Team,

Justice Kavanaugh has requested our response to the Government's stay application in the CMS case by December 30 (which, incidentally, is the same day he requested the federal government's response to our stay request in the OSHA case). We will aim to circulate a draft a head of time. Stay tuned.

Team,

The SG just filed an application with SCOTUS to stay the preliminary injunction of the CMS mandate in our case. See attached. Also, a footnote in that filing indicates that they have filed a similar application in the Louisiana CMS case. We will start drafting a response, anticipating that SCOTUS will ask for something by early next week.

Attached is the Eighth Circuit's one-line order denying DOJ's request for a stay pending appeal. The opinion notes that Judge Kelly voted to grant the motion. I'm not sure if we'll eventually see an opinion from the court on this or if this is all we'll get, but the stay will remain in place for the time being. Now we'll have to see if the DOJ decides to ask SCOTUS for a stay.

Attached is our draft response to DOJ's stay motion filed in the Eighth Circuit. If you have any suggestions, please send them to me by COB today. We're already at the max word limit, but we'll do our best to incorporate your suggestions, if any. We also may cut out some material to make room for a favorable Fifth Circuit opinion, should we get one today or tomorrow.

Thanks.

All,

DOJ has reach out to us and proposed filing their opposition to our PI motion by 12pm CT on 11/24 (the day before Thanksgiving). Recall that our motion to expedite proposed their opposition be due this Friday (with our reply brief filed on 11/23) to ensure we have a ruling from Judge Schelp by 5pm on 11/29. John, Jim, and I have conferred and are inclined to not consent to their proposal, as our proposal gives the judge time to consider briefing, hold an evidentiary hearing, and if we don't get relief, we have time to go to the Eighth Circuit for an injunction pending appeal.

Please let us know if you disagree. Thanks.

I agree with everything Jim has said. To that end, I will circulate a draft motion for expedited briefing and consideration of the PI motion with the following proposed schedule:

- DOJ opposition: November 19
- Plaintiff States' Reply: November 22
- A hearing, if the Court deems it necessary, on November 23 (earliest) but no later than November 29 (we should leave the week of the 29th open in case we need to seek emergency relief from the Eighth Circuit/SCOTUS before December 3).

Let us know if you have any thoughts. Thanks.

While Jesus is getting the complaint filed, I wanted to let you all know that our plan is to file a MPI on Friday. While this schedule is aggressive, so is the timeline we're up against. The mandate requires all covered employees to get their first shots by December 5, and obviously decisions by healthcare workers and facilities need to be made before then. So please start gathering declarations in support of the MPI. Here are the kinds of facts we need (Jesus, Maddie, John, and Josh, please feel free to add others) Note that IAC<sup>TM</sup> highlighted the most important ones.

- Facts showing the existing healthcare staffing shortages in your state
- Facts about your state-run healthcare agencies that will be covered by the mandate
  - o How many
  - o How large
  - o Description of existing workforce shortages
  - o What percentage of employees are unvaccinated
  - o What percentage of funding comes from Medicare/Medicaid
  - o What are the anticipated adverse effects of the mandate on these state-run facilities, including:
    - Number of employees that they might lose
    - Anticipation on loss of services
    - Anticipation of closures (whether certain divisions or entire facilities)
- Facts about your state surveyors
  - o How many
  - o Confirm that they are state employees
  - o Describe their duties in enforcing Medicare/Medicaid compliance
- Facts about specific healthcare facilities in your state that are willing to give a helpful declaration

Note that we have a few draft declarations, particularly declarations from healthcare facilities, that my colleague Josh can share if anyone wants to see them. It'd be good to have the declarations by Friday morning, but the earlier you can get them to us, the better. It'll expedite the process and enable us to make better use of the facts.

Thanks for everyone's help with this.

All-

Many thanks to those of you who have already joined this Complaint challenging the health-care worker vaccine mandate. We are still planning to file by mid-morning Central time, so if your state wishes to join, please do let us know by 9:30 a.m. if possible. If you are considering it and need a little more time, please let me and Jim know that as well. If you join, we will plan to use the same signature block that we used for the federal contractor case, unless you send us a different signature block. Also, as in the contractor case, by joining, you are authorizing the Missouri and Nebraska attorneys who are entered to represent your state for the limited purpose of prosecuting this case. Of course, you may wish to enter as well on behalf of your own state, as many of you have done.

Thanks a lot, John

All-

Several of you have inquired about plans to file a lawsuit challenging the federal CMS vaccine mandate for health-care workers. Attached is a proposed draft complaint that Nebraska and Missouri have prepared, which we plan to file tomorrow morning in E.D. Mo. We hope to follow up promptly with a motion for preliminary injunction. Special thanks to Jim Campbell for a lot of incredibly fast heavy lifting on this draft over the last several days. Please let us know by tomorrow morning at 9:30 am Central if your State is interested in joining. Please copy me, Jim, and Jesus Osete of our office (cc'd) on your responses.

Thanks a lot, John Sauer

Team,

Justice Kavanaugh has requested our response to the Government's stay application in the CMS case by December 30 (which, incidentally, is the same day he requested the federal government's response to our stay request in the OSHA case). We will aim to circulate a draft a head of time. Stay tuned.

Team,

The SG just filed an application with SCOTUS to stay the preliminary injunction of the CMS mandate in our case. See attached. Also, a footnote in that filing indicates that they have filed a similar application in the Louisiana CMS case. We will start drafting a response, anticipating that SCOTUS will ask for something by early next week.

Attached is the Eighth Circuit's one-line order denying DOJ's request for a stay pending appeal. The opinion notes that Judge Kelly voted to grant the motion. I'm not sure if we'll eventually see an opinion from the court on this or if this is all we'll get, but the stay will remain in place for the time being. Now we'll have to see if the DOJ decides to ask SCOTUS for a stay.

Attached is our draft response to DOJ's stay motion filed in the Eighth Circuit. If you have any suggestions, please send them to me by COB today. We're already at the max word limit, but we'll do our best to incorporate your suggestions, if any. We also may cut out some material to make room for a favorable Fifth Circuit opinion, should we get one today or tomorrow.

Thanks.

All,

DOJ has reach out to us and proposed filing their opposition to our PI motion by 12pm CT on 11/24 (the day before Thanksgiving). Recall that our motion to expedite proposed their opposition be due this Friday (with our reply brief filed on 11/23) to ensure we have a ruling from Judge Schelp by 5pm on 11/29. John, Jim, and I have conferred and are inclined to not consent to their proposal, as our proposal gives the judge time to consider briefing, hold an evidentiary hearing, and if we don't get relief, we have time to go to the Eighth Circuit for an injunction pending appeal.

Please let us know if you disagree. Thanks.

I agree with everything Jim has said. To that end, I will circulate a draft motion for expedited briefing and consideration of the PI motion with the following proposed schedule:

- DOJ opposition: November 19
- Plaintiff States' Reply: November 22
- A hearing, if the Court deems it necessary, on November 23 (earliest) but no later than November 29 (we should leave the week of the 29th open in case we need to seek emergency relief from the Eighth Circuit/SCOTUS before December 3).

Let us know if you have any thoughts. Thanks.

 Subject: RE: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Federal Vaccine Mandate for Health-Care Workers - Draft Complaint

While Jesus is getting the complaint filed, I wanted to let you all know that our plan is to file a MPI on Friday. While this schedule is aggressive, so is the timeline we're up against. The mandate requires all covered employees to get their first shots by December 5, and obviously decisions by healthcare workers and facilities need to be made before then. So please start gathering declarations in support of the MPI. Here are the kinds of facts we need (Jesus, Maddie, John, and Josh, please feel free to add others) Note that IAC<sup>TM</sup>ve highlighted the most important ones.

- Facts showing the existing healthcare staffing shortages in your state
- Facts about your state-run healthcare agencies that will be covered by the mandate
  - o How many
  - o How large
  - o Description of existing workforce shortages
  - o What percentage of employees are unvaccinated
  - o What percentage of funding comes from Medicare/Medicaid
  - o What are the anticipated adverse effects of the mandate on these state-run facilities, including:
    - Number of employees that they might lose
    - Anticipation on loss of services
    - Anticipation of closures (whether certain divisions or entire facilities)
- Facts about your state surveyors
  - o How many
  - o Confirm that they are state employees
  - o Describe their duties in enforcing Medicare/Medicaid compliance
- Facts about specific healthcare facilities in your state that are willing to give a helpful declaration

Note that we have a few draft declarations, particularly declarations from healthcare facilities, that my colleague Josh can share if anyone wants to see them. It'd be good to have the declarations by Friday morning, but the earlier you can get them to us, the better. It'd expedite the process and enable us to make better use of the facts.

Thanks for everyone's help with this.

All-

Many thanks to those of you who have already joined this Complaint challenging the health-care worker vaccine mandate. We are still planning to file by mid-morning Central time, so if your state wishes to join, please do let us know by 9:30 a.m. if possible. If you are considering it and need a little more time, please let me and Jim know that as well. If you join, we will plan to use the same signature block that we used for the federal contractor case, unless you send us a different signature block. Also, as in the contractor case, by joining, you are authorizing the Missouri and Nebraska attorneys who are entered to represent your state for the limited purpose of prosecuting this case. Of course, you may wish to enter as well on behalf of your own state, as many of you have done.

Thanks a lot, John

All-

Several of you have inquired about plans to file a lawsuit challenging the federal CMS vaccine mandate for health-care workers. Attached is a proposed draft complaint that Nebraska and Missouri have prepared, which we plan to file tomorrow morning in E.D. Mo. We hope to follow up promptly with a motion for preliminary injunction. Special thanks to Jim Campbell for a lot of incredibly fast heavy lifting on this draft over the last several days. Please let us know by tomorrow morning at 9:30 am Central if your State is interested in joining. Please copy me, Jim, and Jesus Osete of our office (cc'd) on your responses.

Thanks a lot, John Sauer

Friends:

Attached is the working draft of the Complaint, which still has a few nits I need to run down. I apologize if I did not get in some of the edits. If I missed something you feel strongly needs fixing or changing, please email me. A couple of overall comments (hopefully nothing deal breaking):

- I moderated some adjective/rhetoric as recommended by several states.
- I am reviewing the use of child/children/toddler throughout to make sure we use it appropriately in that sentence. Sometimes it makes sense to emphasize they are toddlers and sometimes its better to say child/children.
- Used "staff and volunteers" rather than "educators" and will search for any places we need to replace. (the rule actually goes beyond them so we point that out in places too.)
- Amped up some of the blended funds paragraphs and will have Declaration from Louisiana school Superintendents on that point. GA also had some State enforcement. I think we are in a good spot with regard to state impacts.
- I did not take out the references to harm to the toddlers due to the Toddler Mask Mandate b/c we are seeking a TRO/PI to halt that immediately. We have to show its harmful or we can't meet the legal standard. I will have a pediatrician to back up the allegations. And if we have a live PI hearing, I may put some teachers on the stand to talk about the practical effect in the classroom of this requirement.

PLEASE CHECK YOUR SIG BLOCKS.

Tyler and his rock stars are working on the PI memo, IF YOU HAVE A DECLARATION COMING, PLEASE CC TYLER WHEN YOU SEND TO ME. A few of the Decs are attached for your reference (so far we are likely to have about 15). I also attached the NISA summary of its survey after the rule came out. The Director of Gov't Relations returned my call tonight. He is checking on my request for someone to do a declaration that authenticates their letter to Becerra and this summary of their survey. If they don't, I may just attach it anyway b/c they sent it to Becerra.

THANKS FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION. WE HAVE A REALLY STRONG COALITION. HOPING TO FILE THE WHOLE PACKAGE MONDAY.

Liz

Subject: RE: Head Start

Friends – attached is the most updated draft of the complaint. The State-specific allegations for plaintiffs and states are still a work in progress, but we have a robust coalition. Several states have sent me some suggested revisions, including minimizing allegations that get into efficacy of vaccines. I agree with that approach. I didn't take it all out but modified some paragraphs and deleted others. I worked on amplifying State standing allegations.

Please provide me with signature blocks and any other recommendations. GA has provided a declaration, which may change a little but is provided for your reference. Also attached a draft Dec we are using with our program directors. If you have a superintendent of a public school system who is a willing declarant, it would be helpful for him/her to speak to blending of funds, need to lean on the state to backfill lost funding, educational opportunities lost and hindered for entering Kindergarten.

If I missed edits you suggested, please resend them to me.

Subject: RE: Head Start

Friends:

Attached is the working draft of the Complaint, which still has a few nits I need to run down. I apologize if I did not get in some of the edits. If I missed something you feel strongly needs fixing or changing, please email me. A couple of overall comments (hopefully nothing deal breaking):

- I moderated some adjective/rhetoric as recommended by several states.
- I am reviewing the use of child/children/toddler throughout to make sure we use it appropriately in that sentence. Sometimes it makes sense to emphasize they are toddlers and sometimes its better to say child/children.
- Used "staff and volunteers" rather than "educators" and will search for any places we need to replace. (the rule actually goes beyond them so we point that out in places too.)
- Amped up some of the blended funds paragraphs and will have Declaration from Louisiana school Superintendents on that point. GA also had some State enforcement. I think we are in a good spot with regard to state impacts.
- I did not take out the references to harm to the toddlers due to the Toddler Mask Mandate b/c we are seeking a TRO/PI to halt that immediately. We have to show its harmful or we can't meet the legal standard. I will have a pediatrician to back up the allegations. And if we have a live PI hearing, I may put some teachers on the stand to talk about the practical effect in the classroom of this requirement.

PLEASE CHECK YOUR SIG BLOCKS.

Tyler and his rock stars are working on the PI memo, IF YOU HAVE A DECLARATION COMING, PLEASE CC TYLER WHEN YOU SEND TO ME. A few of the Decs are attached for your reference (so far we are likely to have about 15). I also attached the NISA summary of its survey after the rule came out. The Director of Gov't Relations returned my call tonight. He is checking on my request for someone to do a declaration that authenticates their letter to Becerra and this summary of their survey. If they don't, I may just attach it anyway b/c they sent it to Becerra.

THANKS FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION. WE HAVE A REALLY STRONG COALITION. HOPING TO FILE THE WHOLE PACKAGE MONDAY.

Liz

Subject: RE: Head Start

Friends – attached is the most updated draft of the complaint. The State-specific allegations for plaintiffs and states are still a work in progress, but we have a robust coalition. Several states have sent me some suggested revisions, including minimizing allegations that get into efficacy of vaccines. I agree with that approach. I didn't take it all out but modified some paragraphs and deleted others. I worked on amplifying State standing allegations.

Please provide me with signature blocks and any other recommendations. GA has provided a declaration, which may change a little but is provided for your reference. Also attached a draft Dec we are using with our program directors. If you have a superintendent of a public school system who is a willing declarant, it would be helpful for him/her to speak to blending of funds, need to lean on the state to backfill lost funding, educational opportunities lost and hindered for entering Kindergarten.

If I missed edits you suggested, please resend them to me.

Everyone,

The district court just granted us a preliminary injunction in the federal contractor mandate case. I'm not sure why the court only ruled on the request for a preliminary injunction when the parties agreed to convert the preliminary injunction motion into a request for a permanent injunction. But a win is still a win. See attached.

The scope of the injunction appears to apply to all contractors in our respective states. Here's what the court said: "Defendants are enjoined from enforcing the vaccine mandate for federal contractors and subcontractors in all covered contracts in Missouri, Nebraska, Alaska, Arkansas, Iowa, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming."

Thanks to Michael Talent in Missouri for all his great work on this case.

Attached is the current draft of the supplement draft in the contractor mandate case. It is due today. We'd like to be ready to file in about four hours, around 3:00 Central, although we might delay that slightly depending on what DOJ does (since we have simultaneous filings). So if you could aim to send Michael and me any edits you have by 2:00 Central, that would be great. Thanks to Michael for the excellent work he has done on this. You'll notice that the intro hasn't been written yet. We will be working on that while you're all reading.

The district court indicated it will use them in issuing a permanent injunction/judgment on those claims. Attached is a near-final draft. We are still having some back-and-forth on DOJ on certain paragraphs, but believe the final product will look something like this. If you have any comments, please provide them Monday mid-morning, since the statement is due on Monday. Thanks, Michael Talent   Deputy Solicitor General          Missouri Attorney General's Office          815 Olive Street, Suite 200          St. Louis, MO 63101  Michael.Talent@ago.mo.gov <hr/> From: Talent, Michael  Sent: Wednesday, November 24, 2021 10:10 AM  To: Sauer, John &lt;John.Sauer@ago.mo.gov&gt;; 'McVey, David' &lt;David.McVey@state.sd.us&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Shasserre, Joshua' &lt;joshua.shasserre@nebraska.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt;; 'Mills, Cori M (LAW)' &lt;cori.mills@alaska.gov&gt;; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansasag.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov' &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Schelhaas' &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; 'Swedlund, Paul' &lt;Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'Sagsveen, Matthew A.' &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt;  Cc: 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; Lanahan, Maria &lt;Maria.Lanahan@ago.mo.gov&gt;; Osete, Jesus &lt;Jesus.Osete@ago.mo.gov&gt;; Gregory, Kaleb &lt;Kaleb.Gregory@ago.mo.gov&gt;  Subject: CONFIDENTIAL COMMON INTEREST PRIVILEGE - Federal Contractor Vaccine Mandate Scheduling Update Good morning, We had a status conference with the Court this morning. Matt and Jim,
 Let me preface this e-mail by saying that a response is not urgent. Mike Schwab of the North Dakota Pharmacists Association reached out to me about speaking at a convention that they are planning to hold in March. He'd like me to discuss Rutledge and Wehbi. Mike also mentioned that Wayne might participate.
 Because of my role on behalf of the State, I would not agree to participate without your approval and Mark's. And because of the pendency of the litigation, I would only speak factually about the case. I would not make any predictions about how Wehbi affects other statutes. Indeed, my approach, and Howard's, has always been to assume that our adversary is sitting in the room. As a result, we have been very careful about what we've said about Rutledge in the past.

Mark and I spoke the other day, and he is comfortable with me giving a presentation along the lines I've just proposed. Howard and I wanted to make sure you agree before I accept any invitation from Mike. Howard and I are also happy to share in advance any PowerPoint presentation we prepare, so that you can vet it beforehand.

Again, this is not urgent. When you have a few minutes, please let us know if you are comfortable with my participation at the conference. I will then get back to Mike.

Finally, on behalf of Howard and myself, I wanted to express our appreciation for the opportunity to work with you and serve the people of North Dakota. This litigation has had its ups and downs, but we always have had steady support from your office and Mark's. We're grateful for the partnership we have been able to forge.

Best wishes and Merry Christmas,

Rob

Hi all,

Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.

Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 8 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.

Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social-justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.

Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 8 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.

Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social-justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Sincerely,
Drew

Thanks for the opportunity to weigh in, Matt. We were generally not familiar with this particular NASDAQ rule-making, apparently approved by the SEC this past summer, for improved racial and gender diversity on the corporate boards of listed companies. It does not appear to be an issue that has generated discussion among state securities regulators which is understandable, given the limited regulation we would have over stocks traded on the Exchanges.

We wouldn't take a position on whether the Commission exceeded its authority in this case.

Stay warm,
Mike

Mike,
I don't know if you are in the office this week, but I was just checking to see if you are familiar with this issue? And, whether your client has an opinion on the issue. Sorry for the short turn-around on brief.

Hi all,

Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.

Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 8 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

Body

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.

Sincerely,

Drew

Subject: Re: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Hi all,

Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.

Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social-justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.

Sincerely,

Drew

Thanks for the opportunity to weigh in, Matt. We were generally not familiar with this particular NASDAQ rule-making, apparently approved by the SEC this past summer, for improved racial and gender diversity on the corporate boards of listed companies. It does not appear to be an issue that has generated discussion among state securities regulators which is understandable, given the limited regulation we would have over stocks traded on the Exchanges.

We wouldn't take a position on whether the Commission exceeded its authority in this case.

Stay warm,
Mike

Hi all,

Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.

Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 8 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

Body

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.

Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social-justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.

Sincerely,
Drew

Another will be filed on December 20. so our amicus brief will be due December 27. Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern. Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions. Sincerely, Drew Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:  On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latinx, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17129/self-regulatory-organization-the-nasdaq-stock-market-lc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as. On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-17179/p-20. On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

We from the Buckeye State (or maybe Bearcat State this year) hope you had an enjoyable Christmas weekend.

After sending the "fire drill" email last week on the McKinsey amicus brief, we learned that we now have until December 30 to file. We thank all of you who reviewed and signed on last week. Thus far we have heard from:

Body

1. Connecticut
2. New York
3. Pennsylvania
4. Kansas
5. Montana
6. Texas
7. Idaho
8. Arkansas
9. Louisiana
10. Utah

For those who didn't get a chance to review yet, turns out it isn't too late. Please send all joins by December 29, and we will file on the 30th.

Thanks & Happy New Year!

Ohio plans to file the attached amicus brief in the opioid MDL involving McKinsey, which is pending in the Northern District of California. It comes in response to Judge Breyer asking about the impact that releases from State Attorneys General have on subdivision claims. The amicus brief has to be filed Thursday, so we're on a very short turn.

If you are interested in joining, please email Jonathan Blanton (Jonathan.Blanton@OhioAGO.gov) and Charles Miller (Charles.Miller@OhioAGO.gov) by 1 PM Eastern on Thursday, December 23.

The relevant question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars states from asserting and collecting sales taxes on transactions originating from out-of-state and delivered to in-state consumers. We expect the North Carolina AG to argue that Dilworth formalism—which allows use taxes, but not sales taxes on such transactions—is no longer good law. States have a critical interest in protecting their sovereign authority to fairly tax interstate commerce and to preserve the gains they received from the Supreme Court’s decision in South Dakota v. The District’s brief will therefore make two related arguments: First, the brief will argue that reaffirming Dilworth formalism would be inconsistent with the Supreme Court’s decision in Wayfair and would reintroduce many of the policy concerns that animated the Court’s abrogation of the physical-presence rule. Second, the brief will highlight the particular concerns raised by the lower court’s decision in states with destination-based sourcing schemes. The District and at least 39 states have tax-sourcing statutes that identify the location of the “sale” as the place where the goods are delivered. Allowing courts to override such statutes and conclude that there is no transactional nexus absent physical purchase within the taxing state would undermine states’ sovereign taxing authority and contradict the fundamental principle that “the modes adopted [by the States] to enforce the taxes levied should be interfered with as little as possible.” Dows v. The District of Columbia is preparing an amicus brief supporting respondent-appellant North Carolina in Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21, in the North Carolina Supreme Court. The relevant question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars states from asserting and collecting sales taxes on transactions originating from out-of-state and delivered to in-state consumers. We expect the North Carolina AG to argue that Dilworth formalism—which allows use taxes, but not sales taxes on such transactions—is no longer good law.

States have a critical interest in protecting their sovereign authority to fairly tax interstate commerce and to preserve the gains they received from the Supreme Court’s decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair, 138 S. Ct. 2080 (2018). The District’s brief will therefore make two related arguments: First, the brief will argue that reaffirming Dilworth formalism would be inconsistent with the Supreme Court’s decision in Wayfair and would reintroduce many of the policy concerns that animated the Court’s abrogation of the physical-presence rule. Second, the brief will highlight the particular concerns raised by the lower court’s decision in states with destination-based sourcing schemes. The District and at least 39 states have tax-sourcing statutes that identify the location of the “sale” as the place where the goods are delivered. Allowing courts to override such statutes and conclude that there is no transactional nexus absent physical purchase within the taxing state would undermine states’ sovereign taxing authority and contradict the fundamental principle that “the modes adopted [by the States] to enforce the taxes levied should be interfered with as little as possible.” Dows v. City of Chicago, 78 U.S. 108, 110 (1871).

As we craft and refine the brief, it would be helpful to know the following by January 7 (if you happen to have responsive information):

1. Does your state have a destination-based sourcing scheme? If so, a citation to the specific provision of the state tax code would be ideal.
2. In the wake of Wayfair:
  1. Is your state assessing and collecting sales taxes on out-of-state companies that deliver goods to in-state consumers?
  2. Has your state faced Dilworth-based challenges such as the one at issue here?

Please contact caroline.vanzile@dc.gov and norah.rast@dc.gov with your responses. We will circulate a draft brief on or around January 14, in advance of the January 21 join deadline. Many thanks in advance for your help.

 Subject: OSHA ETS - State Plan States

Federal OSHA has informed State Plan states that we need to provide notice of whether we will be adopting the ETS by 1/7/22, the same date as oral argument.

Iowa's state agency is considering its options, including the possibilities of (1) announcing in advance that it will not adopt the ETS because it's no more effective than existing state standards or (2) declining to take action because of the pending litigation.

I'm curious if those of you from other state plans states have considered how to handle the deadline or any potential impacts of those decisions on this litigation. I haven't been able to find any news reports of any other states announcing their intentions yet.

Best,
 Sam

All,
 Just wanted to send on final email to make sure this doesn't get missed inadvertently. As noted in the email below, we are finalizing our CMS COVID Mandate comment letter for filing this afternoon. Right now, we have 24 state AG's joining (Kentucky, Arizona, Louisiana, Montana, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and West Virginia. Would love to include North Dakota and Wyoming if you are interested! We are doing the final proof and clean-up now, so if interested please let us know no later than 2 pm EST we can still include your sign on.
 Thank you!

 Attached is an updated draft of the CMS Mandate Comment letter, both as a new clean draft and a PDF showing changes from the original circulated text. The changes reflect several minor but helpful suggestions for sign-on states. At this point, in addition to the lead states of Kentucky, Arizona, Louisiana, and Montana, we have received sign-ons from Indiana, Georgia, Mississippi, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, and Texas. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with these redlined changes. If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST Tuesday, January 4.

Thank you.

 Kentucky together with Arizona, Louisiana, and Montana has prepared the attached draft comment letter on the Medicare and Medicaid Programs Interim Final Rule: Omnibus COVID-19 Health Care Staff Vaccinations issued in 86 Fed. Reg. 61333 (Nov. 3, 2021) ("CMS Vaccine Mandate"). We would like to invite any other interested AG's to join the letter, whether or not you are party to the pending litigation. The comments are due Tuesday, January 4, 2022. If you have substantive suggestions, please provide those as soon as possible, but not later than mid-day on Monday. We expect to circulate another version Monday afternoon with some citation clean-up (the references to litigation exhibits will be replaced with perma-links, etc.) and any other edits. If you would like to sign-on please let me know and provide an electronic copy of your AG's signature for the letter not later than 12:00 EST (noon) on Tuesday, January 4, 2022. Please let me know if you have any questions.
 Thank you and Happy New Year!

All,
Attached is an updated draft of the CMS Mandate Comment letter, both as a new clean draft and a PDF showing changes from the original circulated text. The changes reflect several minor but helpful suggestions for sign-on states. At this point, in addition to the lead states of Kentucky, Arizona, Louisiana, and Montana, we have received sign-ons from Indiana, Georgia, Mississippi, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, and Texas. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with these redlined changes. If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST Tuesday, January 4.

Thank you,

Subject: CMS Mandate Comment Letter: Sign-on Invitation

All,
Kentucky together with Arizona, Louisiana, and Montana has prepared the attached draft comment letter on the Medicare and Medicaid Programs Interim Final Rule; Omnibus COVID-19 Health Care Staff Vaccinations issued in 86 Fed. Reg. 61555 (Nov. 5, 2021) ("CMS Vaccine Mandate"). We would like to invite any other interested AG's to join the letter, whether or not you are party to the pending litigation. The comments are due Tuesday, January 4, 2022. If you have substantive suggestions, please provide those as soon as possible, but not later than mid-day on Monday. We expect to circulate another version Monday afternoon with some citation clean-up (the references to litigation exhibits will be replaced with perma-links, etc.) and any other edits. If you would like to sign-on please let me know and provide an electronic copy of your AG's signature for the letter not later than 12:00 EST (noon) on Tuesday, January 4, 2022. Please let me know if you have any questions.
Thank you and Happy New Year!

I can provide more details tomorrow, but we may use them in a deposition, a dispositive motion, or at trial, to rebut and contradict discovery responses made by Keystone. Long story short, the Department terminated its contract with Keystone Testing, in part because Keystone never provided insurance coverage for errors and omissions. This was a requirement of the contract.

Keystone claims in its discovery responses that it was "self-insured", and such self-insurance was adequate for purposes of the contract. We disagree of course, and have solid legal support for our position. Keystone answered in its discovery responses, in relation to its position that it was self-insured, that it could sell/liquidate its equipment in North Dakota to pay for any claim for errors and omissions. One record disclosed by Keystone shows that Commerce made a $300,000 loan to Keystone for equipment to be used in North Dakota. We have verified the existence of this loan with Commerce. The document also indicates that Commerce had a first lien on the equipment purchased with Commerce funds. Based upon these documents, it is my opinion that Keystone's answers regarding the use of the equipment for self-insurance are not accurate. We would like to see the entire file to make sure we have an accurate picture of the loan, the requirements of the loan, and payments.

We, or Jane, can provide more details if you want...

One record disclosed by Keystone shows that Commerce made a $300,000 loan to Keystone for equipment to be used in North Dakota. We have verified the existence of this loan with Commerce. The document also indicates that Commerce had a first lien on the equipment purchased with Commerce funds. Based upon these documents, it is my opinion that Keystone's answers regarding the use of the equipment for self-insurance are not accurate. We would like to see the entire file to make sure we have an accurate picture of the loan, the requirements of the loan, and payments.

We, or Jane, can provide more details if you want...

Wayne,
 I want to let you know that the Department of Commerce possesses certain confidential records that are relevant to a lawsuit filed against the Department of Health ("DOH"). Commerce takes the position that the records are confidential, and DOH will need to service Commerce with a subpoena for the records. Therefore, DOH will be serving Commerce with a subpoena for the records. I do not recall that we have had to do this before, so I just want to make sure you are aware of what is happening.
 Matt

The district court in Kentucky denied the government's motion to stay the federal contractor PI entered for Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee. The order is attached. DOJ then moved the Sixth Circuit to stay the preliminary injunction (also attached). My response is due today, and DOJ must file a reply by Monday, December 20.

Hi everyone—

DOJ moved to stay in our case in Arizona as well. The judge denied the motion. Attached is our response brief, in case it might be of use to any of you. Also attached is the minute entry denying the motion, in case you want to file as a Notice of Supplemental Authority to show an example of a stay being denied in a contractor mandate case.

Friends,

Judge Baker just issued a nationwide injunction in our federal contractor mandate case. We're still reviewing, but wanted to make you aware. Also, I'm adding Georgia's new SG, Stephen Petrary, to this chain.

Best,
 Drew

Subject: RE: Contractor Mandate - DOJ Response to PI/TRO

The district court in Kentucky denied the government's motion to stay the federal contractor PI entered for Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee. The order is attached. DOJ then moved the Sixth Circuit to stay the preliminary injunction (also attached). My response is due today, and DOJ must file a reply by Monday, December 20.

Hi everyone—

DOJ moved to stay in our case in Arizona as well. The judge denied the motion. Attached is our response brief, in case it might be of use to any of you. Also attached is the minute entry denying the motion, in case you want to file as a Notice of Supplemental Authority to show an example of a stay being denied in a contractor mandate case.

James

Friends,

Judge Baker just issued a nationwide injunction in our federal contractor mandate case. We're still reviewing, but wanted to make you aware. Also, I'm adding Georgia's new SG, Stephen Petrary, to this chain.

Best,
Drew

Matt,

Following up to get your thoughts on the below as well as the proposed revisions to S.3200 sent in e-mail dated 12/29/2021. Happy to discuss in a call if convenient.

Also, be advised that the McKenzie County Grazing Association has sent the attached letter to Representative Armstrong requesting that the Little Missouri National Grasslands be completely removed from the current bill. Paragraph 3 calls out the section line rights-of-way issue.

Thank You,

James

Matt,

I don't believe we have specifically discussed sections 54-01-12, 54-01-13, 54-01-13.2, 54-01-13.3, but I don't see any glaring issues aside from those we have already discussed. Here is my take, please let me know if you disagree with anything - I would be happy to discuss further.

- Article IX, § 6 of the constitution requires further legislative authority to exchange state- owned original grant lands with federal lands (see highlighted language below).
- This legislative authority appears in N.D.C.C. §§ 15-06-19.1, 54-01-12, and 54-01-13:
  - o § 15- 06- 19.1 grants the Board legislative authority to exchange "[o]riginal grant school or institutional lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands" with federal lands "of like character and value". I interpret this grant of authority to be quite broad and apply to all lands under the control of the Board (whether granted in the Enabling act or otherwise acquired thereafter, and wherever located).
  - o § 54- 01- 12 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located on Indian reservations within the state with federal lands also located on Indian reservations within the state. The language does not indicate that the lands exchanged must be located the same reservation.
  - o § 54- 01- 13 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located within the borders of Fort Berthold reservation with federal lands located outside of Fort Berthold reservation.
- S.3200 specifically proposes an exchange of state- owned land located within the Little Missouri National Grassland and within the reservations.
- N.D.C.C. §§ 54- 01- 13.1, 13.2, and 13.3 all appear to apply only to exchanges of land within Theodore Roosevelt National Park. It is my understanding that most (if not all) state- owned land within the Park has already been exchanged.

N.D. Const. art. IX, § 6.

Any of said lands that may be required for townsite purposes, schoolhouse sites, church sites, cemetery sites, sites for other educational or charitable institutions, public parks, airplane landing fields, fairgrounds, public highways, railroad right of way, or other railroad uses and purposes, reservoirs for the storage of water for irrigation, irrigation canals, and ditches, drainage ditches, or for any of the purposes for which private lands may be taken under the right of eminent domain under the constitution and laws of this state, may be sold under the provisions of this article, and shall be paid for in full at the time of sale, or at any time thereafter as herein provided. Any of said lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands, including state coal mineral interests, may, with the approval of said board, be exchanged for lands and coal mineral interests of the United States, the state of North Dakota or any county or municipality thereof as the legislature may provide, and the lands so acquired shall be subject to the trust to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject, and the state shall reserve all mineral and water power rights in land so transferred, except coal mineral interests approved for exchange by the board of university and school lands under this section.

15-06-19.1. Exchange of lands with the United States.

Body	54-01-12.1. Exchange of lands with the United States. Original grant school or institutional lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands may be exchanged for lands of like character and value belonging to the United States government when it appears that such exchange will be advantageous to the state of North Dakota and will effect an increase in the value of such lands by consolidation or by making lands more accessible. Such exchange is subject to the approval of the proper department of the federal government, and such lands must be appraised as provided by law in the case of sale of real property owned by the state. The state also may execute and deliver proper conveyances of such land in the manner and form provided by law without the necessity of complying with any statute requiring the giving of notice of exchange or competitive bidding, and may accept in return therefor a proper instrument of conveyance to the state of North Dakota of the land for which such lands are exchanged, and the lands so acquired are subject to the trust to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject. 54-01-12. Exchange of lands on Indian reservation between state and federal government. The state of North Dakota, through its several departments and agencies, may exchange tracts and sections of land on Indian reservations within the state, belonging to the state of North Dakota, and not a part of the original grant of land to the state provided in the Enabling Act, for lands of like character and value belonging to the United States government on Indian reservations within this state. Such exchange is subject to the approval of the appropriate department of the federal government and the lands must be appraised in the manner provided by law. The state also may execute and deliver proper conveyances of such land in the manner and form provided by law, without the necessity of complying with any statute requiring notice of exchange or competitive bidding, and it may accept in return therefor a proper instrument of conveyance to the state of the lands for which such state lands are exchanged. 54-01-13. Exchange of lands on Fort Berthold reservation. The state of North Dakota, through its several departments and agencies, is hereby authorized and empowered to exchange tracts, sections, and parcels of land located within the diminished borders of Fort Berthold reservation belonging to the state of North Dakota and not a part of the original grant of lands to the state provided for in the Enabling Act, for lands of like character and value belonging to the United States government located outside of the diminished borders of said Fort Berthold reservation. Such exchange is subject to the approval of the proper department of the federal government, and such lands must be appraised as provided by law in the case of sale of real property owned by the state. The state also may execute and deliver proper conveyances of such land in the manner and form provided by law, without the necessity of complying with any statute requiring the giving of notice of exchange or competitive bidding, and may accept in return therefor a proper instrument of conveyance to the state of North Dakota of the land for which such lands are exchanged. 54-01-13.1. Exchange of lands within Theodore Roosevelt National Park. The state of North Dakota is hereby authorized to transfer and convey to the United States of America any lands situated within the Theodore Roosevelt National Park in the county of Billings, state of North Dakota, including state school lands and lands held by the state historical society or for the use and benefit of the state game and fish department, such transfer and conveyance to be made in exchange for federal lands of not less than equal value situated outside of the Theodore Roosevelt National Park. 54-01-13.2. Appraisal. The lands to be conveyed to the United States of America and also the lands to be taken in exchange therefor, under the provisions of section 54-01-13.1, must be appraised by the county superintendent of schools, the county auditor, and the chairman of the board of county commissioners in the county where the land is situated, at its fair market value, but no state school lands may be appraised and valued at less than ten dollars per acre [.40 hectare]. The county director of tax equalization shall serve as an assistant in making the appraisals. 54-01-13.3. Conveyance. Conveyances made under section 54-01-13.1 to the United States of America of state school lands must be executed in the same form and manner as now provided by law for the sale and conveyance of state school lands and conveyance by the state of other lands under the provisions of section 54-01-13.1 must be executed on behalf of the state of North Dakota by the governor and attested by the secretary of state. James <hr/> From: Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Monday, January 3, 2022 11:33 AM To: Wald, James J. &lt;jawald@nd.gov&gt; Subject: Land Transfers James, I forget if we discussed state laws, and I apologize if we did, but did you review sections 54-01-12, 54-01-13, 54-01-13.2, 54-01-13.3? Subject: RE: Land Transfers

Matt,

I don't believe we have specifically discussed sections 54-01-12, 54-01-13, 54-01-13.2, 54-01-13.3, but I don't see any glaring issues aside from those we have already discussed. Here is my take, please let me know if you disagree with anything - I would be happy to discuss further.

