation that has been approved by Burdick and the plaintiffs' counsel. We didn't want to file it without running it by you. Could you let us know if you have any concerns with the attached document? We'd like to get it filed before any additional depositions take place. Thanks, and feel free to call if you'd like to discuss.

I can appreciate the distinction the Supreme Court made between the OSHA mandate for workers generally and the CMS mandates for medical workers, but I continue to have concerns about the effect of the ruling for retaining health care workers, who may elect to simply quit, rather than get the vaccine, especially in our rural medical facilities

BISMARCK, N.D. (JAN. 13, 2022) – Gov. Doug Burgum today announced that Mandan attorney Ryan Norrell will serve as the next general counsel for the Governor's Office, effective Feb. 28, citing his broad experience in both the private and public sectors, including as legal counsel for the North Dakota Public Service Commission (PSC) and as state's attorney for LaMoure County.

Norrell has served as general counsel for Farm Credit Services of Mandan since 2015, managing the legal functions of the customer-owned financial cooperative. He previously served as an attorney focused on water law at Dwyer Law Office in Bismarck and as legal counsel for the PSC, focusing on the Public Utility Division. Prior to that, Norrell operated his own law practice in LaMoure, serving as the elected state's attorney in LaMoure County from 2011 to 2013 and as city attorney for multiple cities.

"Ryan brings a broad range of experience in government and the private sector, from working on critical water issues and testifying before legislative committees to providing legal advice to county and city officials and arguing criminal matters before the North Dakota Supreme Court," Burgum said. "He also has represented North Dakota farmers and ranchers and has the ability to translate the law into common language to serve clients of all backgrounds. Combined with his work in state government and on federal issues, his diverse background and expertise will serve the citizens of North Dakota well."

Norrell earned his bachelor's degree in 2006 from Saint Mary's University of Minnesota and his law degree in 2009 from the University of North Dakota School of Law. He has been a member of the State Bar Association's Ethics Committee since 2018.

Norrell will succeed current General Counsel Leslie Bakken Oliver, who has served in the Governor's Office since Burgum and Lt. Gov. Brent Sanford took office on December 2016. Bakken Oliver announced her retirement in August pending the transition to a new general counsel. Burgum expressed his deepest gratitude for Bakken Oliver's exceptional service to the State of North Dakota.

Statement of Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem in response to today's Supreme Court decisions on vaccine mandates

I am pleased that the Supreme Court, by a 6-3 vote, held that the federal Occupational Safety & Health Administration lacked constitutional authority under its "workplace safety" regulations to impose a vaccine mandate that would have affected more than 80 million employees across the country.

As the Supreme Court majority opinion stated, "Although Congress has indisputably given OSHA the power to regulate occupational dangers, it has not given that agency the power to regulate public health more broadly."

I can appreciate the distinction the Supreme Court made between the OSHA mandate for workers generally and the CMS mandates for medical workers, but I continue to have serious concerns about the effect the ruling will have on retaining health care workers, many of whom may elect to simply quit rather than get the vaccine, seriously exacerbating staffing issues, especially in our rural medical facilities.

As I have emphasized from the beginning, the lawsuits were not about whether people should get vaccinated, they were about opposing federal overreach.

Two other lawsuits continue, one against the federal mandate for federal contractors, and the other for employees, volunteers, and children with Head Start programs.

All,

Great job yesterday to everyone with the arrest of MOORE. Below is what was put out DEA-wide from the Omaha Division. This is another great example of the cooperation here, and the greater Community is certainly safer with MOORE off the street.

Body

Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel and Governor Gretchen Whitmer are highlighting resources available through the Michigan Human Trafficking Commission. The Commission prosecutes traffickers and provides training throughout the state. Since its inception, 34 indictments have been filed, 25 convictions have been secured thus far.

In 2019 alone, in over 30 presentations, the initiative provided human trafficking training to approximately 800 medical professionals, as many as 1,000 various other professionals and about 300 members of the public. The Department of Attorney General is also home to the Michigan Human Trafficking Commission.

Those victimized by traffickers face sexual, physical and emotional abuse all for the purpose of exploitation and support those who feel helpless. I encourage everyone to take some time to review the resource.

Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall noted on January 11, National Human Trafficking Awareness Day, human trafficking.

Each year, millions of men, women and children are victimized by human traffickers worldwide. While dozens of cases are reported, the number is much higher as most cases go unreported.

Body

... after our joint announcement of the creation of the Alabama Anti Human Trafficking Alliance, law enforcement is the dark crime of human trafficking. And this increased awareness is already making a positive difference in lives."

Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall

Body

Attorney General Rob Bonta highlighted resources available to businesses and members of the public to help combat human trafficking. California law requires certain businesses and establishments to post notices that provide information and resources to help prevent human trafficking. The Attorney General urges businesses and members of the public across the state to use these resources and community organizations combat human trafficking in California.

Every year, there are thousands of reported human trafficking cases across the United States, including right here in California. Whether it's for sex or labor, abusing power to force or coerce someone into doing something against their will is wrong. At the California Department of Justice, we're committed to standing up for survivors, disrupting and dismantling human trafficking rings, and securing justice. However, it takes all of us to combat human trafficking. I urge businesses across the state to use the resources we're sharing today to help put an end to trafficking in California. If you or someone you know has been affected by human trafficking, there are resources available to you. You are not alone.

—California Attorney General Rob Bonta

Virginia Attorney General Mark R. Herring announced that the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force (Task Force) has been selected as one of two sites nationally to participate in the federal TraffickSTOP (Signs To Observe and Prevent) pilot program to educate high school youth about human trafficking. This program will be a collaboration between the Task Force, the Newport News Police Department, and Newport News Public Schools. Attorney General Herring was instrumental in the creation of the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force and the Task Force Coordinator is housed in the Office of the Attorney General.