- Article IX, § 6 of the constitution requires further legislative authority to exchange state- owned original grant lands with federal lands (see highlighted language below).
- This legislative authority appears in N.D.C.C. §§ 15-06-19.1, 54-01-13, and 54-01-13:
  - o § 15- 06- 19.1 grants the Board legislative authority to exchange "[o]riginal grant school or institutional lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands" with federal lands "of like character and value". I interpret this grant of authority to be quite broad and apply to all lands under the control of the Board (whether granted in the Enabling act or otherwise acquired thereafter, and wherever located).
  - o § 54- 01- 12 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located on Indian reservations within the state with federal lands also located on Indian reservations within the state. The language does not indicate that the lands exchanged must be located the same reservation.
  - o § 54- 01- 13 grants legislative authority to exchange state- owned non- grant lands located within the borders of Fort Berthold reservation with federal lands located outside of Fort Berthold reservation.
- S.3200 specifically proposes an exchange of state- owned land located within the Little Missouri National Grassland and within the reservations.
- N.D.C.C. §§ 54- 01- 13.1, 13.2, and 13.3 all appear to apply only to exchanges of land within Theodore Roosevelt National Park. It is my understanding that most (if not all) state- owned land within the Park has already been exchanged.

N.D. Const. art. IX, § 6.

Any of said lands that may be required for townsite purposes, schoolhouse sites, church sites, cemetery sites, sites for other educational or charitable institutions, public parks, airplane landing fields, fairgrounds, public highways, railroad right of way, or other railroad uses and purposes, reservoirs for the storage of water for irrigation, irrigation canals, and ditches, drainage ditches, or for any of the purposes for which private lands may be taken under the right of eminent domain under the constitution and laws of this state, may be sold under the provisions of this article, and shall be paid for in full at the time of sale, or at any time thereafter as herein provided. Any of said lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands, including state coal mineral interests, may, with the approval of said board, be exchanged for lands and coal mineral interests of the United States, the state of North Dakota or any county or municipality thereof as the legislature may provide, and the lands so acquired shall be subject to the trust to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject, and the state shall reserve all mineral and water power rights in land so transferred, except coal mineral interests approved for exchange by the board of university and school lands under this section.

15-06-19.1. Exchange of lands with the United States.

Body	54-01-12.1. Exchange of lands with the United States. Original grant school or institutional lands and any other lands controlled by the board of university and school lands may be exchanged for lands of like character and value belonging to the United States government when it appears that such exchange will be advantageous to the state of North Dakota and will effect an increase in the value of such lands by consolidation or by making lands more accessible. Such exchange is subject to the approval of the proper department of the federal government, and such lands must be appraised as provided by law in the case of sale of real property owned by the state. The state also may execute and deliver proper conveyances of such land in the manner and form provided by law without the necessity of complying with any statute requiring the giving of notice of exchange or competitive bidding, and may accept in return therefor a proper instrument of conveyance to the state of North Dakota of the land for which such lands are exchanged, and the lands so acquired are subject to the trust to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject. 54-01-12. Exchange of lands on Indian reservation between state and federal government. The state of North Dakota, through its several departments and agencies, may exchange tracts and sections of land on Indian reservations within the state, belonging to the state of North Dakota, and not a part of the original grant of land to the state provided in the Enabling Act, for lands of like character and value belonging to the United States government on Indian reservations within this state. Such exchange is subject to the approval of the appropriate department of the federal government and the lands must be appraised in the manner provided by law. The state also may execute and deliver proper conveyances of such land in the manner and form provided by law, without the necessity of complying with any statute requiring notice of exchange or competitive bidding, and it may accept in return therefor a proper instrument of conveyance to the state of the lands for which such state lands are exchanged. 54-01-13. Exchange of lands on Fort Berthold reservation. The state of North Dakota, through its several departments and agencies, is hereby authorized and empowered to exchange tracts, sections, and parcels of land located within the diminished borders of Fort Berthold reservation belonging to the state of North Dakota and not a part of the original grant of lands to the state provided for in the Enabling Act, for lands of like character and value belonging to the United States government located outside of the diminished borders of said Fort Berthold reservation. Such exchange is subject to the approval of the proper department of the federal government, and such lands must be appraised as provided by law in the case of sale of real property owned by the state. The state also may execute and deliver proper conveyances of such land in the manner and form provided by law, without the necessity of complying with any statute requiring the giving of notice of exchange or competitive bidding, and may accept in return therefor a proper instrument of conveyance to the state of North Dakota of the land for which such lands are exchanged. 54-01-13.1. Exchange of lands within Theodore Roosevelt National Park. The state of North Dakota is hereby authorized to transfer and convey to the United States of America any lands situated within the Theodore Roosevelt National Park in the county of Billings, state of North Dakota, including state school lands and lands held by the state historical society or for the use and benefit of the state game and fish department, such transfer and conveyance to be made in exchange for federal lands of not less than equal value situated outside of the Theodore Roosevelt National Park. 54-01-13.2. Appraisal. The lands to be conveyed to the United States of America and also the lands to be taken in exchange therefor, under the provisions of section 54-01-13.1, must be appraised by the county superintendent of schools, the county auditor, and the chairman of the board of county commissioners in the county where the land is situated, at its fair market value, but no state school lands may be appraised and valued at less than ten dollars per acre [.40 hectare]. The county director of tax equalization shall serve as an assistant in making the appraisals. 54-01-13.3. Conveyance. Conveyances made under section 54-01-13.1 to the United States of America of state school lands must be executed in the same form and manner as now provided by law for the sale and conveyance of state school lands and conveyance by the state of other lands under the provisions of section 54-01-13.1 must be executed on behalf of the state of North Dakota by the governor and attested by the secretary of state. James <hr/> From: Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Monday, January 3, 2022 11:33 AM To: Wald, James J. &lt;jawald@nd.gov&gt; Subject: Land Transfers James, I forget if we discussed state laws, and I apologize if we did, but did you review sections 54-01-12, 54-01-13, 54-01-13.2, 54-01-13.3? NC NAACP—the third of the Court's trilogy of intervention cases this term. The issue before the Court is whether the leaders of North Carolina's General Assembly should have been allowed to intervene under Rule 24(a)(2) to defend a state voting law where another state party was already named. This law was passed over the Governor's veto, and the named defendants are the members of the state elections board who serve under the Governor. I apologize that this draft is not as far along as I would like, but I wanted to circulate it for your consideration given the impending long weekend. I will circulate an updated draft later this week, but I think this draft conveys the substance of the arguments. My overall goal in this brief is to support intervention by authorized agents because I think it is good for the rule of law long term, but also to do no harm to institutional interests of attorneys general. I am open to any edits, large or small, including cutting sections or adding sections. So far, I am the only drafter of this, so all errors are mine, not my team's. Given our printer deadline, if you could get me sign-ons by 11am ET on Tuesday 1/18, I would appreciate it. Sincerely,          Beau Roysden          Arizona Attorney General's Office          602-315-7545

NC NAACP—the third of the Court's trilogy of intervention cases this term. The issue before the Court is whether the leaders of North Carolina's General Assembly should have been allowed to intervene under Rule 24(a)(2) to defend a state voting law where another state party was already named. This law was passed over the Governor's veto, and the named defendants are the members of the state elections board who serve under the Governor. I applogize that this draft is not as far along as I would like, but I wanted to circulate it for your consideration given the impending long weekend. I will circulate an updated draft later this week, but I think this draft conveys the substance of the arguments. My overall goal in this brief is to support intervention by authorized agents because I think it is good for the rule of law long term, but also to do no harm to institutional interests of attorneys general. I am open to any edits, large or small, including cutting sections or adding sections. So far, I am the only drafter of this, so all errors are mine, not my team's. Given our printer deadline, if you could get me sign-ons by 11am ET on Tuesday 1/18, I would appreciate it. Sincerely,          Beau Roysden          Arizona Attorney General's Office          602-315-7545

McCarthy, No. 21-940 (U.S.) (draft attached). The new deadline is Monday, January 24, 2022, at 5:00PM EST. The brief is due on January 26, 2022. The questions presented are: (1) whether the Fourth Amendment prohibits the admission of a defendant's refusal of a blood test in an impaired-driving prosecution; and (2) whether the Fourth Amendment prohibits a mandatory minimum sentence based on a defendant's refusal of a blood test in an impaired-driving prosecution. The amicus brief supports only the evidentiary use argument. In this case, the Supreme Court of Kentucky held that the Commonwealth could not criminally penalize McCarthy for his refusal to submit to a blood test, and that the increased mandatory minimum sentence constituted a criminal penalty. The Kentucky Court also held admitting a defendant's refusal to consent to a search as evidence of guilt violates the Fourth Amendment, relying on its prior decisions in non-DUI cases. The Kentucky Court justified applying that precedent to the DUI context because it concluded that the Fourth Amendment question had not been squarely addressed by the Supreme Court, which had previously focused on the Fifth Amendment implications of admitting refusal evidence. Moreover, the Kentucky Court reasoned the prosecution's argument for its admission was undermined by the analysis presented in Birchfield, which held that a warrantless blood draw incident to arrests for drunk driving are normally unreasonable under the Fourth Amendment. By contrast, almost all states allow the admission of evidence that the driver refused a blood draw. A number of you joined the amicus brief we filed in Mitchell v. Wisconsin, No. 18-6210, a case about the scope of implied consent laws; and like that brief, this one discusses the constitutionality of such laws as well as the critical role refusal evidence plays in criminal prosecutions of impaired drivers. Please contact me at jillian.price@coag.gov or Gabriel Olivares at gabriel.olivares@coag.gov to join the brief or to offer any suggestions; we welcome your feedback and look forward to having a strong coalition in support of this important issue. The brief is due January 26, 2022, and the deadline to join is Monday, January 24, 2022, at 5:00PM EST. With appreciation, Jillian J. McCarthy, No. 21-940 (U.S.) (draft attached). The new deadline is Monday, January 24, 2022, at 5:00PM EST. The brief is due on January 26, 2022. The questions presented are: (1) whether the Fourth Amendment prohibits the admission of a defendant's refusal of a blood test in an impaired-driving prosecution; and (2) whether the Fourth Amendment prohibits a mandatory minimum sentence based on a defendant's refusal of a blood test in an impaired-driving prosecution. The amicus brief supports only the evidentiary use argument. In this case, the Supreme Court of Kentucky held that the Commonwealth could not criminally penalize McCarthy for his refusal to submit to a blood test, and that the increased mandatory minimum sentence constituted a criminal penalty. The Kentucky Court also held admitting a defendant's refusal to consent to a search as evidence of guilt violates the Fourth Amendment, relying on its prior decisions in non-DUI cases. The Kentucky Court justified applying that precedent to the DUI context because it concluded that the Fourth Amendment question had not been squarely addressed by the Supreme Court, which had previously focused on the Fifth Amendment implications of admitting refusal evidence. Moreover, the Kentucky Court reasoned the prosecution's argument for its admission was undermined by the analysis presented in Birchfield, which held that a warrantless blood draw incident to arrests for drunk driving are normally unreasonable under the Fourth Amendment. By contrast, almost all states allow the admission of evidence that the driver refused a blood draw. A number of you joined the amicus brief we filed in Mitchell v. Wisconsin, No. 18-6210, a case about the scope of implied consent laws; and like that brief, this one discusses the constitutionality of such laws as well as the critical role refusal evidence plays in criminal prosecutions of impaired drivers. Please contact me at jillian.price@coag.gov or Gabriel Olivares at gabriel.olivares@coag.gov to join the brief or to offer any suggestions; we welcome your feedback and look forward to having a strong coalition in support of this important issue. The brief is due January 26, 2022, and the deadline to join is Monday, January 24, 2022, at 5:00PM EST. With appreciation, Jillian J. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21 (N.C.). The question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars North Carolina from requiring out-of-state retailers to collect sales tax when they deliver goods to in-state consumers. Quad Graphics, Inc. ["Quad"] is a Wisconsin-based corporation that prints books, magazines, and other items for direct mail to customers nationwide. The North Carolina Department of Revenue issued an assessment to Quad for uncollected sales tax on printed materials that Quad delivered to customers in North Carolina, pursuant to the provision of its tax code that clarifies that sales are "sourced to the location where the purchaser receives the product." N.C.G.S. § 105-164.6(a)(2). A North Carolina Business Court Judge held that the dormant Commerce Clause prohibited states from imposing sales taxes on out-of-state goods delivered by common carrier into the state. Under Dilworth, the court concluded, a state sales (as opposed to use) tax "survives scrutiny under the Commerce Clause only where the purchase of tangible personal property—i.e., the transfer of ownership from the seller to buyer—takes place in the taxing state." Quad Graphics, Inc. v. N.C. Dep't of Revenue, No. 20 CV5 7489, 2021 WL 254262, at *11 (N.C. Super. June 23, 2021). North Carolina has appealed this decision to the North Carolina Supreme Court. North Carolina Dep't of Revenue (N.C.) To: Civil Amicus Contacts  From: District of Columbia SG Office The District of Columbia is preparing an amicus brief supporting respondent-appellant North Carolina in Quad Graphics, Inc. v. North Carolina Department of Revenue, No. 407-A-21, in the North Carolina Supreme Court. The relevant question presented is whether the dormant Commerce Clause bars states from asserting and collecting sales taxes on transactions originating from out-of-state and delivered to in-state consumers. We expect the North Carolina AG to argue that Dilworth formalism—which allows use taxes, but not sales taxes on such transactions—is no longer good law. States have a critical interest in protecting their sovereign authority to fairly tax interstate commerce and to preserve the gains they received from the Supreme Court's decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair, 138 S. Ct. 2080 (2018). The District's brief will therefore make two related arguments: First, the brief will argue that reaffirming Dilworth formalism would be inconsistent with the Supreme Court's decision in Wayfair and would reintroduce many of the policy concerns that animated the Court's abrogation of the physical-presence rule. Second, the brief will highlight the particular concerns raised by the lower court's decision in states with destination-based sourcing schemes. The District and at least 39 states have tax-sourcing statutes that identify the location of the "sale" as the place where the goods are delivered. Allowing courts to override such statutes and conclude that there is no transactional nexus absent physical purchase within the taxing state would undermine states' sovereign taxing authority and contradict the fundamental principle that "the modes adopted [by the States] to enforce the taxes levied should be interfered with as little as possible." Dows v. City of Chicago, 78 U.S. 108, 110 (1871). As we craft and refine the brief, it would be helpful to know the following by January 7 (if you happen to have responsive information): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Does your state have a destination-based sourcing scheme? If so, a citation to the specific provision of the state tax code would be ideal.</li> <li>2. In the wake of Wayfair: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Is your state assessing and collecting sales taxes on out-of-state companies that deliver goods to in-state consumers?</li> <li>2. Has your state faced Dilworth-based challenges such as the one at issue here?</li> </ol> </li> </ol> Please contact caroline.vanzile@dc.gov and norah.rast@dc.gov with your responses. Frosh. The brief is a joint effort between West Virginia and Arizona. The issue that Petitioners ask the Court to hear is whether Maryland's ban on "assault weapons" commonly used by law-abiding citizens violates the Second Amendment. More specifically, the Maryland statute bans any semi-automatic centerfire rifle with a detachable magazine that has at least two of (1) a folding stock, (2) a grenade or flare launcher, or (3) a flash suppressor. The ban also specifically applies to a list of 45 enumerated rifle types. In both the district court and the Fourth Circuit, Petitioners conceded that their Second Amendment claim is foreclosed under the en banc Fourth Circuit's decision in Kolbe v. Hogan, 849 F.3d 114 (4th Cir. 2017) (en banc). That decision erroneously holds that any firearm that is "most useful in military service" falls outside the protections of the Second Amendment. The petition asks the Court to overrule Kolbe and adopt a categorical approach to the Second Amendment. Cooper and Kirk represents the Petitioners and their petition is attached. Given our printer deadline, if you could get us sign-ons by 11am ET on Wednesday 1/19, we would appreciate it. Best, Mike Michael S. Matt,

I reviewed the cases in which I am adverse to a state agency in conjunction with the ethical rules and do not believe there is a conflict. At the time I was appointed as a SAAG to represent the N.D. State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the firm already had existing matters adverse to state agencies. We also have other attorneys in the firm who are appointed as SAAGs. It was our understanding the Attorney General's Office had impliedly authorized our representation against state agencies given these designations with that knowledge. Given your raised concerns, however, please confirm the Office of Attorney General approves of our continued representation of certain state agencies as well as clients who have issues adverse to unrelated state agencies.

Please include Lawrence King on any other concerns since he is the firm's managing partner and we have other SAAG designations here.

Body	Attached is a new amicus request regarding a brief written by Utah – response is due January 26. I don't have a strong opinion, but Parrell might. Here is a description: Utah plans to file the attached amicus in support of appellant in Epic Games v. Apple pending in the Ninth Circuit. The amicus argues that (1) the district court's holding that "contract" under Section 1 of the Sherman Act does not include "unilateral contracts" violates rules of statutory interpretation, is inconsistent with Supreme Court precedent, and makes bad public policy; and (2) the district court erred in failing to balance the overall competitive effects as part of its rule-of-reason analysis. In addition to generally ensuring effective standards for antitrust enforcement, these arguments are directly relevant to the 39-state multistate Google IAP litigation pending in the Northern District of California. <hr/> From: Dan Schweitzer &lt;dschweitzer@naag.org&gt;  Sent: Thursday, January 20, 2022 6:56 AM  To: Dan Schweitzer &lt;dschweitzer@naag.org&gt;  Cc: Melissa Holyoak &lt;melissaholyoak@agutah.gov&gt;  Subject: Amicus Brief in Epic v. Street View Electronic Communications Litigation (opinion attached). Your AGs previously signed on to the amicus brief that we filed in the Ninth Circuit in August 2020 (also attached). As a reminder, this is a case where the settlement creates a $13 million cash fund, but the entire fund is being sent to class counsel, class representatives, and cy pres recipients. Additionally, the settlement's injunctive relief mirrored relief already obtained by 39 State AGs in 2013. Judge Bade wrote the opinion for the court, affirming the district court's order certifying the class, approving the settlement agreement, and awarding attorneys' fees. But Judge Bade also wrote a separate concurrence expressing general concerns about cy pres awards. The objector has filed a petition for rehearing and rehearing en banc (attached). We intend to file a short amicus brief in support of the petition. Our brief will focus on the importance of this issue, as evidenced by the Supreme Court granting a petition in a similar case a few years ago (in which they ultimately did not reach the merits). We will also include some of the language in our original brief about cy pres in class actions generally. The brief is due January 20th, but because of the quick turnaround, we may not be able to circulate until a day or two before and wanted to give you advance notice of the request to join. Friends,

As a follow-up to the email below about the attached amicus brief in Bianchi v. Frosh, the Court on Friday ordered a response to the petition, which gives us some additional time to file the brief. As a result, we are extending the deadline to join until 5:00 p.m. EST on January 24, 2021. Nine states have already joined and we hope the additional time will result in others joining as well.

Best,

Mike

Friends,

Attached is a draft of a cert-stage amicus brief from the perspective of states in Bianchi v. Frosh. The brief is a joint effort between West Virginia and Arizona.

The issue that Petitioners ask the Court to hear is whether Maryland's ban on "assault weapons" commonly used by law-abiding citizens violates the Second Amendment. More specifically, the Maryland statute bans any semi-automatic centerfire rifle with a detachable magazine that has at least two of (1) a folding stock, (2) a grenade or flare launcher, or (3) a flash suppressor. The ban also specifically applies to a list of 45 enumerated rifle types.

In both the district court and the Fourth Circuit, Petitioners conceded that their Second Amendment claim is foreclosed under the en banc Fourth Circuit's decision in Kolbe v. Hogan, 849 F.3d 114 (4th Cir. 2017) (en banc). That decision erroneously holds that any firearm that is "most useful in military service" falls outside the protections of the Second Amendment. The petition asks the Court to overrule Kolbe and adopt a categorical approach to the Second Amendment. Cooper and Kirk represents the Petitioners and their petition is attached.

Given our printer deadline, if you could get us sign-ons by 11am ET on Wednesday 1/19, we would appreciate it.

Best,
 Mike

Wayne and Troy,
 I just want to make sure you are aware of this request from supplemental briefing from the Court – see below. It is probably unnecessary for the AG to file an amicus brief regarding this matter, but the issues considered by the court could definitely impact the Attorney General’s administration of the open meetings law, and every single governing body’s relationship with their attorney.
 Matt

Schmitz v. State Board of Chiropractic Examiners
 Supreme Court No. 20210273
 Burleigh Co. No. 2020-CV-01827

The Court directed that supplemental briefs be filed in Schmitz v. State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, Supreme Court No. 20210273, which was argued on January 6, 2022. Briefs must be no more than 15 pages, are due February 4, 2022, and are limited to the following issues:

1. Is the definition for “attorney consultation” found in N.D.C.C. § 44-04-19.1(5) ambiguous? If so, what is the meaning and scope of “attorney consultation” in this case?
2. What is meant by the phrase “an adverse fiscal effect” in N.D.C.C. § 44-04-19.1(5)?
3. Does the phrase “which, if held in public, would have an adverse fiscal effect on the entity” modify the entire subsection in N.D.C.C. § 44-04-19.1(5)?

Please be advised that these issues will be discussed at the February 8, 2022, oral argument in Schmitz v. State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, Supreme Court No. 20210135. Ten additional minutes will be provided to each party. The argument on the supplemental briefs will occur in the first 20 minutes, followed by argument in Supreme Court No. 20210135.

Oral argument has been rescheduled to 2:45 on February 8, 2022, to allow for the additional time.

Sincerely,

/s/ Petra H. Mandigo Hulm

Subject: ERISA ESG Comment Letter -- Deadline 12/13 at 3 pm ET

Hello All,

Attached is a draft comments letter in response to a revised DOL rule regarding ERISA plan sponsors' obligations relating to ESG investments. The letter argues that these investments are often misleading and administratively costly and should not be encouraged. The administration also does not provide justification for departure from the current rules that went into effect early 2021. The current rules clarify that only pecuniary factors can be considered when investing. I apologize for the short turnaround but we need joins by Monday December 13 at 6 pm ET. Also, please note that we worked with our state Treasurer on this letter. He is circulating to treasurers from other states to see if they would like to add their signatures. We welcome any feedback and if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thanks,
Melissa

Hi all,

Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.

Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 0 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.

Sincerely,

Drew

Subject: Re: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Hi all,

Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.

Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Subject: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Dear Friends,

We wanted to let you know about a multi-state amicus brief we plan on circulating late this week or early next week. The amicus brief would support challenges to SEC approval of a NASDAQ proposed "diversity" requirement. That requirement (discussed in greater detail below) adopts one of the crudest and most odious tool available to the government: race- and sex-based quotas. All companies that fail to satisfy those quotas would be compelled to make statements explaining (i.e., apologizing for) their failure to do so.

Challenges to SEC's approval have been consolidated in the Fifth Circuit. One opening brief challenging the rule has already been filed (attached). Another will be filed on December 20, so our amicus brief will be due December 27.

Because of the holiday season, we wanted to give everyone a heads up that this brief will be coming. We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 2pm Eastern.

Please feel free to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions.

Sincerely,
Drew

Nasdaq Quota Requirement Overview:
 On December 1, 2020, the Nasdaq proposed to adopt a series of rules related to corporate board "diversity." After taking comments, Nasdaq submitted an amended proposal to the SEC in February which had three main components, which apply to every Nasdaq-listed firm (minus some exceptions for small and foreign firms): (1) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who "self-identifies her gender as a woman;" (2) to have, or explain why it does not have, at least one director who self-identifies as "Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander, or Two or More Races or Ethnicities;" or as "LGBTQ+," which is defined as "lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a member of the queer community;" and (3) to provide statistical information on directors' sex, race, and sexual orientation status. See Securities and Exchange Commission, Order Approving Proposed Rule Changes, as Modified by Amendments No. 1, 86 Fed. Reg. 44,424 (Aug. 6, 2021), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/08/12/2021-17179/self-regulatory-organizations-the-nasdaq-stock-market-llc-order-approving-proposed-rule-changes-as>.

On August 6, 2021, the Securities and Exchange Commission – on a 3-2 party-line vote – approved Nasdaq's proposal without modification, finalizing these requirements as Nasdaq rules. In response to objections that this proposal violated the Constitution, the SEC adopted Nasdaq's argument that the rule was not subject to the Constitution because Nasdaq was not a state actor. <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-17179/p-301>.

On August 10, 2021, the Alliance for Fair Board Recruitment (AFBR) filed a Petition for Review of the SEC's action in the Fifth Circuit. Additional petitioner National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPFR) filed in the Third Circuit, and was transferred to the Fifth Circuit on October 28, 2021.

Hi all,

Here is a very slightly updated version of the amicus brief supporting the challenges to SEC's/Nasdaq's explicit race- and sex-based quotas, and last call for sign-ons.

Thanks to everyone that has joined so far. We are currently at 0 states: Arizona, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, and South Carolina.

We can accept sign-ons until tomorrow, Monday, December 27 at 5pm EST. Please also let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or edits.

Sincerely,

Drew

Subject: Re: Amicus Brief Supporting Challenge to NASDAQ Race- and Sex-Based Quotas

Hi all,

Attached is a slightly updated version of the Fifth Circuit amicus brief for the Nasdaq/SEC Quota Rule challenge. So far Alaska, Arkansas, and Montana have joined.

Basically, the brief makes two points that are probably pretty uncontroversial for this group: (1) explicit race- and sex-based quotas are bad and violate the Constitution and (2) SEC cannot use a highly generalized and circumscribed grant of authority to intrude upon an area traditionally regulated by state law and in service of an agenda of restructuring society in the agency's own social justice-minded image (while violating the Constitution in the process).

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of this.

Sincerely,
Drew

Hi all,

Attached is our draft amicus brief in support of the challenges to the SEC/Nasdaq Quota Rule. Please let us know any questions or suggestions that you have. Given the outrageousness of SEC's adoption of explicit race- and sex-based quotas for Nasdaq-listed companies, we are hopeful that we can have a broad coalition here.

For greater detail on the challenged rule, we are attaching the opening brief of one of the challengers as well.

We will be able to accept sign-ons until December 27 at 5pm Eastern.

Happy Friday everyone. We've decided to push our amicus filing until next week Tuesday to give everyone more time to join. So please let us know if you'd like to join by Tuesday, January 25 at noon. To recap the brief - voting rights plaintiffs shouldn't be allowed to take insufficient section 2 results allegations and just claim "discriminatory purpose" in order to survive a motion to dismiss. We'd like to make a strong showing in support of Arizona on this one, so let me know if you have any questions or concerns about the brief. Thanks!

 Subject: Draft States Amicus Brief - Mi Familia Vota v. Hobbs

Hello all,

I've attached a draft States amicus brief in support of Arizona's motion to dismiss in its most recent voting litigation concerning two laws: (1) requiring missing signatures on mail-in ballots to be provided by election day; and (2) removing voters from the early voting list such that they no longer automatically receive mail-in ballots if they don't vote for two cycles and fail to respond when asked if they wish to remain on the list. Plaintiffs have not brought a section 2 results claim, but only a discriminatory-purpose claim and an undue-burden claim. Our amicus brief focuses on the purpose claim and highlights the need for adequate allegations of invidious purpose, the presumption of legislative good faith, and the discovery burdens that await if the motion to dismiss is denied.

We'd like to file this on Friday, so please let me know if you'd like to join by noon (CT) on Friday, January 21. Thank you!

He was not a board member at the time of the executive session. The recording is exempt so it could be released to him if the board votes to release it to him. I believe he made a motion at a board meeting to listen to it and they voted NOT to release the recording to him.

Five years after taking office, Burgum, Sanford reflect on state's historic progress and challenges during 2021

Governor to deliver 2022 State of the State Address on Jan. 19 at NDSU

VIEW THIS RELEASE ONLINE: governor.nd.gov

BISMARCK, N.D. (DEC. 15, 2021) — Gov. Doug Burgum and Lt. Gov. Brent Sanford today marked the fifth anniversary of being sworn into office, reflecting on a year filled with historic progress on infrastructure, workforce, economic development and other priorities, as well as major challenges including extreme drought conditions and the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

“As always, North Dakotans have responded to this year’s unprecedented challenges with incredible strength and resiliency,” Burgum said. “Our administration continues to draw inspiration from the hardworking citizens of our great state as we strive to empower people, improve lives and inspire success.”

In his January 2021 State of the State Address, Burgum called for bold action to move the state forward. He worked with the state Legislature to deliver a landmark \$680 million bonding package to support infrastructure improvements across the state. The package includes flood control, roads, bridges, water projects and an agricultural products development center — all with using Legacy Fund earnings and without raising taxes. The water project funding includes $435.5 million for the Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo area flood diversion, $74.5 million for Mouse River Flood Control at Minot and a $50 million revolving loan fund for water projects.

As recommended in Burgum’s Accelerate ND proposal, a special session of the Legislature in November also invested hundreds of millions of dollars of federal funding into infrastructure, including a proposed west-to-east natural gas pipeline to support communities and economic growth; workforce development including career centers where high school students can pursue high-demand careers; economic development programs and energy projects; and health care and behavioral health enhancements.

Burgum proposed and signed into law an income tax relief package that will provide an estimated $211 million in relief to approximately half a million North Dakotans in tax years 2021 and 2022. The governor also signed legislation eliminating the state income tax on Social Security income, making North Dakota the 38th state to eliminate the tax. As a result, approximately 20,000 North Dakotans will save an estimated $14.6 million per biennium.

The administration worked closely with stakeholders to usher in several of the largest economic development project announcements in state history, with a focus on diversifying the economy and adding value to the state’s raw commodities. The projects include ADM’s plans to build a \$350 million soybean crush and refinery in Spiritwood, N.D.; plans by Bakken Energy LLC and Mitsubishi Power Americas Inc. to establish a world-class clean hydrogen hub; and Cerilon Inc.’s plans to build a \$2.8 billion gas-to-liquids complex in Williams County.

Sanford also spearheaded the administration’s efforts on the sale of Coal Creek Station, the state’s largest coal-fired power plant, to Rainbow Energy — avoiding a shutdown of the plant, saving jobs and preserving baseload power generation.

Together, these projects will play a major role in North Dakota’s agriculture, energy and overall economic growth, along with efforts toward the governor’s goal, announced in May, of making North Dakota the first carbon-neutral state by 2030.

Burgum also appointed several members to the governor’s cabinet: Indian Affairs Commission Executive Director Nathan Davis, Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation Director Dave Krabbenhoff, Commerce Commissioner James Leiman, Parks and Recreation Director Cody Schulz, Department of Water Resources Director Andres Travnick, State Health Officer Dr. Nizar Wehbi, and Game and Fish Department Director Jeb Williams. Stacey Breuer also joined the cabinet as chief people officer.

Historic drought

- The governor declared a statewide drought disaster in early April, marking the second time in five years that North Dakota farmers and ranchers faced widespread extreme drought conditions that threatened crops, livestock herds and livelihoods.
- At the same time, Burgum, who chairs the State Water Commission, and Agriculture Commissioner Doug Goehring, also a member, announced the reactivation of the Drought Disaster Livestock Water Supply Project Assistance Program through the newly formed Department of Water Resources. So far, over $5.6 million in cost-share assistance has been approved for over 1,400 projects submitted by more than 1,000 unique applicants, with an average approval time of less than three days from application.
- Burgum also signed an executive order waiving hours of service for haulers of livestock, hay and water to help livestock producers battling extreme drought conditions across the state.
- With its partners at the North Dakota Forest Service and North Dakota National Guard, the Department of Emergency Services (DES) coordinated the response to significant wildland fire events, including an April 1 fire that encroached on Medora and prompted evacuations. Army National Guard Black Hawk helicopters supported local and regional firefighting efforts to save Medora by distributing water via 600-gallon water buckets.
- Local, tribal, state and federal agencies responded to two large wildfires from April 30 to May 2. The Roosevelt Creek Fire in the Little Missouri National Grassland, north of Medora, burned more than 4,600 acres, while another fire on the Fort Berthold Reservation, about six miles south of Mandaree, burned an estimated 9,800 acres.
- Total Army National Guard support, including to Mandaree, involved distributing over 100,000 gallons of water and eight Guard members working with the North Dakota Forest Service on the ground.

- As of Dec. 2, North Dakota had experienced more than 2,400 fires burning over 125,600 acres in 2021.
- As proposed in Accelerate ND, Burgum signed legislation providing funding to convert abandoned oil wells to permanent freshwater supply wells to enhance resiliency against drought conditions in western North Dakota. Itâ€™s estimated the $3.2 million appropriation will support the conversion of up to 16 wells.
- While serving and protecting citizens at home, DES also coordinated and resourced firefighting teams to provide aid to another state. A group of 15 firefighters from the Williston, Williston Rural, Bismarck Rural and Dickinson fire departments spent two weeks supporting Hurricane Ida recovery efforts in September along the Gulf Coast. This was after Burgum approved an Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) request from the state of Louisiana, allowing North Dakotaâ€™s firefighters to assist with fire suppression missions there.

COVID-19 pandemic response

- Since January 2021, more than 900,000 doses of the COVID-19 vaccine have been administered in North Dakota. The percentage of adults in the state with at least one dose is 60.7%, and more than 83% of those over age 65 have started their vaccine series.
- The North Dakota Department of Health (NDDoH) State Laboratory processed more than 682,497 tests, and its hotline responded to more than 93,000 citizen calls and 4,100 emails. The NDDoH developed the North Dakota COVID-19 Impact Wall to connect North Dakotans impacted by the disease.
- The NDDoH developed and updated communication channels for citizens, including website dashboards for COVID-19 cases and vaccine distribution, so citizens could quickly access data to make informed decisions about their health. The COVID-19 cases dashboard had more than 2 million page views this year, and the COVID-19 vaccine dashboard had more than 400,000 page views in this time frame.
- The pandemic has the North Dakota National Guard serving its longest domestic response in history â€“ 638 days and nearly 128,000 personnel days as of Monday. Guard members have administered testing, facilitated over 103,000 doses of vaccine, conducted traffic control, partnered with local and tribal health organizations, and transported test samples to the state lab, among other duties.
- The DES has coordinated the obligation of more than $126 million through the Federal Emergency Management Agencyâ€™s Public Assistance Program. The agency assisted eligible local, state, tribal and nonprofit organizations in submitting applications to reimburse costs for medical care, testing and vaccinations, as well as costs required to perform safe opening and operations.
- Job Service North Dakota provided vital economic support to the unemployed by injecting over $1.2 billion into the economy since the start of the pandemic. In a typical year, Job Service will pay between $80 million to $90 million to recipients during times of economic downturns, but payments to unemployed recipients in 2021 alone had already reached $362 million by early December.
- Security and medical team members from the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (DCR) have cared for more than 950 residents diagnosed with COVID-19 at facilities across the state. Partnering with the NDDoH, DOCR team members offered extensive testing and monoclonal antibody treatments to provide excellent care on-site to prevent serious illness. Very few COVID-positive residents required hospitalization, minimizing the impact on already strained community medical resources.
- The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) helped develop the executive proposal for over $1 billion in federal American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) investments, managed the distribution of over $25 million in ARPA funding to North Dakota cities, and managed the stateâ€™s reporting requirements for $1.25 billion in federal Coronavirus Relief Funds.
- Recognizing how employers play an essential role in healthy, vibrant communities, Job Service worked with policymakers to ensure that the Unemployment Insurance (UI) Trust Fund remained healthy and that employers were held harmless for UI benefit charges to their employees during 2020. As importantly, the steps taken ensured there were no unemployment tax rate increases for employers in 2021. By utilizing federal Cares Act dollars to strengthen the UI Trust Fund, it positioned the UI program to again hold rates flat in the upcoming 2022 calendar year.

In addition to addressing drought and COVID challenges, the administration continued to make progress on the governorâ€™s five strategic initiatives: Main Street Initiative, Behavioral Health and Addiction, Tribal Engagement, Transforming Education and Reinvesting Government.

Main Street Initiative

- The Department of Commerce worked to increase infill and reduce property taxes by updating Renaissance Zones and working across state agencies to successfully stack and align state programs for mixed use and infill.
- North Dakota was one of only six states selected for the second phase of the National Governors Associationâ€™s Workforce Innovation Networks, in which states will deploy cross-agency teams to identify and implement strategies that advance digital skill development and more equitable economic participation.
- Commerceâ€™s Workforce Division is implementing systematic changes with $20 million allocated to improve talent attraction efforts. One strategy launched in 2021 involves a national project with RoleCall to address workforce needs by helping to make North Dakota a national leader in talent attraction innovation and action.
- The Main Street ND Summit, held in West Fargo this year, featured a lineup of renowned speakers and community innovators on the topic of smart, efficient infrastructure. Videos of the keynotes, breakout sessions and Main Street Awards can be viewed here.