TraffickSTOP is both a human trafficking identification and prevention curriculum for high school students, as well as training for law enforcement to deliver the curriculum in schools. Newport News School resource officers will deliver the curriculum to students, along with members of the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force and others, and with support from other community stakeholders.

Body

I am incredibly proud of the work that the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force has done to combat human trafficking in the region, and their selection to participate in this program shows just how impactful their work has been. The sad reality is that unscrupulous people will prey on young, impressionable people, which is why it's so important that Virginia's youth are armed with the tools they need to help protect themselves and others.

—Virginia Attorney General Mark R. Herring

ROBOCALLS

Body

A bipartisan group of 51 attorneys general is working to stop international scam calls. In a comment letter, the coalition urged the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to put in place measures that will help stem the tide of foreign-based illegal robocalls that attempt to scam Americans.

The 51 attorneys general are calling for the FCC to require gateway providers â€” the companies that allow foreign calls into the United States â€” to take steps to reduce how easily robocalls have been able to enter the U.S. telephone network, including implementing STIR/SHAKEN, a caller ID authentication technology that helps prevent spoofed calls. Gateway providers should be required to implement this technology within 30 days of it becoming a rule to help eliminate spoofed calls and to make sure that international calls that originate from U.S. telephone numbers are legitimate. In December the coalition of 51 attorneys general successfully persuaded the FCC to shorten by a year the deadline for smaller telephone companies to implement STIR/SHAKEN.

The attorneys general are also encouraging the FCC to require all phone companies to block calls from a gateway provider if it fails to meet these requirements. Illegal robocalls are a scourge â€” in 2020, Americans lost more than $520 million through robocall scams.

Attorneys General in the coalition that joined in sending this letter to the FCC includes Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

STUDENT DEBT

A bipartisan coalition of 30 attorneys general secured $1.85 billion from Navient, one of the nation's largest loan servicers, resolving allegations of widespread unfair and deceptive student loan servicing practices in originating predatory student loan and resolved allegations that Navient harmed student borrowers. As part of the settlement, Navient will pay $1.7 billion in debt forgiveness and $85 million in restitution to borrowers across the country. The settlement agreement, which concludes a nearly five-year investigation into Navient's practices, states that Navient will also reform its practices and pay penalties of $46.9 million to the states.

Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin signed the settlement.

Body

Mississippi Attorney General Lynn Fitch announced that Mississippi also entered into a stand alone settlement with Harvest to resolve allegations of unfair and deceptive student loan servicing practices. The settlement will require court approval.

Relief terms in this settlement include improved notification of options available to borrowers, as well as training for loan specialists on how to advise distressed borrowers about alternative repayment options and how to counsel eligible borrowers about Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF). Terms also prohibit compensating customer service agents in a way that incentivizes them to minimize the time they spend counseling borrowers.

ORGANIZED RETAIL CRIME

Florida Attorney General Ashley Moody is working with state legislators to address organized retail theft in Florida. Attorney General Moody held a news conference with lawmakers in Hialeah to announce legislative efforts to help law enforcement and prosecutors dismantle retail theft crime rings. The announcement comes one week before Florida's 2022 Legislative Session begins.

FORCE is a statewide task force and database to help spot trends, identify suspects and take down massive, organized retail theft rings. The database is designed to bridge the gap between retailers, law enforcement and prosecutors by allowing shareable, searchable information on theft incidents statewide.

To help bolster the effectiveness of FORCE, the Florida Attorney General's Office will partner with state legislators this session to seek to remove barriers to prosecution for what is clearly organized criminal activity. Upcoming legislation will provide a targeted revision to current statutes determining the felony status for retail theft when someone steals multiple items from multiple locations in a short period of time. These changes would strengthen the laws on the books to allow prosecutors to bring stronger penalties against criminals who commit crimes across the state to avoid justice.

Organized retail theft is on the rise nationwide, and the Attorney General Alliance is dedicated to ensuring all states remain ahead of the trend to help prevent the retail crime wave.

COVID MANDATES - SCOTUS DECISIONS

On Thursday, the Supreme Court blocked enforcement of the Biden administration's COVID-19 vaccine-or-test mandate for workers at large businesses but allowed enforcement of a similar mandate for certain health care workers.

While challenges to the mandates from businesses and a number of states were returned to lower courts, the ruling suggests that the justices are likely to rule against the business rule if the case reaches the court again.

National Federation of Independent Business v. Occupational Safety and Health Administration

By a 6-3 vote, the Court stayed application of an emergency rule adopted by OSHA that would have required all employers with at least 100 employees to require their workers to receive a COVID-19 vaccine or else obtain a medical test each week at their own expense and on their own time, and also wear a mask each workday.

Biden v. Missouri

By a 5-4 vote, the Court stayed injunctions that had barred operation of a rule adopted by the Secretary of Health and Human Services that, in order to receive Medicare and Medicaid funding, participating facilities must ensure that their staff are vaccinated against COVID-19 unless exempt for medical or religious reasons.

As the United States Supreme Court made these decisions regarding COVID-19 mandates, attorneys general nationwide issued the following statements:

HUMAN TRAFFICKING
Awareness Month

Body

Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel and Governor Gretchen Whitmer are highlighting resources available through the Michigan Human Trafficking Commission. The Commission prosecutes traffickers and provides training throughout the state. Since its inception, 34 individuals have been prosecuted, 25 convictions have been secured thus far.

In 2019 alone, in over 30 presentations, the initiative provided human trafficking training to approximately 800 medical professionals, as many as 1,000 various other professionals and about 300 members of the public. The Department of Attorney General is also home to the Michigan Human Trafficking Commission.

Those victimized by traffickers face sexual, physical and emotional abuse all for the purpose of exploitation and support those who feel helpless. I encourage everyone to take some time to review the resource.

Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall noted on January 11, National Human Trafficking Awareness Day, human trafficking.

Each year, millions of men, women and children are victimized by human traffickers worldwide. While dozens of cases are reported, the number is much higher as most cases go unreported.

Attorney General Rob Bonta highlighted resources available to businesses and members of the public to help combat human trafficking. California law requires certain businesses and establishments to post notices that provide information and resources to help identify and report human trafficking. The Attorney General urges businesses and members of the public across the state to use these resources and community organizations combat human trafficking in California.

Every year, there are thousands of reported human trafficking cases across the United States, including right here in California. Whether it's for sex or labor, abusing power to force or coerce someone into doing something against their will is wrong. At the California Department of Justice, we're committed to standing up for survivors, disrupting and dismantling human trafficking rings, and securing justice. However, it takes all of us to combat human trafficking. I urge businesses across the state to use the resources we're sharing today to help put an end to trafficking in California. If you or someone you know has been affected by human trafficking, there are resources available to you. You are not alone.

—California Attorney General Rob Bonta

Virginia Attorney General Mark R. Herring announced that the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force (Task Force) has been selected as one of two sites nationally to participate in the federal TraffickSTOP (Signs To Observe and Prevent) pilot program to educate high school youth about human trafficking. This program will be a collaboration between the Task Force, the Newport News Police Department, and Newport News Public Schools. Attorney General Herring was instrumental in the creation of the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force and the Task Force Coordinator is housed in the Office of the Attorney General.

TraffickSTOP is both a human trafficking identification and prevention curriculum for high school students, as well as training for law enforcement to deliver the curriculum in schools. Newport News School resource officers will deliver the curriculum to students, along with members of the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force and others, and with support from other community stakeholders.

Body

I am incredibly proud of the work that the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force has done to combat human trafficking in the region, and their selection to participate in this program shows just how impactful their work has been. The sad reality is that unscrupulous people will prey on young, impressionable people, which is why it's so important that Virginia's youth are armed with the tools they need to help protect themselves and others.

ROBOCALLS

Body

A bipartisan group of 51 attorneys general is working to stop international scam calls. In a comment letter, the coalition urged the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to put in place measures that will help stem the tide of foreign-based illegal robocalls that attempt to scam Americans.

The 51 attorneys general are calling for the FCC to require gateway providers â€” the companies that allow foreign calls into the United States â€” to take steps to reduce how easily robocalls have been able to enter the U.S. telephone network, including implementing STIR/SHAKEN, a caller ID authentication technology that helps prevent spoofed calls. Gateway providers should be required to implement this technology within 30 days of it becoming a rule to help eliminate spoofed calls and to make sure that international calls that originate from U.S. telephone numbers are legitimate. In December the coalition of 51 attorneys general successfully persuaded the FCC to shorten by a year the deadline for smaller telephone companies to implement STIR/SHAKEN.

The attorneys general are also encouraging the FCC to require all phone companies to block calls from a gateway provider if it fails to meet these requirements. Illegal robocalls are a scourge â€” in 2020, Americans lost more than $520 million through robocall scams.

Attorneys General in the coalition that joined in sending this letter to the FCC includes Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

STUDENT DEBT

A bipartisan coalition of 30 attorneys general secured $1.85 billion from Navient, one of the nation's largest loan servicers, resolving allegations of widespread unfair and deceptive student loan servicing practices in originating predatory student loan and resolved allegations that Navient harmed student borrowers. As part of the total $1.85 billion in relief, Navient will pay $1.7 billion in debt forgiveness and $85 million in restitution to borrowers across the country. The settlement agreement, which concludes a nearly five-year investigation into the company, states that Navient will also reform its practices and pay penalties of $46.9 million to the states.

Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming signed the settlement.

Body

Mississippi Attorney General Lynn Fitch announced that Mississippi also entered into a stand alone settlement with Harvest to resolve allegations of unfair and deceptive student loan servicing practices. The settlement will require court approval.

Relief terms in this settlement include improved notification of options available to borrowers, as well as training for loan specialists on how to advise distressed borrowers about alternative repayment options and how to counsel eligible borrowers about Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF). Terms also prohibit compensating customer service agents in a way that incentivizes them to minimize the time they spend counseling borrowers.

ORGANIZED RETAIL CRIME

Florida Attorney General Ashley Moody is working with state legislators to address organized retail theft in Florida. Attorney General Moody held a news conference with lawmakers in Hialeah to announce legislative efforts to help law enforcement and prosecutors dismantle retail theft crime rings. The announcement comes one week before Florida's 2022 Legislative Session begins.

FORCE is a statewide task force and database to help spot trends, identify suspects and take down massive, organized retail theft rings. The database is designed to bridge the gap between retailers, law enforcement and prosecutors by allowing shareable, searchable information on theft incidents statewide.

To help bolster the effectiveness of FORCE, the Florida Attorney General's Office will partner with state legislators this session to seek to remove barriers to prosecution for what is clearly organized criminal activity. Upcoming legislation will provide a targeted revision to current statutes determining the felony status for retail theft when someone steals multiple items from multiple locations in a short period of time. These changes would strengthen the laws on the books to allow prosecutors to bring stronger penalties against criminals who commit crimes across the state to avoid justice.

Organized retail theft is on the rise nationwide, and the Attorney General Alliance is dedicated to ensuring all states remain ahead of the trend to help prevent the retail crime wave.