Body

- Due to the many workforce challenges facing North Dakota, Job Service took a strategic, targeted approach to a statewide campaign called #JOBUPND. The campaign utilized several online ad platforms generating over 3 million impressions with a 75% view rate.
- Smart, efficient infrastructure is a pillar of the Main Street Initiative, and infrastructure is vital to North Dakota's economy, commerce, agriculture, tourism and families. In 2021, the state of North Dakota made an unprecedented $2.3 billion dollar investment in infrastructure.
- Recognizing the key role that parks play in creating healthy, vibrant communities, lawmakers approved and Burgum signed legislation during the special session investing $17.9 million in deferred maintenance and capital improvements at state parks, plus $5 million in matching funds to renovate and upgrade existing facilities in local park districts. The Legislature last spring also created a Challenge Grant for the Parks and Recreation Department to drive investment from the private and public sectors for parks.
- Commerce, Job Service and the DOCR worked together on The Last Mile, a collaborative effort to provide instruction on front- and back-end website design to enable DOCR residents to be workforce ready in a highly technical field of coding and website design.
- The Department of Water Resources' Cost-Share Program continued to advance critical water supply infrastructure in all areas of the state. For municipal water supply projects, $19.7 million was approved to benefit over 15,000 water users in communities of all sizes. Rural water systems received over $8 million for system expansions and improvements that will benefit over 20,000 water users.
- The larger regional water supply systems, including the Western Area Water Supply, Red River Valley Water Supply, Southwest Pipeline Project, and Northwest Area Water Supply were approved for $93.6 million in state funding, and $20.4 million in federal Municipal, Rural and Industrial Water Supply Program funding. Combined, these four regional water supply systems will one day provide water service to 73% of North Dakota's population.

Behavioral Health and Addiction

- More than 650 in-person attendees and over 3,000 online viewers participated in the fifth Recovery Reinvented, a daylong event in Bismarck focused on reinventing recovery through eliminating the stigma of addiction. The governor and First Lady Kathryn Burgum shared the results of the statewide North Dakota Addressing Addiction survey, which found stigma has been reduced over the last three years.
- The Department of Human Services completed statewide implementation of a behavioral health crisis services response system that includes crisis line, mobile response and walk-in services at its eight human service centers. At the Life Skills and Transition Center in Graton, the system was expanded with a specialized team who respond to people with developmental and intellectual disabilities in crisis so they can continue to live successfully in their communities. Crisis response services de-escalate situations and prevent law enforcement involvement and unnecessary emergency room visits.
- Building on the success of the Free Through Recovery program, Human Services launched the Community Connect program, which provides community-based behavioral health services designed to assist individuals with care coordination, peer support and recovery services.
- Human Services also implemented a Medicaid 1915(i) state plan amendment, which allows North Dakota Medicaid to pay for additional in-home and community-based services to support individuals with behavioral health conditions. Services include care coordination, benefits planning, nonmedical transportation, respite, supported education, supported employment, housing and peer support.
- The DOCR partnered with Restoring Promise, an initiative of the Vera Institute of Justice, and MILPA, to create a housing unit at the State Penitentiary grounded in dignity for young adults in prison. Restoring Promise helps transform correctional culture through training, presentations, workshops and healing circles - setting a new tone for the entire system. Young adults participate in meaningful daily activities, experience healing, cultivate an ideology of self-determination and restore relationships with family and community. Mentors over the age of 25 support them in their personal growth, and staff undergo intensive training to become agents of change within the system.
- The Highway Patrol created a two-member crash assistance program that will provide enhanced services to victims of crashes, including providing information about understanding grief; reducing stress reactions after trauma; tools to process reactions to crisis and trauma; and information to support children as they process grief and trauma.

Tribal Engagement

- The North Dakota National Guard finished signing memorandums of agreement with all five tribal colleges in North Dakota to make the State Tuition Assistance program available to qualified student service members attending college.
- Burgum signed legislation providing a framework for the state and the Mandan, Hidatsa and Anikara (MHA) Nation to share tax revenue from oil wells that straddle the boundary of the Fort Berthold Reservation, settling an unresolved issue from the state's historic 2019 tax agreement with the MHA Nation.
- The North Dakota Highway Patrol entered an agreement with the MHA Nation to enhance emergency response on the Fort Berthold Reservation. The agreement, signed by Burgum and MHA Chairman Mark Fox, allows the closest available peace officer to respond to an emergency call for service until the agency with primary jurisdiction arrives and assumes the lead. The agreement to allow mutual aid across reservation boundaries was made possible by legislation signed in 2019 and 2021.
- Burgum also signed legislation to allow NDOT to enter into agreements with tribes and other government entities to assist with cybersecurity incident response, and to allow NDOT to enter into agreements with tribal governments to assist with federally funded safety improvement projects on tribal-owned highways, streets, roads and bridges.
- The Highway Patrol created and implemented a five-member criminal interdiction team that focuses on drug and human trafficking and other criminal activity occurring on roadways in the state. The team is tasked with working closely with tribal law enforcement to intercept illegal substances destined for North Dakota reservations.

- A pilot program that aims to ensure all justice-involved, at-risk tribal and non-tribal youth have access to similar services was extended for two years.

Transforming Education

- Burgum signed legislation that capped a four-year collaborative effort to pave the way for authentic learning and flexibility in pathways for North Dakota students to achieve graduation. Creating personalized graduation pathways to complement the traditional credit-hour K-12 education system was the No. 1 recommendation from the Governor's Innovative Education Task Force created through executive order in 2017.
- Burgum proposed and ultimately signed legislation providing $38 million to Bismarck State College to create the state's first polytechnic institution. This new approach to higher education will equip students with the skills needed to fill in-demand careers throughout the state.
- The North Dakota Information Technology (NDIT) Cybersecurity Team enhanced IT security services for the K-12 education community as part of the IT Shared Services/Unification initiative. This increased cybersecurity posture for the K-12 community sets the stage for better response planning and defense, and better security around school and student data. NDIT also expanded Extended Detection Response in schools, added protection to 10,000 Chromebooks, and provided Security User Awareness training to over 2,500 users.
- NDIT also enabled a 24-hour service desk supported by live agents for all state agencies and school districts. In the past year, NDIT has processed an average of 12,000 incidents per month. By offering around-the-clock support, NDIT is better equipped to handle support queries more quickly while improving customer service and creating long-lasting relationships.

Reinventing Government

- The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) increased driver's license and motor vehicle kiosks to 52 locations across North Dakota. Citizens are now able to print their motor vehicle tabs, renew or request a replacement license or ID card, schedule a road test, pay a reinstatement fee, change their address and edit donor registry information without visiting an office. The department also increased online appointments and reduced customer wait times for driver's license and motor vehicle services from nearly 30 minutes to less than 10 minutes.
- The NDDOT also launched driver's license online knowledge tests, allowing North Dakotans an easy and convenient way to get their learner's permit 24/7 from anywhere with internet access.
- The Highway Patrol's unmanned aircraft systems (UAS) program became fully active in 2021 following several months of planning and officer training. The UAS program will provide enhanced crash reconstruction services and allow officers to assess dangerous incidents from a safe distance, such as fire hot spots, unknown package identification or quickly locating missing or dangerous individuals in rough terrain.
- The DES completed a new streamlined system to provide a one-stop shop for energy industry producers, transporters and developers, as well as the public, to report hazardous material spills and releases instead of reporting spills to multiple state agencies. The reporting system, available at www.spill.nd.gov or by calling 1-833-995PILL (1-833-997-7455), was supported by the Department of Environmental Quality, Department of Agriculture and the Industrial Commission's Oil and Gas Division.
- Wildfire response by the DES led to some dramatic improvements leveraging technology. One of those innovations was a GPS-configured wildland fire dashboard that provided leaders, planners and firefighters with better situational awareness. It was the first time data could be compiled through reports from local emergency managers and 9-1-1 calls, as well as historical data from the Integrated Reporting of Wildland-Fire Information (IRWIN) system used by fire departments.
- The DES also initiated a program to augment the state's firefighting capabilities and resources by creating a wildland task force for the state. The task force concept was adopted to allow local fire departments the ability to respond outside their jurisdictions, if needed. Departments that volunteer will coordinate directly with the Forest Service to preposition personnel and equipment for potential state wildfire suppression missions.
- The North Dakota Game and Fish Department became the first state in the nation to allow electronic posting of private land with the passage of Senate Bill 2144. The bill gives landowners and hunters alike a convenient option for posting private land and checking its status for hunting, while also leaving the traditional physical posting process in place for those who wish to continue using it.
- The Department of Human Services implemented the Safety Framework Practice model, which redesigned in-home child and family support services and foster care services to increase the number of children remaining safely in their homes.
- Human Services also launched statewide centralized intake for child abuse and neglect reporting in January 2021. Overall, the number of children living in foster care has decreased in 2021. Efforts are underway to continue shifting resources to in-home services to support children and their families together.
- The pandemic's challenges provided an opportunity for Job Service to reinvent how it ensures benefits are getting to those who need it and not to identity thieves and criminal enterprises. By implementing an industry-leading ID proofing/verification service and by expanding utilization of fraud detection data analytics, Job Service prevented over 8,000 fraudulent claims, which could have resulted in over $150 million in fraudulent payments.
- The North Dakota Healthcare Directive Registry development by NDIT was completed and is available at https://sd.gov/directiveregistry. This system allows citizens to store, maintain and retrieve important health care documents, such as advance directive documents that are key when determining proper patient care. Users can share documents with providers and family as

- Workforce Safety & Insurance (WSI) successfully deployed upgrades to its myWSI and CAPS systems, providing better customer experience for internal and external customers through automation of manual tasks and online accessibility.
- The Department of Water Resources expanded the utility and functionality of PRESENS (Pushing Remote SENSors), a real-time water level monitoring program. The program now has a much broader range of data collection opportunities to include soil moisture, soil temperature and precipitation measurements. This real-time data will assist with water management into the future and will be used for modeling efforts and analysis. The department deployed more than 220 PRESENS units at peak operation, and aims to grow that number to around 1,000 units in the coming years.
- The Securities Department completed two significant technology projects designed to improve efficiency and the service experience for constituents. A new case management system facilitates the timely, effective and impactful execution of examinations and investigations to support the department's mission of protecting investors. And the new ND Securities Filing Portal delivers a fully electronic filing experience for issuers of securities and other filers, while completing the department's conversion to electronic systems for all securities and investment industry filings, which totaled approximately 148,000 in the last fiscal year.
- Five state agencies – the NDDOT, Department of Water Resources, Department of Environmental Quality, Public Finance Authority and Bank of North Dakota – collaborated to create Funding for Infrastructure in North Dakota (FIND), a central hub for local governments to apply for infrastructure funding. With five different infrastructure funding programs in the state, knowing which fund to apply for and completing multiple applications was a strain for city and county staff, but FIND provides a one-stop shop for applications. The site was gradually rolled out starting in June and has already received 13 applications.

Citizen-focused agencies make progress

In addition, state agencies worked hard to deliver core services and improve outcomes in many areas:

- Human Services launched a new early childhood division to focus resources on school readiness, strong, stable families; and quality early childhood experiences. To date, the division has awarded federal grant dollars to 713 North Dakota child care programs for financial stabilization.
- Human Services worked with housing partners to implement the new, more comprehensive ND Rent Help program to support housing stability and financial stability and promote strong, stable families. In 2021, 1,295 renter households received emergency rent or utility assistance from ND Rent Help, and 1,095 unique housing providers and utility providers received direct payments from the program. Total assistance disbursed through Nov. 30, 2021, was $13,428,408.
- Human Services improved access to in-home and community-based long-term support services so that older adults and adults with physical disabilities who qualify for skilled nursing care can live at home if they choose. North Dakotans can easily apply online or by phone through the Aging and Disability Resource LINK (ADRL) to get connected to in-home services.
- Human Service provided all Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) households with the maximum benefit amount for households their size. During 2021, approximately 17,800 North Dakota households benefited each month during the COVID-19 public health emergency.
- During the 67th Legislative Assembly, Burjom signed a bill to redesign the way nursing homes are paid by North Dakota Medicaid. Under this new payment system, nursing homes will be incentivized to provide cost-effective care and to renovate rather than build facilities. The new payment system will reduce overall expenses in the future, making it advantageous to taxpayers as well.
- In January 2021, Human Services assumed administration and operation of resettlement support services from contracted vendor Lutheran Social Services of North Dakota. Services help individuals adjust to life in North Dakota and become self-sufficient. The goal is to see New Americans accepted, integrated and supported as they add value to North Dakota and enrich the culture of their new communities. In 2021, 35 refugees resettled in North Dakota.
- The statewide cancer registry maintained by the NDDoH was recognized by the CDC as a Registry of Excellence for the period December 2020 through November 2021. Women's Way screened 284 people for breast and/or cervical cancer. The program provides these important services to more than 70 women per month.
- The Women, Infants & Children (WIC) Program provided healthy food and support to more than 15,000 North Dakotans. The oral health program distributed 47,000 toothbrushes to 188 schools; 14 workplaces were designated as infant friendly, benefiting 3,821 employees, and the child passenger safety program launched new interactive mats and certified 67 technicians.
- The NDDoH distributed 1,560 state-of-the-art automated external defibrillators (AEDs) to law enforcement via a partnership with the Helmsley Charitable Trust. One of these AEDs was successfully deployed in August 2021 in Grand Forks and helped save a life.
- OMB launched Team ND Connect, a statewide intranet available to all state team members, and delivered Leadership Everywhere training to over 1,500 Team ND members. The agency also led a statewide change management initiative, launched a new website on the statewide platform and centralized certain printing and procurement services.
- Parks and Recreation began offering a new option for North Dakota State park annual permit holders. The family permit, authorized by the 67th Legislative Assembly, allows members of the same household to buy two annual permits at a discounted price of $55.
- The NDDOT finalized the long-range transportation plan, Transportation Connection. The 25-year plan helps identify future transportation needs in the state.
- The NDDOT and Parks and Recreation partnered to replace and install various signs to promote recreational opportunities across the state. The project is designed to increase visibility of state parks and help guide visitors to parks and recreational areas.
- Parks and Recreation also partnered with the State Historical Society to offer the North Dakota

Body	Passport. The goal is to help residents and out-of-state travelers make the most of their visits to recreational and historical sites throughout the state. Five years after taking office, Burgum, Sanford reflect on state's historic progress and challenges during 2021

Governor to deliver 2022 State of the State Address on Jan. 19 at NDSU

VIEW THIS RELEASE ONLINE: governor.nd.gov

BISMARCK, N.D. (DEC. 15, 2021) — Gov. Doug Burgum and Lt. Gov. Brent Sanford today marked the fifth anniversary of being sworn into office, reflecting on a year filled with historic progress on infrastructure, workforce, economic development and other priorities, as well as major challenges including extreme drought conditions and the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

“As always, North Dakotans have responded to this year’s unprecedented challenges with incredible strength and resiliency,” Burgum said. “Our administration continues to draw inspiration from the hardworking citizens of our great state as we strive to empower people, improve lives and inspire success.”

In his January 2021 State of the State Address, Burgum called for bold action to move the state forward. He worked with the state Legislature to deliver a landmark \$680 million bonding package to support infrastructure improvements across the state. The package includes flood control, roads, bridges, water projects and an agricultural products development center — all with using Legacy Fund earnings and without raising taxes. The water project funding includes $435.5 million for the Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo area flood diversion, $74.5 million for Mouse River Flood Control at Minot and a $50 million revolving loan fund for water projects.

As recommended in Burgum’s Accelerate ND proposal, a special session of the Legislature in November also invested hundreds of millions of dollars of federal funding into infrastructure, including a proposed west-to-east natural gas pipeline to support communities and economic growth; workforce development including career centers where high school students can pursue high-demand careers; economic development programs and energy projects; and health care and behavioral health enhancements.

Burgum proposed and signed into law an income tax relief package that will provide an estimated $211 million in relief to approximately half a million North Dakotans in tax years 2021 and 2022. The governor also signed legislation eliminating the state income tax on Social Security income, making North Dakota the 38th state to eliminate the tax. As a result, approximately 20,000 North Dakotans will save an estimated $14.6 million per biennium.

The administration worked closely with stakeholders to usher in several of the largest economic development project announcements in state history, with a focus on diversifying the economy and adding value to the state’s raw commodities. The projects include ADM’s plans to build a \$350 million soybean crush and refinery in Spiritwood, N.D.; plans by Bakken Energy LLC and Mitsubishi Power Americas Inc. to establish a world-class clean hydrogen hub; and Cerilon Inc.’s plans to build a \$2.8 billion gas-to-liquids complex in Williams County.

Sanford also spearheaded the administration’s efforts on the sale of Coal Creek Station, the state’s largest coal-fired power plant, to Rainbow Energy — avoiding a shutdown of the plant, saving jobs and preserving baseload power generation.

Together, these projects will play a major role in North Dakota’s agriculture, energy and overall economic growth, along with efforts toward the governor’s goal, announced in May, of making North Dakota the first carbon-neutral state by 2030.

Burgum also appointed several members to the governor’s cabinet: Indian Affairs Commission Executive Director Nathan Davis, Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation Director Dave Krabbenhoff, Commerce Commissioner James Leiman, Parks and Recreation Director Cody Schulz, Department of Water Resources Director Andres Travnick, State Health Officer Dr. Nizar Wehbi, and Game and Fish Department Director Jeb Williams. Stacey Breuer also joined the cabinet as chief people officer.

Historic drought

- The governor declared a statewide drought disaster in early April, marking the second time in five years that North Dakota farmers and ranchers faced widespread extreme drought conditions that threatened crops, livestock herds and livelihoods.
- At the same time, Burgum, who chairs the State Water Commission, and Agriculture Commissioner Doug Goehring, also a member, announced the reactivation of the Drought Disaster Livestock Water Supply Project Assistance Program through the newly formed Department of Water Resources. So far, over $5.6 million in cost-share assistance has been approved for over 1,400 projects submitted by more than 1,000 unique applicants, with an average approval time of less than three days from application.
- Burgum also signed an executive order waiving hours of service for haulers of livestock, hay and water to help livestock producers battling extreme drought conditions across the state.
- With its partners at the North Dakota Forest Service and North Dakota National Guard, the Department of Emergency Services (DES) coordinated the response to significant wildland fire events, including an April 1 fire that encroached on Medora and prompted evacuations. Army National Guard Black Hawk helicopters supported local and regional firefighting efforts to save Medora by distributing water via 600-gallon water buckets.
- Local, tribal, state and federal agencies responded to two large wildfires from April 30 to May 2. The Roosevelt Creek Fire in the Little Missouri National Grassland, north of Medora, burned more than 4,600 acres, while another fire on the Fort Berthold Reservation, about six miles south of Mandaree, burned an estimated 9,800 acres.
- Total Army National Guard support, including to Mandaree, involved distributing over 100,000 gallons of water and eight Guard members working with the North Dakota Forest Service on the ground.