Body

Arizona Attorney General Mark Brnovich and West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrisey co- led 15 other states urging the U.S. Department of State to take a tougher approach to stem the influx of deadly fentanyl into their states and the nation as a whole. In their letter, sent to U.S. Secretary of State Antony Blinken, the attorneys general outlined their concerns about the production and distribution of fentanyl. The attorneys general are asking Secretary Blinken and his department to take a tougher stance on stopping the influx of deadly fentanyl from China and Mexico.

COVID MANDATES - SCOTUS DECISIONS

On Thursday, the Supreme Court blocked enforcement of the Biden administration's COVID-19 vaccine-or-test mandate for workers at large businesses but allowed enforcement of a similar mandate for certain health care workers.

Liz,

Thank you for this! This is a very helpful in summary of the important points in Judge Traynor's decision.

I have two follow-up questions, if possible. During the hearing earlier this week, Judge Traynor suggested that North Dakota could intervene in the similar lawsuit of a group of other states that was recently appealed up to the Fifth Circuit. Is North Dakota considering taking that step?

Also, the attorney general's statement noted that the state's request "could be ordered at a later time in the litigation" as the case proceeds. Does the state need to pursue a motion for summary judgment, or take any other specific steps, in order to keep pursuing this case in Judge Traynor's court?

Thank you again for your help!
 Adam

Statement of Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem in response to today's federal District Court decision on BLM Oil and Gas Lease Sales

We appreciate the Court's desire to have additional information before issuing an order requiring BLM to hold the statutory quarterly lease sales, and understand, given BLM's promise to hold a lease sale in February and again in the quarter thereafter, why the Court would want to wait and gather more information before making a final decision. The Court denied our request for now without prejudice, which means that as the case proceeds, our request could be ordered at a later time in the litigation.

The Court specifically stated that "if the Defendants do not hold to their word and cancel any planned future sale, North Dakota may bring this action for review of the specifically cancelled sales once this Court has the benefit of a complete record." The Court also noted that there is already an existing nationwide preliminary injunction restraining the federal government from implementing its disputed "pause" on new oil and gas leasing on federal lands.

North Dakota will be closely following the actions of the federal government agencies as they now proceed with the promised lease sales in February and thereafter. We are fully prepared to hold their feet to the fire and will not hesitate to bring the matter before the Court again as the circumstances warrant.

No, I missed this! Thank you for sending it over.

Do you know if the Attorney General or Paul Seby would have a few minutes yet today to talk about the ruling?
 Thank you again for the heads up.

Liz,

Thank you for this! This is a very helpful in summary of the important points in Judge Traynor's decision.

I have two follow-up questions, if possible.
 During the hearing earlier this week, Judge Traynor suggested that North Dakota could intervene in the similar lawsuit of a group of other states that was recently appealed up to the Fifth Circuit. Is North Dakota considering taking that step?

Also, the attorney general's statement noted that the state's request "could be ordered at a later time in the litigation" as the case proceeds. Does the state need to pursue a motion for summary judgment, or take any other specific steps, in order to keep pursuing this case in Judge Traynor's court?

Thank you again for your help!
 Adam

The District of Columbia has prepared the attached amicus brief supporting Respondent-Appellant North Carolina Department of Revenue in Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21 (N.C.). The question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars North Carolina from requiring out-of-state retailers to collect sales tax when they deliver goods to in-state consumers.

Quad Graphics, Inc. ("Quad") is a Wisconsin-based corporation that prints books, magazines, and other items for direct mail to customers nationwide. The North Carolina Department of Revenue issued an assessment to Quad for uncollected sales tax on printed materials that Quad delivered to customers in North Carolina, pursuant to the provision of its tax code that clarifies that sales are "sourced to the location where the purchaser receives the product." N.C.G.S. § 105-164.B(a)(2).

A North Carolina Business Court judge held that the dormant Commerce Clause prohibited states from imposing sales taxes on out-of-state goods delivered by common carrier into the state. Under Dilworth, the court concluded, a state sales (as opposed to use) tax "survives scrutiny under the Commerce Clause only where the purchase of tangible personal property—i.e., the transfer of ownership from the seller to buyer—takes place in the taxing state." Quad Graphics, Inc. v. N.C. Dep't of Revenue, No. 20 CVS 7449, 2021 WL 2584282, at *11 (N.C. Super. June 23, 2021). North Carolina has appealed this decision to the North Carolina Supreme Court. Notably, many other states have similar destination-based sourcing schemes.

Subject: Amicus Memo - Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Revenue (N.C.)

 From: District of Columbia SG Office

The District of Columbia is preparing an amicus brief supporting respondent-appellant North Carolina in Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21, in the North Carolina Supreme Court. The relevant question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars states from asserting and collecting sales taxes on transactions originating from out-of-state and delivered to in-state consumers. We expect the North Carolina AG to argue that Dilworth formalism—which allows use taxes, but not sales taxes on such transactions—is no longer good law.

States have a critical interest in protecting their sovereign authority to fairly tax interstate commerce and to preserve the gains they received from the Supreme Court’s decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair, 138 S. Ct. 2080 (2018). The District’s brief will therefore make two related arguments: First, the brief will argue that reaffirming Dilworth formalism would be inconsistent with the Supreme Court’s decision in Wayfair and would reintroduce many of the policy concerns that animated the Court’s abrogation of the physical-presence rule. Second, the brief will highlight the particular concerns raised by the lower court’s decision in states with destination-based sourcing schemes. The District and at least 39 states have tax-sourcing statutes that identify the location of the “sale” as the place where the goods are delivered. Allowing courts to override such statutes and conclude that there is no transactional nexus absent physical purchase within the taxing state would undermine states’ sovereign taxing authority and contradict the fundamental principle that “the modes adopted [by the States] to enforce the taxes levied should be interfered with as little as possible.” Dows v. City of Chicago, 78 U.S. 108, 110 (1871).

As we craft and refine the brief, it would be helpful to know the following by January 7 (if you happen to have responsive information):

1. Does your state have a destination-based sourcing scheme? If so, a citation to the specific provision of the state tax code would be ideal.
2. In the wake of Wayfair:
  1. Is your state assessing and collecting sales taxes on out-of-state companies that deliver goods to in-state consumers?
  2. Has your state faced Dilworth-based challenges such as the one at issue here?

Please contact caroline.vanzile@dc.gov and norah.rast@dc.gov with your responses. We will circulate a draft brief on or around January 14, in advance of the January 21 join deadline. Many thanks in advance for your help.

The District of Columbia has prepared the attached amicus brief supporting Respondent-Appellant North Carolina Department of Revenue in Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21 (N.C.). The question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars North Carolina from requiring out-of-state retailers to collect sales tax when they deliver goods to in-state consumers.

Quad Graphics, Inc. ("Quad") is a Wisconsin-based corporation that prints books, magazines, and other items for direct mail to customers nationwide. The North Carolina Department of Revenue issued an assessment to Quad for uncollected sales tax on printed materials that Quad delivered to customers in North Carolina, pursuant to the provision of its tax code that clarifies that sales are "sourced to the location where the purchaser receives the product." N.C.G.S. § 105-164.B(a)(2).

A North Carolina Business Court judge held that the dormant Commerce Clause prohibited states from imposing sales taxes on out-of-state goods delivered by common carrier into the state. Under Dilworth, the court concluded, a state sales (as opposed to use) tax "survives scrutiny under the Commerce Clause only where the purchase of tangible personal property—i.e., the transfer of ownership from the seller to buyer—takes place in the taxing state." Quad Graphics, Inc. v. N.C. Dep't of Revenue, No. 20 CVS 7449, 2021 WL 2584282, at *11 (N.C. Super. June 23, 2021). North Carolina has appealed this decision to the North Carolina Supreme Court. Notably, many other states have similar destination-based sourcing schemes.

Subject: Amicus Memo - Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Revenue (N.C.)

To: Civil Amicus Contacts
 From: District of Columbia SG Office

The District of Columbia is preparing an amicus brief supporting respondent-appellant North Carolina in Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21, in the North Carolina Supreme Court. The relevant question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars states from asserting and collecting sales taxes on transactions originating from out-of-state and delivered to in-state consumers. We expect the North Carolina AG to argue that Dilworth formalism—which allows use taxes, but not sales taxes on such transactions—is no longer good law.

States have a critical interest in protecting their sovereign authority to fairly tax interstate commerce and to preserve the gains they received from the Supreme Court’s decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair, 138 S. Ct. 2080 (2018). The District’s brief will therefore make two related arguments: First, the brief will argue that reaffirming Dilworth formalism would be inconsistent with the Supreme Court’s decision in Wayfair and would reintroduce many of the policy concerns that animated the Court’s abrogation of the physical-presence rule. Second, the brief will highlight the particular concerns raised by the lower court’s decision in states with destination-based sourcing schemes. The District and at least 39 states have tax-sourcing statutes that identify the location of the “sale” as the place where the goods are delivered. Allowing courts to override such statutes and conclude that there is no transactional nexus absent physical purchase within the taxing state would undermine states’ sovereign taxing authority and contradict the fundamental principle that “the modes adopted [by the States] to enforce the taxes levied should be interfered with as little as possible.” Dows v. City of Chicago, 78 U.S. 108, 110 (1871).

As we craft and refine the brief, it would be helpful to know the following by January 7 (if you happen to have responsive information):

1. Does your state have a destination-based sourcing scheme? If so, a citation to the specific provision of the state tax code would be ideal.
2. In the wake of Wayfair:
  1. Is your state assessing and collecting sales taxes on out-of-state companies that deliver goods to in-state consumers?
  2. Has your state faced Dilworth-based challenges such as the one at issue here?

Please contact caroline.vanzile@dc.gov and norah.rast@dc.gov with your responses. We will circulate a draft brief on or around January 14, in advance of the January 21 join deadline. Many thanks in advance for your help.

All Attached is a slightly updated version of the OSHA ETS comment letter. Several minor edits are reflected in redline—none material. At this point we have received sign-ons from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and West Virginia. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with the edits reflected in the attached.

If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST tomorrow, Wednesday, January 19.

Thank you.

Moreover, OSHA has previously indicated that the ETS also acts as a proposal for a permanent standard. Thus, unless the ETS is withdrawn before then, Kentucky plans to proceed with submitting a comment letter in opposition to the ETS (and any similar permanent standard) next Wednesday. We are in the process of revising the draft comment letter to incorporate reference to yesterday's Supreme Court opinion, and will circulate that new draft by Monday to invite any other AG's who would like to join the comment letter to do so Best. Christopher L. All Attached is a slightly updated version of the OSHA ETS comment letter. Several minor edits are reflected in redline—none material. At this point we have received sign-ons from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and West Virginia. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with the edits reflected in the attached.

If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST tomorrow, Wednesday, January 19.

Thank you.