- As of Dec. 2, North Dakota had experienced more than 2,400 fires burning over 125,600 acres in 2021.
- As proposed in Accelerate ND, Burgum signed legislation providing funding to convert abandoned oil wells to permanent freshwater supply wells to enhance resiliency against drought conditions in western North Dakota. Itâ€™s estimated the $3.2 million appropriation will support the conversion of up to 16 wells.
- While serving and protecting citizens at home, DES also coordinated and resourced firefighting teams to provide aid to another state. A group of 15 firefighters from the Williston, Williston Rural, Bismarck Rural and Dickinson fire departments spent two weeks supporting Hurricane Ida recovery efforts in September along the Gulf Coast. This was after Burgum approved an Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) request from the state of Louisiana, allowing North Dakotaâ€™s firefighters to assist with fire suppression missions there.

COVID-19 pandemic response

- Since January 2021, more than 900,000 doses of the COVID-19 vaccine have been administered in North Dakota. The percentage of adults in the state with at least one dose is 60.7%, and more than 83% of those over age 65 have started their vaccine series.
- The North Dakota Department of Health (NDDoH) State Laboratory processed more than 682,497 tests, and its hotline responded to more than 93,000 citizen calls and 4,100 emails. The NDDoH developed the North Dakota COVID-19 Impact Wall to connect North Dakotans impacted by the disease.
- The NDDoH developed and updated communication channels for citizens, including website dashboards for COVID-19 cases and vaccine distribution, so citizens could quickly access data to make informed decisions about their health. The COVID-19 cases dashboard had more than 2 million page views this year, and the COVID-19 vaccine dashboard had more than 400,000 page views in this time frame.
- The pandemic has the North Dakota National Guard serving its longest domestic response in history â€“ 638 days and nearly 128,000 personnel days as of Monday. Guard members have administered testing, facilitated over 103,000 doses of vaccine, conducted traffic control, partnered with local and tribal health organizations, and transported test samples to the state lab, among other duties.
- The DES has coordinated the obligation of more than $126 million through the Federal Emergency Management Agencyâ€™s Public Assistance Program. The agency assisted eligible local, state, tribal and nonprofit organizations in submitting applications to reimburse costs for medical care, testing and vaccinations, as well as costs required to perform safe opening and operations.
- Job Service North Dakota provided vital economic support to the unemployed by injecting over $1.2 billion into the economy since the start of the pandemic. In a typical year, Job Service will pay between $80 million to $90 million to recipients during times of economic downturns, but payments to unemployed recipients in 2021 alone had already reached $362 million by early December.
- Security and medical team members from the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (DCR) have cared for more than 950 residents diagnosed with COVID-19 at facilities across the state. Partnering with the NDDoH, DOCR team members offered extensive testing and monoclonal antibody treatments to provide excellent care on-site to prevent serious illness. Very few COVID-positive residents required hospitalization, minimizing the impact on already strained community medical resources.
- The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) helped develop the executive proposal for over $1 billion in federal American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) investments, managed the distribution of over $25 million in ARPA funding to North Dakota cities, and managed the stateâ€™s reporting requirements for $1.25 billion in federal Coronavirus Relief Funds.
- Recognizing how employers play an essential role in healthy, vibrant communities, Job Service worked with policymakers to ensure that the Unemployment Insurance (UI) Trust Fund remained healthy and that employers were held harmless for UI benefit charges to their employees during 2020. As importantly, the steps taken ensured there were no unemployment tax rate increases for employers in 2021. By utilizing federal Cares Act dollars to strengthen the UI Trust Fund, it positioned the UI program to again hold rates flat in the upcoming 2022 calendar year.

In addition to addressing drought and COVID challenges, the administration continued to make progress on the governorâ€™s five strategic initiatives: Main Street Initiative, Behavioral Health and Addiction, Tribal Engagement, Transforming Education and Reinvesting Government.

Main Street Initiative

- The Department of Commerce worked to increase infill and reduce property taxes by updating Renaissance Zones and working across state agencies to successfully stack and align state programs for mixed use and infill.
- North Dakota was one of only six states selected for the second phase of the National Governors Associationâ€™s Workforce Innovation Networks, in which states will deploy cross-agency teams to identify and implement strategies that advance digital skill development and more equitable economic participation.
- Commerceâ€™s Workforce Division is implementing systematic changes with $20 million allocated to improve talent attraction efforts. One strategy launched in 2021 involves a national project with RoleCall to address workforce needs by helping to make North Dakota a national leader in talent attraction innovation and action.
- The Main Street ND Summit, held in West Fargo this year, featured a lineup of renowned speakers and community innovators on the topic of smart, efficient infrastructure. Videos of the keynotes, breakout sessions and Main Street Awards can be viewed here.

Body

- Due to the many workforce challenges facing North Dakota, Job Service took a strategic, targeted approach to a statewide campaign called #JOBUPND. The campaign utilized several online ad platforms generating over 3 million impressions with a 75% view rate.
- Smart, efficient infrastructure is a pillar of the Main Street Initiative, and infrastructure is vital to North Dakota's economy, commerce, agriculture, tourism and families. In 2021, the state of North Dakota made an unprecedented $2.3 billion dollar investment in infrastructure.
- Recognizing the key role that parks play in creating healthy, vibrant communities, lawmakers approved and Burgum signed legislation during the special session investing $17.9 million in deferred maintenance and capital improvements at state parks, plus $5 million in matching funds to renovate and upgrade existing facilities in local park districts. The Legislature last spring also created a Challenge Grant for the Parks and Recreation Department to drive investment from the private and public sectors for parks.
- Commerce, Job Service and the DOCR worked together on The Last Mile, a collaborative effort to provide instruction on front- and back-end website design to enable DOCR residents to be workforce ready in a highly technical field of coding and website design.
- The Department of Water Resources' Cost-Share Program continued to advance critical water supply infrastructure in all areas of the state. For municipal water supply projects, $19.7 million was approved to benefit over 15,000 water users in communities of all sizes. Rural water systems received over $8 million for system expansions and improvements that will benefit over 20,000 water users.
- The larger regional water supply systems, including the Western Area Water Supply, Red River Valley Water Supply, Southwest Pipeline Project, and Northwest Area Water Supply were approved for $93.6 million in state funding, and $20.4 million in federal Municipal, Rural and Industrial Water Supply Program funding. Combined, these four regional water supply systems will one day provide water service to 73% of North Dakota's population.

Behavioral Health and Addiction

- More than 650 in-person attendees and over 3,000 online viewers participated in the fifth Recovery Reinvented, a daylong event in Bismarck focused on reinventing recovery through eliminating the stigma of addiction. The governor and First Lady Kathryn Burgum shared the results of the statewide North Dakota Addressing Addiction survey, which found stigma has been reduced over the last three years.
- The Department of Human Services completed statewide implementation of a behavioral health crisis services response system that includes crisis line, mobile response and walk-in services at its eight human service centers. At the Life Skills and Transition Center in Graton, the system was expanded with a specialized team who respond to people with developmental and intellectual disabilities in crisis so they can continue to live successfully in their communities. Crisis response services de-escalate situations and prevent law enforcement involvement and unnecessary emergency room visits.
- Building on the success of the Free Through Recovery program, Human Services launched the Community Connect program, which provides community-based behavioral health services designed to assist individuals with care coordination, peer support and recovery services.
- Human Services also implemented a Medicaid 1915(i) state plan amendment, which allows North Dakota Medicaid to pay for additional in-home and community-based services to support individuals with behavioral health conditions. Services include care coordination, benefits planning, nonmedical transportation, respite, supported education, supported employment, housing and peer support.
- The DOCR partnered with Restoring Promise, an initiative of the Vera Institute of Justice, and MILPA, to create a housing unit at the State Penitentiary grounded in dignity for young adults in prison. Restoring Promise helps transform correctional culture through training, presentations, workshops and healing circles - setting a new tone for the entire system. Young adults participate in meaningful daily activities, experience healing, cultivate an ideology of self-determination and restore relationships with family and community. Mentors over the age of 25 support them in their personal growth, and staff undergo intensive training to become agents of change within the system.
- The Highway Patrol created a two-member crash assistance program that will provide enhanced services to victims of crashes, including providing information about understanding grief; reducing stress reactions after trauma; tools to process reactions to crisis and trauma; and information to support children as they process grief and trauma.

Tribal Engagement

- The North Dakota National Guard finished signing memorandums of agreement with all five tribal colleges in North Dakota to make the State Tuition Assistance program available to qualified student service members attending college.
- Burgum signed legislation providing a framework for the state and the Mandan, Hidatsa and Anikara (MHA) Nation to share tax revenue from oil wells that straddle the boundary of the Fort Berthold Reservation, settling an unresolved issue from the state's historic 2019 tax agreement with the MHA Nation.
- The North Dakota Highway Patrol entered an agreement with the MHA Nation to enhance emergency response on the Fort Berthold Reservation. The agreement, signed by Burgum and MHA Chairman Mark Fox, allows the closest available peace officer to respond to an emergency call for service until the agency with primary jurisdiction arrives and assumes the lead. The agreement to allow mutual aid across reservation boundaries was made possible by legislation signed in 2019 and 2021.
- Burgum also signed legislation to allow NDOT to enter into agreements with tribes and other government entities to assist with cybersecurity incident response, and to allow NDOT to enter into agreements with tribal governments to assist with federally funded safety improvement projects on tribal-owned highways, streets, roads and bridges.
- The Highway Patrol created and implemented a five-member criminal interdiction team that focuses on drug and human trafficking and other criminal activity occurring on roadways in the state. The team is tasked with working closely with tribal law enforcement to intercept illegal substances destined for North Dakota reservations.

- A pilot program that aims to ensure all justice-involved, at-risk tribal and non-tribal youth have access to similar services was extended for two years.

Transforming Education

- Burgum signed three pathways to graduation legislation that capped a four-year collaborative effort to pave the way for authentic learning and flexibility in pathways for North Dakota students to achieve graduation. Creating personalized graduation pathways to complement the traditional credit-hour K-12 education system was the No. 1 recommendation from the Governor's Innovative Education Task Force created through executive order in 2017.
- Burgum proposed and ultimately signed legislation providing $38 million to Bismarck State College to create the state's first polytechnic institution. This new approach to higher education will equip students with the skills needed to fill in-demand careers throughout the state.
- The North Dakota Information Technology (NDIT) Cybersecurity Team enhanced IT security services for the K-12 education community as part of the IT Shared Services/Unification Initiative. This increased cybersecurity posture for the K-12 community sets the stage for better response planning and defense, and better security around school and student data. NDIT also expanded Extended Detection Response in schools, added protection to 10,000 Chromebooks, and provided Security User Awareness training to over 2,500 users.
- NDIT also enabled a 24-hour service desk supported by live agents for all state agencies and school districts. In the past year, NDIT has processed an average of 12,000 incidents per month. By offering around-the-clock support, NDIT is better equipped to handle support queries more quickly while improving customer service and creating long-lasting relationships.

Reinventing Government

- The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) increased driver's license and motor vehicle kiosks to 52 locations across North Dakota. Citizens are now able to print their motor vehicle tabs, renew or request a replacement license or ID card, schedule a road test, pay a reinstatement fee, change their address and edit donor registry information without visiting an office. The department also increased online appointments and reduced customer wait times for driver's license and motor vehicle services from nearly 30 minutes to less than 10 minutes.
- The NDDOT also launched driver's license online knowledge tests, allowing North Dakotans an easy and convenient way to get their learner's permit 24/7 from anywhere with internet access.
- The Highway Patrol's unmanned aircraft systems (UAS) program became fully active in 2021 following several months of planning and officer training. The UAS program will provide enhanced crash reconstruction services and allow officers to assess dangerous incidents from a safe distance, such as fire hot spots, unknown package identification or quickly locating missing or dangerous individuals in rough terrain.
- The DES completed a new streamlined system to provide a one-stop shop for energy industry producers, transporters and developers, as well as the public, to report hazardous material spills and releases instead of reporting spills to multiple state agencies. The reporting system, available at www.spill.nd.gov or by calling 1-833-995PILL (1-833-997-7455), was supported by the Department of Environmental Quality, Department of Agriculture and the Industrial Commission's Oil and Gas Division.
- Wildfire response by the DES led to some dramatic improvements leveraging technology. One of those innovations was a GPS-configured wildland fire dashboard that provided leaders, planners and firefighters with better situational awareness. It was the first time data could be compiled through reports from local emergency managers and 9-1-1 calls, as well as historical data from the Integrated Reporting of Wildland-Fire Information (IRWIN) system used by fire departments.
- The DES also initiated a program to augment the state's firefighting capabilities and resources by creating a wildland task force for the state. The task force concept was adopted to allow local fire departments the ability to respond outside their jurisdictions, if needed. Departments that volunteer will coordinate directly with the Forest Service to preposition personnel and equipment for potential state wildfire suppression missions.
- The North Dakota Game and Fish Department became the first state in the nation to allow electronic posting of private land with the passage of Senate Bill 2144. The bill gives landowners and hunters alike a convenient option for posting private land and checking its status for hunting, while also leaving the traditional physical posting process in place for those who wish to continue using it.
- The Department of Human Services implemented the Safety Framework Practice model, which redesigned in-home child and family support services and foster care services to increase the number of children remaining safely in their homes.
- Human Services also launched statewide centralized intake for child abuse and neglect reporting in January 2021. Overall, the number of children living in foster care has decreased in 2021. Efforts are underway to continue shifting resources to in-home services to support children and their families together.
- The pandemic's challenges provided an opportunity for Job Service to reinvent how it ensures benefits are getting to those who need it and not to identity thieves and criminal enterprises. By implementing an industry-leading ID proofing/verification service and by expanding utilization of fraud detection data analytics, Job Service prevented over 8,000 fraudulent claims, which could have resulted in over $150 million in fraudulent payments.

- Workforce Safety & Insurance (WSI) successfully deployed upgrades to its myWSI and CAPS systems, providing better customer experience for internal and external customers through automation of manual tasks and online accessibility.
- The Department of Water Resources expanded the utility and functionality of PRESENS (Pushing Remote SENSors), a real-time water level monitoring program. The program now has a much broader range of data collection opportunities to include soil moisture, soil temperature and precipitation measurements. This real-time data will assist with water management into the future and will be used for modeling efforts and analysis. The department deployed more than 220 PRESENS units at peak operation, and aims to grow that number to around 1,000 units in the coming years.
- The Securities Department completed two significant technology projects designed to improve efficiency and the service experience for constituents. A new case management system facilitates the timely, effective and impactful execution of examinations and investigations to support the department's mission of protecting investors. And the new ND Securities Filing Portal delivers a fully electronic filing experience for issuers of securities and other filers, while completing the department's conversion to electronic systems for all securities and investment industry filings, which totaled approximately 148,000 in the last fiscal year.
- Five state agencies – the NDDOT, Department of Water Resources, Department of Environmental Quality, Public Finance Authority and Bank of North Dakota – collaborated to create Funding for Infrastructure in North Dakota (FIND), a central hub for local governments to apply for infrastructure funding. With five different infrastructure funding programs in the state, knowing which fund to apply for and completing multiple applications was a strain for city and county staff, but FIND provides a one-stop shop for applications. The site was gradually rolled out starting in June and has already received 13 applications.

Citizen-focused agencies make progress

In addition, state agencies worked hard to deliver core services and improve outcomes in many areas:

- Human Services launched a new early childhood division to focus resources on school readiness, strong, stable families; and quality early childhood experiences. To date, the division has awarded federal grant dollars to 713 North Dakota child care programs for financial stabilization.
- Human Services worked with housing partners to implement the new, more comprehensive ND Rent Help program to support housing stability and financial stability and promote strong, stable families. In 2021, 1,295 renter households received emergency rent or utility assistance from ND Rent Help, and 1,095 unique housing providers and utility providers received direct payments from the program. Total assistance disbursed through Nov. 30, 2021, was $13,428,408.
- Human Services improved access to in-home and community-based long-term support services so that older adults and adults with physical disabilities who qualify for skilled nursing care can live at home if they choose. North Dakotans can easily apply online or by phone through the Aging and Disability Resource LINK (ADRL) to get connected to in-home services.
- Human Service provided all Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) households with the maximum benefit amount for households their size. During 2021, approximately 17,800 North Dakota households benefited each month during the COVID-19 public health emergency.
- During the 67th Legislative Assembly, Burjom signed a bill to redesign the way nursing homes are paid by North Dakota Medicaid. Under this new payment system, nursing homes will be incentivized to provide cost-effective care and to renovate rather than build facilities. The new payment system will reduce overall expenses in the future, making it advantageous to taxpayers as well.
- In January 2021, Human Services assumed administration and operation of resettlement support services from contracted vendor Lutheran Social Services of North Dakota. Services help individuals adjust to life in North Dakota and become self-sufficient. The goal is to see New Americans accepted, integrated and supported as they add value to North Dakota and enrich the culture of their new communities. In 2021, 35 refugees resettled in North Dakota.
- The statewide cancer registry maintained by the NDDoH was recognized by the CDC as a Registry of Excellence for the period December 2020 through November 2021. Women's Way screened 284 people for breast and/or cervical cancer. The program provides these important services to more than 70 women per month.
- The Women, Infants & Children (WIC) Program provided healthy food and support to more than 15,000 North Dakotans. The oral health program distributed 47,000 toothbrushes to 188 schools; 14 workplaces were designated as infant friendly, benefiting 3,821 employees, and the child passenger safety program launched new interactive mats and certified 67 technicians.
- The NDDoH distributed 1,560 state-of-the-art automated external defibrillators (AEDs) to law enforcement via a partnership with the Helmsley Charitable Trust. One of these AEDs was successfully deployed in August 2021 in Grand Forks and helped save a life.
- OMB launched Team ND Connect, a statewide intranet available to all state team members, and delivered Leadership Everywhere training to over 1,500 Team ND members. The agency also led a statewide change management initiative, launched a new website on the statewide platform and centralized certain printing and procurement services.
- Parks and Recreation began offering a new option for North Dakota State park annual permit holders. The family permit, authorized by the 67th Legislative Assembly, allows members of the same household to buy two annual permits at a discounted price of $55.
- The NDDOT finalized the long-range transportation plan, Transportation Connection. The 25-year plan helps identify future transportation needs in the state.
- The NDDOT and Parks and Recreation partnered to replace and install various signs to promote recreational opportunities across the state. The project is designed to increase visibility of state parks and help guide visitors to parks and recreational areas.
- Parks and Recreation also partnered with the State Historical Society to offer the North Dakota

NEAR THE RIO GRANDE, TEXAS (DEC. 15, 2021) – Gov. Doug Burgum and the North Dakota National Guard’s adjutant general, Maj. Gen. Al Dohrmann, today visited the 125 soldiers from the Bismarck-based 957th Engineer Company serving along the U.S.-Mexico border in Texas, getting a first-hand look at their border mission and thanking them for their service in support of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

The multi-role bridge unit was mobilized in October as requested by the U.S. Army through the National Guard Bureau to continue the southwest border military mission that began in 2018. They are expected to be deployed for approximately one year.