Moreover, OSHA has previously indicated that the ETS also acts as a proposal for a permanent standard. Thus, unless the ETS is withdrawn before then, Kentucky plans to proceed with submitting a comment letter in opposition to the ETS (and any similar permanent standard) next Wednesday. We are in the process of revising the draft comment letter to incorporate reference to yesterday's Supreme Court opinion, and will circulate that new draft by Monday to invite any other AG's who would like to join the comment letter to do so Best. Christopher L. Good morning Wayne,

Regarding PBT (twice daily breath testing)... since the beginning of program (2008 statewide)... for round numbers 1.8 million tests administered with a pass rate of 96.8%
 Exact numbers:
 1,798,984 tests administered
 1,792, 268 passed
 6686 Failed

Don't know if you want to use this but we started using remote breath devices last year. Breath test twice a day w/ facial recognition software in device. Numbers are low (have to start somewhere) but results are good.
 19,394 total tests pass rate of 95.9%
 18,602 passed
 39 fail

SCRAM Bracelet
 2021 averaged 614 monitored individuals a month
 Since the inception of the bracelet, 2,268,944 monitored days

Good luck at your talk! ☐☐

Duane

Attached is a new amicus request regarding a brief written by Utah – response is due January 26. I don't have a strong opinion, but Parrell might. Here is a description:

Utah plans to file the attached amicus in support of appellant in Epic Games v. Apple pending in the Ninth Circuit. The amicus argues that (1) the district court's holding that "contract" under Section 1 of the Sherman Act does not include "unilateral contracts" violates rules of statutory interpretation, is inconsistent with Supreme Court precedent, and makes bad public policy; and (2) the district court erred in failing to balance the overall competitive effects as part of its rule-of-reason analysis.

In addition to generally ensuring effective standards for antitrust enforcement, these arguments are directly relevant to the 39-state multistate Google IAP litigation pending in the Northern District of California.

Here is a description: Utah plans to file the attached amicus in support of appellant in Epic Games v. Apple pending in the Ninth Circuit. The amicus argues that (1) the district court's holding that "contract" under Section 1 of the Sherman Act does not include "unilateral contracts" violates rules of statutory interpretation, is inconsistent with Supreme Court precedent, and makes bad public policy; and (2) the district court erred in failing to balance the overall competitive effects as part of its rule-of-reason analysis. In addition to generally ensuring effective standards for antitrust enforcement, these arguments are directly relevant to the 39-state multistate Google IAP litigation pending in the Northern District of California. <hr/> From: Dan Schweitzer &lt;dschweitzer@naag.org&gt; Sent: Thursday, January 20, 2022 6:56 AM To: Dan Schweitzer &lt;dschweitzer@naag.org&gt; Cc: Melissa Holyoak &lt;melissaholyoak@agutah.gov&gt; Subject: Amicus Brief in Epic v. Historically, we have never emailed a recording of an Executive Session. Board members wishing to listen have had to come to the DTL office and listen to them here. I specifically recall an instance when Treasurer Schmidt made this request and she was denied. I have hesitancy changing our position on recordings of Executive Session. Open your thoughts and suggestions. Jodi Smith, MNM, MNT Land Commissioner 701.328.2807 • jodi.smith@nd.gov • land.nd.gov  |

Historically, we have never emailed a recording of an Executive Session. Board members wishing to listen have had to come to the DTL office and listen to them here. I specifically recall an instance when Treasurer Schmidt made this request and she was denied. I have hesitancy changing our position on recordings of Executive Session. Open your thoughts and suggestions. Jodi Smith, MNM, MNT Land Commissioner 701.328.2807 • jodi.smith@nd.gov • land.nd.gov  |

Attached is a new amicus request regarding a brief written by Utah – response is due January 26. I don't have a strong opinion, but Parrell might. Here is a description:

Utah plans to file the attached amicus in support of appellant in Epic Games v. Apple pending in the Ninth Circuit. The amicus argues that (1) the district court's holding that "contract" under Section 1 of the Sherman Act does not include "unilateral contracts" violates rules of statutory interpretation, is inconsistent with Supreme Court precedent, and makes bad public policy; and (2) the district court erred in failing to balance the overall competitive effects as part of its rule-of-reason analysis.

In addition to generally ensuring effective standards for antitrust enforcement, these arguments are directly relevant to the 39-state multistate Google IAP litigation pending in the Northern District of California.

Dear Parrell

I hope this finds you well. And, of course, happy New Year!

During the past few months, I have spoken to General Stenehjem about one of our firm's client, Accreditation Council For Medical Affairs ("ACMA"), which is a medical affairs educational training and certification program. ACMA has also developed opioid education programs for adults and teenagers in order to assist with community education, abatement, and outreach. ACMA can give these programs to any community groups (students, the healthcare industry, private sector businesses, government agencies, etc.) about the harms of opioids and to help curb the opioid crisis through education and prevention.

ACMA is interested in scheduling a brief meeting (30-45 minutes) with you ( and General Stenehjem if he would like to attend) and the others on your opioid team to meet the ACMA and its CEO and founder, William Soliman, to discuss ways the ACMA may be able to assist the state with community opioid education.

Please let me know how you would like to follow-up?

Best,

Clay

Burckhard, Chairman, has been assigned studies of space needs and property leased by the state pursuant to Section 43 of House Bill No. 1015 (2021) and House Concurrent Resolution No. 3043 (2021). These studies include a determination of the individuals who own the property leased by the state, including the members of a corporation, partnership, or any other type of entity that owns property leased by the state. At the October 25, 2021, Government Administration Committee meeting, the Legislative Council was asked to conduct a survey of state entities to collect information on space needs and leased property ownership. The committee members are aware state leases do not always identify the individual owners of property and have requested agencies/entities ask their lessors for the information. Please complete the attached survey regarding state agency space needs and leased property ownership and return the completed survey to me via email (ajcronquist@nd.gov) by Monday, February 28, 2022. If you have any questions regarding this survey, please feel free to contact me. Thank you. Alex Cronquist, CPA         Senior Fiscal Analyst         North Dakota Legislative Council         (701)328-4238 ajcronquist@nd.gov |

Burckhard, Chairman, has been assigned studies of space needs and property leased by the state pursuant to Section 43 of House Bill No. 1015 (2021) and House Concurrent Resolution No. 3043 (2021). These studies include a determination of the individuals who own the property leased by the state, including the members of a corporation, partnership, or any other type of entity that owns property leased by the state. At the October 25, 2021, Government Administration Committee meeting, the Legislative Council was asked to conduct a survey of state entities to collect information on space needs and leased property ownership. The committee members are aware state leases do not always identify the individual owners of property and have requested agencies/entities ask their lessors for the information. Please complete the attached survey regarding state agency space needs and leased property ownership and return the completed survey to me via email (ajcronquist@nd.gov) by Monday, February 28, 2022. If you have any questions regarding this survey, please feel free to contact me. Thank you. Alex Cronquist, CPA         Senior Fiscal Analyst         North Dakota Legislative Council         (701)328-4238 ajcronquist@nd.gov |

Last night we took the main individual, Joel Quinonez, and his girlfriend, Jaimie Garcia into custody. This involved a very in-depth safety plan due to the intelligence we had that Quinonez was armed and violent. When we confronted Quinonez in a hotel parking lot he attempted to reach for his firearm, but due the safety plan put together by Sgt. Orn, Sgt. Morris, and TFO Kyle Hinrichs, he was not able to retrieve it fast enough. It was a tense moment, but eventually he complied and was taken into custody. We were crammed in our takedown van, and also in the hotel room adjacent to Quinonez's, for approximately 7 hours but in the end it paid off. He had 2 stolen firearms in each pocket, and a 3rd firearm in his backpack. He was also in possession of 2.6 pounds of methamphetamine, 1 oz of heroin, and $6,121. After he was in custody he made some comments that were also concerning regarding killing whoever "snitched" on him. I would like to commend TFO Hinrichs, as well as the whole team who contributed, to this investigation (Including our Minnesota partners). Many hours went into this investigation. I believe the community is much safer with this individual in jail. I've attached some photos for you to review. This is an ongoing investigation. Thank you, Special Agent Shelby FranklinNorth Dakota Bureau of Criminal InvestigationCass County Drug Task Force CoordinatorPO Box 9038Fargo, ND 58106Office: (701) 239-7261     |

Last night we took the main individual, Joel Quinonez, and his girlfriend, Jaimie Garcia into custody. This involved a very in-depth safety plan due to the intelligence we had that Quinonez was armed and violent. When we confronted Quinonez in a hotel parking lot he attempted to reach for his firearm, but due the safety plan put together by Sgt. Orn, Sgt. Morris, and TFO Kyle Hinrichs, he was not able to retrieve it fast enough. It was a tense moment, but eventually he complied and was taken into custody. We were crammed in our takedown van, and also in the hotel room adjacent to Quinonez's, for approximately 7 hours but in the end it paid off. He had 2 stolen firearms in each pocket, and a 3rd firearm in his backpack. He was also in possession of 2.6 pounds of methamphetamine, 1 oz of heroin, and $6,121. After he was in custody he made some comments that were also concerning regarding killing whoever "snitched" on him. I would like to commend TFO Hinrichs, as well as the whole team who contributed, to this investigation (Including our Minnesota partners). Many hours went into this investigation. I believe the community is much safer with this individual in jail. I've attached some photos for you to review. This is an ongoing investigation. Thank you, Special Agent Shelby FranklinNorth Dakota Bureau of Criminal InvestigationCass County Drug Task Force CoordinatorPO Box 9038Fargo, ND 58106Office: (701) 239-7261     |

Good morning,

The interim Government Administration Committee, Senator Randy A. Burckhard, Chairman, has been assigned studies of space needs and property leased by the state pursuant to Section 43 of House Bill No. 1015 (2021) and House Concurrent Resolution No. 3043 (2021). These studies include a determination of the individuals who own the property leased by the state, including the members of a corporation, partnership, or any other type of entity that owns property leased by the state. At the October 25, 2021, Government Administration Committee meeting, the Legislative Council was asked to conduct a survey of state entities to collect information on space needs and leased property ownership. The committee members are aware state leases do not always identify the individual owners of property and have requested agencies/entities ask their lessors for the information. Please complete the attached survey regarding state agency space needs and leased property ownership and return the completed survey to me via email (ajcronquist@nd.gov) by Monday, February 28, 2022.

If you have any questions regarding this survey, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you.

The Attorney General approved the draft on November 3, 2021. Since that time, Minnkota has expressed concern with subsection 11.4 that would permit the Board to unilaterally and immediately terminate the Agreement in the event that Minnkota allows a lapse of insurance coverage. Tag Anderson with the Risk Management Division proposed revised language to this provision providing Minnkota an opportunity to cure any such lapse and Minnkota has agreed. Attached is a redline version of the Agreement that incorporates the changes to the insurance provision (page 11) as well as immaterial clean-up edits. Also attached is an inducement letter providing for additional payment as a condition to executing the Easement Agreement. We are again asking for the Attorney General's approval of this Agreement as revised. Respectfully, James J. The Attorney General approved the draft on November 3, 2021. Since that time, Minnkota has expressed concern with subsection 11.4 that would permit the Board to unilaterally and immediately terminate the Agreement in the event that Minnkota allows a lapse of insurance coverage. Tag Anderson with the Risk Management Division proposed revised language to this provision providing Minnkota an opportunity to cure any such lapse and Minnkota has agreed. Attached is a redline version of the Agreement that incorporates the changes to the insurance provision (page 11) as well as immaterial clean-up edits. Also attached is an inducement letter providing for additional payment as a condition to executing the Easement Agreement. ## Justices to Consider Limiting Clean Water Act

The U.S. Supreme Court, heeding calls from business and property-rights groups, agreed to use a long-running Idaho fight to consider curbing the reach of the Clean Water Act.