“These highly trained North Dakota National Guard soldiers are serving a critically important role in support of U.S. border security efforts along the southwest border,” said Burgum, who serves as commander-in-chief of the North Dakota National Guard. “From the southwest border to our shared northern border with Canada, border security affects every state in the nation, from ensuring the safe and efficient flow of goods and services to stopping illegal immigration and drug and human trafficking. We’re deeply grateful to our North Dakota soldiers for doing their part with courage and professionalism to support the efforts to end the humanitarian crisis and secure the southwest border.”

While at the border, Burgum and Dohrmann received briefings from CBP and Guard officials and met with the soldiers and command team from the 957th to understand first-hand the ground truth of the record number of illegal crossings into the United States.

“I couldn’t be more proud of the professionalism I saw within our soldiers during the visit down here,” Dohrmann said. “I also gained a greater appreciation for the enormous challenge that Customs and Border Protection is facing down here, and really gained an appreciation for the work they do, the professionalism of that organization. I’m proud and humbled that the North Dakota National Guard can be part of the solution.”

At nearly 2,000 miles long, the southwest border is the most frequently crossed international border in the world, with approximately 350 million documented crossings annually. More than 1.6 million migrants have been apprehended trying to cross the border illegally since January 2021. October data from CBP reported a record 164,303 apprehensions, a record for the month.

In the two months the 957th has been deployed at the border, members through their surveillance

For the year ending Sept. 30, CBP officials recorded nearly 260,000 encounters with migrants attempting to cross the border illegally, compared with 40,000 the previous year in the 957th's operating sector. Burgum was among 26 Republican governors who sent President Biden a letter in September requesting a meeting with the president to discuss the ongoing crisis at the border. The request has not been granted. Created in 1987, the 957th has a rich history of mobilizations and has been extremely active the last 20 years, with several key deployments including Iraq in 2003-2004, Kosovo in 2009-2010 and Kuwait in 2019-2020. The unit also contributed to North Dakota's historic statewide flood fight in 2011. Due to security concerns, the military requested that the location of the 957th not be publicized. — # # # — - Photo cutlines Border photo 1: Gov. BISMARCK, N.D. (DEC. 17, 2021) – Gov. Doug Burgum released the following statement after North Dakota Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem announced today he will not seek re-election in 2022. Stenehjem is the longest-serving attorney general in North Dakota history, having held the position for 21 years. He was elected as the state’s 29th attorney general in 2000 and was re-elected in 2004, 2006, 2010, 2014 and 2018. Stenehjem also served in the North Dakota Legislature for 24 years, including four years in the House and 20 years in the Senate, where he was chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee from 1995-2000.

“Wayne Stenehjem is the epitome of a dedicated public servant. We are deeply grateful for his more than four decades of exemplary service to the State of North Dakota, both as a legislator and attorney general, a position he held longer than his three predecessors combined,” Burgum said. “As the state’s top law enforcement officer for more than 20 years, Wayne’s chief concern has always been the safety and well-being of North Dakota citizens, and our state is a better place because of his devoted service. We very much look forward to partnering with him on important initiatives during his remaining time in office to keep our state moving forward.”

BISMARCK, N.D. (JAN. 6, 2022) – Gov. Doug Burgum released the following statement today after the sale of Coal Creek Station to Rainbow Energy Center LLC cleared its final regulatory hurdle. The Minnesota Public Utilities Commission today unanimously approved the transfer of Coal Creek Station's high-voltage direct current transmission line from Great River Energy (GRE) to Nexus Line LLC, a subsidiary of Rainbow Energy Center LLC. Rainbow Energy Center and Nexus Line are both affiliates of Bismarck-based Rainbow Energy Marketing Corp.

"This approval is a momentous step toward Rainbow Energy taking ownership of Coal Creek Station and providing a long-term future for the power plant, its workers and the communities supported by the hundreds of jobs at Coal Creek and the nearby Falkirk Mine," Burgum said. "It also offers North Dakota the opportunity to further prove that we can be a national and world leader in carbon capture, storage and utilization through our continued focus on innovation over regulation. Preserving the baseload generation that Coal Creek provides is critical to U.S. energy security and maintaining a strong regional power grid, and we're grateful to the industry, the state Legislature and our congressional delegation for their collaboration on ensuring a viable future for North Dakota's abundant lignite coal."

Burgum and Lt. Gov. Brent Sanford began working with GRE to facilitate a sale of Coal Creek Station to a third party operator even before GRE announced in May 2020 its plans to close the 1,151-megawatt generating plant in Underwood during the second half of 2022. Burgum announced on March 25, 2021, that GRE was in exclusive negotiations to sell Coal Creek Station and GRE's high-voltage, direct current transmission system that extends between central North Dakota and Minnesota. The pending sale to Rainbow Energy Center and Nexus Line was announced June 30.

In July, GRE's member cooperatives approved a related purchase power agreement under which GRE will buy 1,050 megawatts of power from Rainbow Energy Center for approximately two years, followed by 300 megawatts for approximately eight years.

Burgum signed several bills during this year's legislative session that will support the lignite industry as it continues to innovate for the future and supply reliable, low-cost electricity for residents and businesses in North Dakota and beyond. Those bills included:

- House Bill 1412, which exempts coal plants from the state's coal conversion facility tax for the next five years. The bill is expected to save the industry over $20 million per year, freeing up funds to invest in innovative projects such as carbon capture and sequestration that will curb emissions and improve the industry's long-term viability.
- Senate Bill 2152, which provides a sales tax exemption for carbon dioxide used for secure geologic storage.
- SB 2206, which allows utilities to recover costs for carbon capture.

Burgum and Sanford have promoted an all-of-the-above energy approach based on "innovation, not regulation" to advance energy development with environmental stewardship. Under the Burgum-Sanford administration, in 2018 North Dakota became the first state in the nation to receive approval from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to regulate geologic storage of carbon dioxide, which presents a huge economic opportunity for both the lignite industry and the oil industry through enhanced oil recovery.

(JAN. 13, 2022) – Gov. Doug Burgum released the following statement today after the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Biden administration did not have authority to impose a vaccine mandate on private businesses with 100 or more employees. “Today’s ruling reaffirms what we’ve said from the beginning: This misguided vaccine mandate was blatant federal overreach by the Biden administration,” Burgum said. “Vaccines and boosters remain the best defense against COVID-19 severe illness, hospitalization and death and are readily available to all North Dakota residents, and we encourage those who haven’t been vaccinated to consult with their trusted medical provider.” The Supreme Court upheld 5-4 a separate vaccine mandate on employers who receive funding through federal Medicare or Medicaid programs, affecting an estimated 17 million health care workers. Burgum expressed his disappointment that hospitals and long-term care facilities won’t be allowed to make their own vaccine decisions as private employers.

(JAN. 26, 2022) – Gov. Doug Burgum today announced the construction of one of the largest data centers in the world near Williston as North Dakota continues to emerge as a hub for high-performance computing, including cryptocurrency mining. The Atlas Power Data Center being built by FX Solutions Inc. is part of a $1.9 billion, multiyear project that will require more than 100 workers during the two-year construction period and create more than 30 permanent jobs, according to Richard Tabish, president of Missoula, Mont.-based FX Solutions. Atlas Power, an operator of high-density facilities serving cryptocurrency mining and high-performance computing utilizing alternative power generation, will own and operate the data center following its completion. Burgum announced the project at a press conference with Tabish and Kevin Washington, founder and President of Atlas Power, which currently operates a 75-megawatt data center in Butte, Mont. "This major investment in North Dakota will further cement our state's growing reputation as a hub for data centers and cryptocurrency mining, thanks to our incredibly reliable, affordable and redundant power supply and a climate that lowers cooling costs for data center operations," Burgum said. "With our all-of-the-above energy approach and nation-leading efforts in carbon capture, utilization and storage, we are well-positioned to support data centers and other energy-intensive industries with environmental stewardship while attracting high-paying jobs and diversifying our economy." The first phase of the project will consist of 16 buildings, each 350 feet long by 30 feet wide, to house tens of thousands of servers that will conduct high-performance computing using 240 megawatts of electricity. Phases 2 and 3 call for expanding to 500 megawatts and then 700 megawatts, adding additional buildings and servers. "We're thrilled to partner with Governor Burgum, FX Solutions and Mountrail-Williams Electric Cooperative to announce the construction of Atlas Power's second facility," Washington said. "Building on the success of our Butte, Montana location, Phase One of the Williston site alone will become Atlas's largest center of operations, while also ensuring we draw on a diversified mix of alternative power sources. As a company with strong Mountain West roots, we applaud the Governor's efforts to support the growth of North Dakota's crypto sector and are pleased to bring new tech-sector jobs to the region." "North Dakota is going to be a true leader worldwide in this industry," Tabish said. "Our ability to energize and build this project is creating a speed to market never seen before in this space. I have had the pleasure of witnessing the progressive development in this region with our construction and consulting division in Mountrail and Williams counties, and the support this project has received from MWEC and myriad local and state leaders is paramount. I am extremely happy to be back in North Dakota, adding to the forward thinking that Gov. Burgum has been implementing to buttress the already robust business culture." Sitework for the first phase of the project started earlier this month on a 77-acre site west of Williston. A 100-by-400-foot inflatable dome will be erected to allow for construction through the winter months. Mountrail-Williams Electric Cooperative will supply power to the data center, with the ability to supply the quantity of electricity required for the facility from multiple sources to support 24/7 operations. An electrical substation is already built near the data center with available capacity. "Our new data center member has great expectations of MWEC, and we are prepared and committed to their success and to our community," MWEC General Manager Dale Haugen said. - * * * - CONTACT: Mike Nowatzki mnowatzki@nd.gov 701.328.2424 Mike Kennedy mikakennedy@nd.gov 701.328.2937 600 E Boulevard Ave. Bismarck ND 58505-0001 Phone: 701.328.2200

Body	 NEWS: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE <h3>Burgum appoints Pat Bertagnolli to lead Job Service North Dakota as executive director</h3> VIEW THIS RELEASE ONLINE: governor.nd.gov BISMARCK, N.D. (JAN. 28, 2022) – Gov. Doug Burgum today announced he has appointed Pat Bertagnolli of Watford City to serve as executive director of Job Service North Dakota, effective Feb. 21, citing his extensive background in workforce recruitment, his experience in both the public and private sectors and his service on the state’s Workforce Development Council. Bertagnolli (BERT-n-Oh-lee) has served as director of the Rough Rider Center and community enhancement in Watford City since December 2019. He previously served as vice president of human resources for MBI Energy Services and has held human resources management positions at several other energy-related businesses in the Watford City and Williston areas since 2011. Prior to that he had a 22-year career with UPS serving in multiple capacities, most notably as a multistate operations manager and workforce planning and employee relations manager. “Having spent much of the last decade recruiting and retaining workers in the fastest-growing area of the country, Pat Bertagnolli has the right experience to lead Job Service North Dakota as we tackle our state’s significant workforce challenge – our No. 1 barrier to economic growth,” Burgum said. “We are deeply grateful for Pat’s service on the Workforce Development Council these past eight years and look forward to his leadership at Job Service in connecting jobseekers with employers and removing barriers to employment.” Bertagnolli earned his bachelor’s degree in business administration in 1990 from Carroll College in Helena, Mont., and a Senior Certified Professional credential from the Society for Human Resource Management in 2015. He currently serves on the TrainND Northwest Advisory Board and on Williston State College’s nursing advisory board. He has served on the state’s Workforce Development Council for eight years, having been first appointed by then-Gov. Jack Dalrymple in 2014 and reappointed by Burgum in 2016, and is a former president of the Watford City Area Chamber of Commerce. “I’m thankful to have had a front row seat to the greatest growth in the nation as referenced in results of the 2020 Census, and Job Service North Dakota has been a key partner in that growth,” Bertagnolli said. “I look forward to working alongside this amazing team in a more formal capacity to help facilitate statewide collaboration and alignment to support our state’s recruiting and retention efforts. I’m grateful to Gov. Burgum for this incredible opportunity to serve the great people of North Dakota.” Burgum expressed his gratitude to North Dakota Workforce Safety &amp; Insurance (WSI) Director Bryan Klipfel, who has served as interim executive director of JSND since 2019 and will return to leading WSI full time. Job Service North Dakota has 156 full-time team members, 66 temporary employees and a biennial budget of $65.4 million to manage multiple federal grants for workforce and unemployment services. The agency has nine workforce centers across the state staffed with regional workforce experts to remove barriers to employment and to connect employers and job seekers by building partnerships within local communities with employers, schools, local economic development associations and chambers. Unemployment Insurance services are carried out at the central office location in Bismarck. Through this program, the agency stabilizes the workforce and economy by providing income replacement to eligible workers. The agency also provides education and labor market information to businesses and job seekers to make informed decisions. - * * * - CONTACT: Mike Nowatzki  mnowatzki@nd.gov          701.328.2424 Mike Kennedy  mikekenady@nd.gov          701.328.2937 Sarah Arntson, Job Service  sararntson@nd.gov          701.328.3031 600 E Boulevard Ave.          Bismarck ND 58505-0001          PHONE: 701.328.2200

“It was an honor and a privilege to serve alongside Wayne on the North Dakota Industrial Commission and state Land Board. No matter how complex or contentious the issue, we all benefited from his incredible intellect, legal expertise and professionalism. He cared deeply about North Dakota and wanted only the best for its citizens. Kathryn and I extend our deepest condolences and prayers to Beth, Andrew and the entire Stenehjem family, his current and former colleagues from the Attorney General’s Office and Legislature, his friends throughout state government and the entire law enforcement community as we grieve this terrible loss.”

Burgum has directed all government agencies to fly the United States and North Dakota flags at half-staff until further notice and encourages North Dakotans to do the same at their homes and businesses, in honor of Stenehjem and his longtime service to the state.

I will share this afternoon. Happy to take edits too. We are just compiling our notes from talking to Directors and teachers. If you have someone who has more to add or has special expertise in speech development and early childhood ed then just adapt.

Subject: Re: ACI/OHS/HHS - Head Start Mandate

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a complaint. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others).

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed until next week so we are

Counsel
 Kentucky would be interested in knowing if anyone in this group may be considering litigation related to the recent Head Start Mandate. See Published rule, <https://public-inspection.federalregister.gov/2021-24369.pdf>
 If so, please let me know.
 Thank you.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as parens patriae, by and through Jason R. Ravnsborg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL §1-1-11-1(c).

Thanks,

David

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a complaint. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others).

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed until next week so we are

Counsel,
 Kentucky would be interested in knowing if anyone in this group may be considering litigation related to the recent Head Start Mandate. See Published rule, <https://public-inspection.federalregister.gov/2021-24869.pdf>
 If so, please let me know.
 Thank you.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as parvum potiorne, by and through Jason R. Ravensberg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL Å§1-11-1(2).

Thanks,

David

Subject: RE: ACF/OHS/HHS - Head Start Mandate

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a complaint. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others).

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed until next week so we are shooting for Tuesday of next week.

We welcome all joins.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as parens patriae, by and through Jason R. Ravensberg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL Å§1-11-1(2).

Thanks,

David

Subject: RE: ACF/OHS/HHS - Head Start Mandate

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a complaint. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others).

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed until next week so we are shooting for Tuesday of next week.

We welcome all joins.

I will send you a couple of model declarations. To the extent you have cooperative Head Start officials, it certainly helps. I will send you something later today that you can use and feel free to modify. It would help to know who you have that would sign. State officials say something a different from Program Directors and Teachers.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as parties pursuant to and through Jason R. Ramsberg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL A§1-11-1(2).

Thanks

David

Subject: RE: ACT/OHS/HHS - Head Start Mandate
 Louisiana is in the process of drafting a complaint. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others).

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed next week so we are shooting for Tuesday of next week.

We welcome all joiners.

I will send you a couple of model declarations. To the extent you have cooperative Head Start officials, it certainly helps. I will send you something later today that you can use and feel free to modify. It would help to know who you have that would sign. State officials say something a different from Program Directors and Teachers.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as set forth herein, by and through Jason R. Ramsberg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL A§1-11-1(2).

Thanks

David

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a complaint. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others).

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed next week so we are shooting for Tuesday of next week.

We welcome all joiners.

Elizabeth,
What kind of deadline do you have for declarations?

I will send you a couple of model declarations. To the extent you have cooperative Head Start officials, it certainly helps. I will send you something later today that you can use and feel free to modify. It would help to know who you have that would sign. State officials say something a different from Program Directors and Teachers.

If you need a declaration of some sort from North Dakota, we can get one.
Just let me know.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as parens patriae, by and through Jason R. Ravnsborg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL §11-11-1(2).

Thanks.

I will share this afternoon. Happy to take edits too. We are just compiling our notes from talking to Directors and teachers. If you have someone who has more to add or has special expertise in speech development and early childhood ed then just adapt.

Subject: RE: ACT/OHS/HHS - Head Start Mandate

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a compliant. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others)

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed until next week so we are shooting for Tuesday of next week.

We welcome all joiners

Elizabeth,
What kind of deadline do you have for declarations?

I will send you a couple of model declarations. To the extent you have cooperative Head Start officials, it certainly helps. I will send you something later today that you can use and feel free to modify. It would help to know who you have that would sign. State officials say something a different from Program Directors and Teachers.

If you need a declaration of some sort from North Dakota, we can get one.
Just let me know.

Elizabeth,

The State of South Dakota is a body politic created by the Constitution and laws of the State; as such, it is not a citizen of any state. This action is brought by the State in its sovereign capacity in order to protect the interests of the State of South Dakota and its citizens as parens patriae, by and through Jason R. Ravnsborg, the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota. The Attorney General is acting pursuant to his authority to appear for the State and prosecute any civil matter in which the State is a party or interested when, in his judgment, the welfare of the State demands. SDCL §11-11-1(2).

Thanks.

I will share this afternoon. Happy to take edits too. We are just compiling our notes from talking to Directors and teachers. If you have someone who has more to add or has special expertise in speech development and early childhood ed then just adapt.

 Subject: RE: ACT/OHS/HHS - Head Start Mandate

Louisiana is in the process of drafting a compliant. We will have draft declarations available today. We have identified about 6 program directors willing to sign declarations (some more detailed than others)

We plan to file in the Western District of La, which at this point is where most if not all our declarations will come from. As a practical matter, I don't think we can get the Complaint and PI filed until next week so we are shooting for Tuesday of next week.

We welcome all joiners

I spoke with NFIB. They are happy to divide time, though we postponed the precise division until tomorrow.

I will plan on arguing this, absent any objections

All,

Here is a draft brief. We will do all we can to finalize and file shortly after midnight.

Having reviewed the Sixth Circuit opinion, I think it is a gift.

All,

Here is a draft brief. We will do all we can to finalize and file shortly after midnight.

Having reviewed the Sixth Circuit opinion, I think it is a gift.

A reminder that we extended our join date for this amicus brief in support of Arizona's motion to dismiss claims of election-law discrimination. Please let me know by noon tomorrow if you'd like to join our efforts. Thanks.