The justices said they will hear an appeal from Chantell and Michael Sackett, an Idaho couple waging a 15-year-old battle to build a house on land that federal regulators say is protected wetlands. The Sacketts won a 2012 Supreme Court ruling that let their lawsuit go forward.

The case becomes the second major environmental clash on the court's docket. The justices next month will consider limiting the Environmental Protection Agency's ability to address climate change through sweeping reductions of power-plant emissions.

The Supreme Court is likely to hear the case in the term that starts in October.

The new case could give companies a freer hand to discharge pollutants and let developers construct more new houses without getting a federal permit. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Home Builders were among the groups urging the Supreme Court to hear the case.

The Sacketts' appeal asks the court to revisit a 2006 Clean Water Act case, Rapanos v. United States, which failed to produce a majority decision and left uncertainty about the governing standard. Four justices, led by Antonin Scalia, said the law covers wetlands only if they have a continuous surface connection to a river, lake or other major waterway.

A fifth, Justice Anthony Kennedy, created his own test, saying the Clean Water Act covers wetlands with a "significant nexus" to one of those larger bodies of water.

In their appeal, the Sacketts say courts and regulators

Justices to Consider Limiting Clean Water Act

The U.S. Supreme Court, heeding calls from business and property-rights groups, agreed to use a long-running Idaho fight to consider curbing the reach of the Clean Water Act.

The justices said they will hear an appeal from Chantell and Michael Sackett, an Idaho couple waging a 15-year-old battle to build a house on land that federal regulators say is protected wetlands. The Sacketts won a 2012 Supreme Court ruling that let their lawsuit go forward.

The case becomes the second major environmental clash on the court's docket. The justices next month will consider limiting the Environmental Protection Agency's ability to address climate change through sweeping reductions of power-plant emissions.

The Supreme Court is likely to hear the case in the term that starts in October.

The new case could give companies a freer hand to discharge pollutants and let developers construct more new houses without getting a federal permit. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Home Builders were among the groups urging the Supreme Court to hear the case.

The Sacketts' appeal asks the court to revisit a 2006 Clean Water Act case, Rapanos v. United States, which failed to produce a majority decision and left uncertainty about the governing standard. Four justices, led by Antonin Scalia, said the law covers wetlands only if they have a continuous surface connection to a river, lake or other major waterway.

A fifth, Justice Anthony Kennedy, created his own test, saying the Clean Water Act covers wetlands with a "significant nexus" to one of those larger bodies of water.

In their appeal, the Sacketts say courts and regulators

Environmental Protection Agency, 21-454. <hr/> If you are not an intended recipient of confidential and privileged information in this email, please delete it, notify us immediately at postmaster@gtlaw.com, and do not use or disseminate the information. |

One presentation (most likely Deborah) providing information to the committee on gaming, pull tabs, and how they relate to the tribes. The second presentation would be information on drug enforcement and drug issues on tribal land and tasks forces. For each presentation I will need the following information to get the presentations added to the meeting agenda: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Full name of the presenter/representative;</li> <li>• Official title of the presenter/representative;</li> <li>• Amount of time desired for the presentation; and</li> <li>• Title of the presentation.</li> </ul> Please send the above mentioned information to Jill Grossman at jillgrossman@nd.gov before January 31st so that Jill can get the meeting agenda drafted and published. Thank you very much! Sincerely, Christopher S. One presentation (most likely Deborah) providing information to the committee on gaming, pull tabs, and how they relate to the tribes. The second presentation would be information on drug enforcement and drug issues on tribal land and tasks forces. For each presentation I will need the following information to get the presentations added to the meeting agenda: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Full name of the presenter/representative;</li> <li>• Official title of the presenter/representative;</li> <li>• Amount of time desired for the presentation; and</li> <li>• Title of the presentation.</li> </ul> Please send the above mentioned information to Jill Grossman at jillgrossman@nd.gov before January 31st so that Jill can get the meeting agenda drafted and published. Thank you very much! Sincerely, Christopher S. The well site where this occurred is at a well pad with the name "Stenehjem" east of Watford City. I know the Stenehjem family is from this general area and that there are a number of Stenehjem's - but I thought I'd touch base with your office to see if this is by chance on land owned by the attorney general (and if so, if he has a comment about what happened). Thanks, Amy Sisk Reporter, The Bismarck Tribune 701-250-8252 desk 701-425-6078 cell amy.sisk@bismarcktribune.com @amysisk on Twitter From: Haarsager, Katie A. The well site where this occurred is at a well pad with the name "Stenehjem" east of Watford City. I know the Stenehjem family is from this general area and that there are a number of Stenehjem's - but I thought I'd touch base with your office to see if this is by chance on land owned by the attorney general (and if so, if he has a comment about what happened). Thanks, Amy Sisk Reporter, The Bismarck Tribune 701-250-8252 desk 701-425-6078 cell amy.sisk@bismarcktribune.com @amysisk on Twitter From: Haarsager, Katie A. So the Bismarck Area Republicans are getting back to doing our Lincoln Day celebration night after taking some time off due to Covid. This years get together is scheduled for February 10th at the Ramada. Since both of you are ending your remarkable careers I was thinking you both could be co-speakers. As you know the speeches are not formal so I was just thinking of having each of you speak for 10 minutes reflecting on your time in office or whatever you would want. Thoughts?? AGB |