Subject: RE: Draft States Amicus Brief - Mi Familia Vota v. Hobbs

Happy Friday everyone. We've decided to push our amicus filing until next week Tuesday to give everyone more time to join. So please let us know if you'd like to join by Tuesday, January 25 at noon. To recap the brief - voting-rights plaintiffs shouldn't be allowed to take insufficient section 2 results allegations and just claim "discriminatory purpose" in order to survive a motion to dismiss. We'd like to make a strong showing in support of Arizona on this one, so let me know if you have any questions or concerns about the brief. Thanks!

Beth

Plaintiffs have not brought a section 2 results claim, but only a discriminatory-purpose claim and an undue-burden claim. Now I see she is on leave until the day I retire. I expect a call from someone regarding my concerns listed below before I retire. All of you have been very good at ignoring my issues and the issues of many, many other staff within the Dept of Human Services hoping they will quietly disappear. I know you are all very aware of the issues and chalking the way you are treating state employees, that have years of service, with never any complaint about their work, under the guise of "restructure" is inhumane or worse. If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem as the saying goes. Wayne, as a prior next door neighbor of yours in Grand Forks, I am including you in this email. I wonder if you have any idea what has been going on in the Department of Human Services for the past while and all the staff that are quitting because of the way they (we) are being treated? I truly believe things need to be looked into very deeply....starting of course at the top. Becky Savaloja  Account Tech II From: Savaloja, Rebecca L.  Sent: Tuesday, January 4, 2022 8:56 AM  To: Wuitschick, Marcie D. &lt;mwuitschick@nd.gov&gt;  Cc: Alm, Jonathan E. &lt;jealm@nd.gov&gt;; Strebe, Arnold &lt;astrebe@nd.gov&gt;; Jones, Chris D. &lt;cdjones@nd.gov&gt;  Subject: RE: Question---are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email? Marcie— I have not heard from you regarding a time to verbally discuss. I understand that you are frustrated and I do want to assure that your questions are answered, even though your concerns go back further than 15 days. In order to look into what your questions are, discussion will need to be held with Jeff Stenseth and Donna Aukland. As you point out, the grievance process is a written process with specific time limits governed by Century Code and Administrative Rule. But that does not mean that issues cannot be resolved by other means. I would add that when reorganizations occur, certain processes are handled differently, but still are required to be follow State and Federal employment laws. This reorganization would be no different. I'm not sure when your last day of work is, but would you have any time next week or the following week to connect and we can verbally walk through your concerns? From: Savaloja, Rebecca L. &lt;rsavaloja@nd.gov&gt;  Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2021 9:30 AM  To: Wuitschick, Marcie D. &lt;mwuitschick@nd.gov&gt;  Cc: Alm, Jonathan E. &lt;jealm@nd.gov&gt;; Strebe, Arnold &lt;astrebe@nd.gov&gt;; Jones, Chris D. &lt;cdjones@nd.gov&gt;  Subject: RE: Question---are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email? Good Morning Marcie, I know from prior staff that grievances go nowhere and it almost always hurts the staff that files them. I did look at the grievance form and it said that it needed to be filed with 15 days of incident. I am questioning what happened long after 15 days has past and just want a few answers before I retire. I have included others in this email because they need to know what is going on if they are not aware already. I am not going to personally talk to Jeff Stenseth or Donna Aukland about this because I am afraid of what they would potentially do to me. In further clarification: I received verbal notification in a meeting (no written notice) from Lynn Bingham with Jeff Stenseth present and a few other staff that were also having some minor duties removed. Again, Lynn apologized for not giving me more notice but said he was instructed not to. I just left Lynn Bingham's office and asked Lynn who he received the instruction from as far as giving me no notice that all my duties were being taken away. He said it was Donna Aukland. He said Donna, in meetings, told all business managers not to say anything to staff until they met with staff the end of July. The meeting occurred at the very end of July and I was told I was losing almost all of accounts payable duties immediately. There was another staff or two in the office that were also losing a few duties but I was the only one losing 90 percent or more along with others in my position in the state. I'm sure this was due to statewide reorganization. That is not the problem or the question. In the meeting it was said that some of my duties, going forward, were going to be required to be done by the business managers and the remainder was being given to two office assistants in SEHSC. I immediately asked why these 2 staff were just given all of my duties other than what the business manager was to do. Lynn Bingham threw out the response that their office was bigger or something to that effect, which of course I knew had nothing to do with anything. Jeff Stenseth sat there and said nothing regarding that. My questions remain— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why didn't the two office assistants have to apply for the jobs they got working on accounts payable for the whole state? Jobs that were taken from others statewide and just given to them? Is it not policy that these positions should have been opened up for me or others to have applied for if we wished? That is a question that I believe you would have the answer to Marcie.</li> <li>• Why did I get such late notice that my job was disappearing. This, most likely, would be a question for Donna Aukland and Jeff Stenseth.</li> <li>• Donna Aukland said there would be other duties to replace the ones I lost but I was never given</li> </ul>

Body	anything? I do not know if my counterparts statewide were given new duties or not. Also please note that Lynn Bingham asked Donna several times, if I could help him out with duties given to him and Donna said No. I expect that Donna and Jeff will come up with excuses that in their minds they can justify. I however, think it is very sad what they, and possibly their superiors, are doing to so many employees within the state. Jeff Stenseth introduces himself at meetings as the person who they bring in to get rid of staff but that it is not true. I have heard him say this on more than one occasion as has everyone else here. You do not get a reputation for something that is not deserved so of course it is true. I am not certain that he was trying to get rid of me. I do think they were getting rid of my position but there has to be a better way of doing this other than devaluing people that have given many years of service to this state and offering them nothing in return as far as other duties, a buy out or whatever. There are many instances where staff have been treated so badly that they quit or retire but I can't and won't speak for others. All anyone has to do is look at the turnover to know this as a fact. I do want my questions answered and this brought out in the open so hopefully going forward a better process can be in place that treats employees with dignity and respect. Neither of which I feel I was afforded. This is the reason unions are formed to protect employees from being treated the way I have been treated. I have never been a union member or even thought there was a need for unions prior to this but I am, unfortunately, realizing that there is a need. Thank you Becky Savaloja <hr/> From: Wuitschick, Marcie D. &lt;mwuitschick@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Monday, December 20, 2021 4:33 PM To: Savaloja, Rebecca L. &lt;rsavaloja@nd.gov&gt; Subject: RE: Question---are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email? Hi Becky, Thank you for your email, as well as your patience as I have looked into this issue. Based on the information I've been able to ascertain, it appears there was a statewide reorganization that occurred which impacted many different positions. Unfortunately I don't have answers to your specific questions; however, I think it's important that you get them. I also want to assure that you are aware of the grievance policy and your rights under that policy. I am not sure if you are inferring that you wish to file a grievance, but regardless, you should receive an answer to the questions you have posed. Can you please confirm for me who you have received what notifications from? That will help me determine next steps. My initial thought is that Jeff Stenseth should be able to answer some of your questions, as he is the senior leader within your chain of command, but I am not certain who you have already talked to or asked these questions of. Also, if you have received any notifications in writing please send those to me. Thank you, Becky, for the work that you do. That it was not only me but also my counterparts in the other human service centers in the state. I was told that part of my accounts payable duties and others that had the same position as me, were going to be done by the Business Managers and the rest of it was going to 2 office assistants at SEHSC who would take over the remainder of our duties statewide. I was told that this decision was made by Donna Aukland. I asked why those positions that were given to SEHSC staff were not posted internally for me or others to apply for and I did not receive an answer, even though Jeff Stenseth was in the meeting and would certainly know why his staff were just handed out duties. I was told that Donna would be giving us new job duties but there has been nothing so far and that the new duties would have nothing to do with anything that I had experience in. I am retiring in January (a little earlier than I intended because of this) and am very bitter that my 13 years with the state is ending this way. I know that the decisions that were made had nothing to do with my job performance because I was excellent in my position as everyone can attest to. What I would like from you is an explanation on how this can happen? How and why would I and others not have been able to at least apply for the job that was being taken away from us and just given to others with no notice? Is this a new direction the state is going in regards to how they treat state employees? Are you the person that can answer my questions or would it be legal or someone else? Your response will not change anything. I will retire in January but like I said, this has had an impact on my mental health and I feel that I am at least owed an explanation and should have asked for it months ago. Thank you Becky Savaloja Account Tech II Northeast Human Service Center

I have waited for Marcie to set a time to discuss concerns with me since December 22nd, as she suggested, with no response. Now I see she is on leave until the day I retire. I expect a call from someone regarding my concerns listed below before I retire. All of you have been very good at ignoring my issues and the issues of many, many other staff within the Dept of Human Services hoping they will quietly disappear. I know you are all very aware of the issues and chalking the way you are treating state employees, that have years of service, with never any complaint about their work, under the guise of "restructure" is inhumane or worse. If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem as the saying goes.

Wayne, as a prior next door neighbor of yours in Grand Forks, I am including you in this email. I wonder if you have any idea what has been going on in the Department of Human Services for the past while and all the staff that are quitting because of the way they [we] are being treated? I truly believe things need to be looked into very deeply....starting of course at the top.

Marcie—

I have not heard from you regarding a time to verbally discuss. Please talk to Donna and Jeff before we talk. If there is one thing I am certain of, it is that laws were broken in not posting the positions given to two Fargo staff for accounts payable entry statewide.

Things are in self destruct mode here at NDHSC which in the end will be good overall for anyone that ends of staying at NDHSC going forward. If anyone does stay.

Thank you for the response Becky. I understand that you are frustrated and I do want to assure that your questions are answered, even though your concerns go back farther than 15 days. In order to look into what your questions are, discussion will need to be held with Jeff Stenseth and Donna Aukland. As you point out, the grievance process is a written process with specific time limits governed by Century Code and Administrative Rule. But that does not mean that issues cannot be resolved by other means.

I would add that when reorganizations occur, certain processes are handled differently, but still are required to be follow State and Federal employment laws. This reorganization would be no different.

I'm not sure when your last day of work is, but would you have any time next week or the following week to connect and we can verbally walk through your concerns?

 Subject: RE: Question—are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email?

Good Morning Marcie,

I know from prior staff that grievances go nowhere and it almost always hurts the staff that files them. I did look at the grievance form and it said that it needed to be filed with 15 days of incident. I am questioning what happened long after 15 days has past and just want a few answers before I retire. I have included others in this email because they need to know what is going on if they are not aware already. I am not going to personally talk to Jeff Stenseth or Donna Aukland about this because I am afraid of what they would potentially do to me.

In further clarification:

I received verbal notification in a meeting (no written notice) from Lynn Bingham with Jeff Stenseth present and a few other staff that were also having some minor duties removed. Again, Lynn apologized for not giving me more notice but said he was instructed not to. I just left Lynn Bingham's office and asked Lynn who he received the instruction from as far as giving me no notice that all my duties were being taken away. He said it was Donna Aukland. He said Donna, in meetings, told all business managers not to say anything to staff until they met with staff the end of July. The meeting occurred at the very end of July and I was told I was losing almost all of accounts payable duties immediately. There was another staff or two in the office that were also losing a few duties but I was the only one losing 90 percent or more along with others in my position in the state. I'm sure this was due to statewide reorganization. That is not the problem or the question. In the meeting it was said that some of my duties, going forward, were going to be required to be done by the business managers and the remainder was being given to two office assistants in NDHSC. I immediately asked why these 2 staff were just given all of my duties other than what the business manager was to do. Lynn Bingham threw out the response that their office was bigger or something to that effect, which of course I knew had nothing to do with anything. Jeff Stenseth sat there and said nothing regarding that.

My questions remain—

- Why didn't the two office assistants have to apply for the jobs they got working on accounts payable for the whole state? Jobs that were taken from others statewide and just given to them? Is it not policy that these positions should have been opened up for me or others to have applied for if we wished? That is a question that I believe you would have the answer to Marcie.
- Why did I get such late notice that my job was disappearing. This, most likely, would be a question for Donna Aukland and Jeff Stenseth.
- Donna Aukland said there would be other duties to replace the ones I lost but I was never given

Body	anything? I do not know if my counterparts statewide were given new duties or not. Also please note that Lynn Bingham asked Donna several times, if I could help him out with duties given to him and Donna said No. I expect that Donna and Jeff will come up with excuses that in their minds they can justify. I however, think it is very sad what they, and possibly their superiors, are doing to so many employees within the state. Jeff Stenseth introduces himself at meetings as the person who they bring in to get rid of staff but that it is not true. I have heard him say this on more than one occasion as has everyone else here. You do not get a reputation for something that is not deserved so of course it is true. I am not certain that he was trying to get rid of me. I do think they were getting rid of my position but there has to be a better way of doing this other than devaluing people that have given many years of service to this state and offering them nothing in return as far as other duties, a buy out or whatever. There are many instances where staff have been treated so badly that they quit or retire but I can't and won't speak for others. All anyone has to do is look at the turnover to know this as a fact. I do want my questions answered and this brought out in the open so hopefully going forward a better process can be in place that treats employees with dignity and respect. Neither of which I feel I was afforded. This is the reason unions are formed to protect employees from being treated the way I have been treated. I have never been a union member or even thought there was a need for unions prior to this but I am, unfortunately, realizing that there is a need. Thank you Becky Savaloja <hr/> From: Wuitschick, Marcie D. &lt;mwuitschick@nd.gov&gt;  Sent: Monday, December 20, 2021 4:33 PM  To: Savaloja, Rebecca L. &lt;rsavaloja@nd.gov&gt;  Subject: RE: Question---are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email? Hi Becky, Thank you for your email, as well as your patience as I have looked into this issue. I have waited for Marcie to set a time to discuss concerns with me since December 22nd as she suggested, with no response. Now I see she is on leave until the day I retire. I expect a call from someone regarding my concerns listed below before I retire. All of you have been very good at ignoring my issues and the issues of many, many other staff within the Dept of Human Services hoping they will quietly disappear. I know you are all very aware of the issues and chalking the way you are treating state employees, that have years of service, with never any complaint about their work, under the guise of "restructure" is inhumane or worse. If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem as the saying goes.

Wayne, as a prior next door neighbor of yours in Grand Forks, I am including you in this email. I wonder if you have any idea what has been going on in the Department of Human Services for the past while and all the staff that are quitting because of the way they [we] are being treated? I truly believe things need to be looked into very deeply.....starting of course at the top.

Marcy—

I have not heard from you regarding a time to verbally discuss. Please talk to Donna and Jeff before we talk. If there is one thing I am certain of, it is that laws were broken in not posting the positions given to two Fargo staff for accounts payable entry statewide.

Things are in self destruct mode here at NEHSC which in the end will be good overall for anyone that ends of staying at NEHSC going forward. If anyone does stay.

Becky

Thank you for the response Becky. I understand that you are frustrated and I do want to assure that your questions are answered, even though your concerns go back further than 15 days. In order to look into what your questions are, discussion will need to be held with Jeff Stenseth and Donna Aukland. As you point out, the grievance process is a written process with specific time limits governed by Century Code and Administrative Rule. But that does not mean that issues cannot be resolved by other means.

I would add that when reorganizations occur, certain processes are handled differently, but still are required to be follow State and Federal employment laws. This reorganization would be no different.

I'm not sure when your last day of work is, but would you have any time next week or the following week to connect and we can verbally walk through your concerns?

Subject: RE: Question—are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email?

Good Morning Marcie,

I know from prior staff that grievances go nowhere and it almost always hurts the staff that files them. I did look at the grievance form and it said that it needed to be filed with 15 days of incident. I am questioning what happened long after 15 days has past and just want a few answers before I retire. I have included others in this email because they need to know what is going on if they are not aware already. I am not going to personally talk to Jeff Stenseth or Donna Aukland about this because I am afraid of what they would potentially do to me.

In further clarification:

I received verbal notification in a meeting (no written notice) from Lynn Bingham with Jeff Stenseth present and a few other staff that were also having some minor duties removed. Again, Lynn apologized for not giving me more notice but said he was instructed not to! I just left Lynn Bingham's office and asked Lynn who he received the instruction from as far as giving me no notice that all my duties were being taken away. He said it was Donna Aukland. He said Donna, in meetings, told all business managers not to say anything to staff until they met with staff the end of July. The meeting occurred at the very end of July and I was told I was losing almost all of accounts payable duties immediately. There was another staff or two in the office that were also losing a few duties but I was the only one losing 90 percent or more along with others in my position in the state. I'm sure this was due to statewide reorganization. That is not the problem or the question. In the meeting it was said that some of my duties, going forward, were going to be required to be done by the business managers and the remainder was being given to two office assistants in SEHSC. I immediately asked why these 2 staff were just given all of my duties other than what the business manager was to do. Lynn Bingham threw out the response that their office was bigger or something to that effect, which of course I knew had nothing to do with anything. Jeff Stenseth sat there and said nothing regarding that.

My questions remain—

- Why didn't the two office assistants have to apply for the jobs they got working on accounts payable for the whole state? Jobs that were taken from others statewide and just given to them? Is it not policy that these positions should have been opened up for me or others to have applied for if we wished?

Body	That is a question that I believe you would have the answer to Marcie. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why did I get such late notice that my job was disappearing. This, most likely, would be a question for Donna Aukland and Jeff Stenseth.</li> <li>• Donna Aukland said there would be other duties to replace the ones I lost but I was never given anything? I do not know if my counterparts statewide were given new duties or not. Also please note that Lynn Bingham asked Donna several times, if I could help him out with duties given to him and Donna said No.</li> </ul> I expect that Donna and Jeff will come up with excuses that in their minds they can justify. I however, think it is very sad what they, and possibly their superiors, are doing to so many employees within the state. Jeff Stenseth introduces himself at meetings as the person who they bring in to get rid of staff but that is not true. I have heard him say this on more than one occasion as has everyone else here. You do not get a reputation for something that is not deserved so of course it is true. I am not certain that he was trying to get rid of me. I do think they were getting rid of my position but there has to be a better way of doing this other than devaluing people that have given many years of service to this state and offering them nothing in return as far as other duties, a buy out or whatever. There are many instances where staff have been treated so badly that they quit or retire but I can't and won't speak for others. All anyone has to do is look at the turnover to know this as a fact. I do want my questions answered and this brought out in the open so hopefully going forward a better process can be in place that treats employees with dignity and respect. Neither of which I feel I was afforded. This is the reason unions are formed to protect employees from being treated the way I have been treated. I have never been a union member or even thought there was a need for unions prior to this but I am, unfortunately, realizing that there is a need. Thank you Becky Savaloja <hr/> From: Wultschick, Marcie D. &lt;mwultschick@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Monday, December 20, 2021 4:33 PM To: Savaloja, Rebecca L. &lt;rsavaloja@nd.gov&gt; Subject: RE: Question—are you going to reply or confirm receipt of below email? Hi Becky, Thank you for your email, as well as your patience as I have looked into this issue. Based on the information I've been able to ascertain, it appears there was a statewide reorganization that occurred which impacted many different positions. Unfortunately I don't have answers to your specific questions however, I think it's important that you get them. I also want to assure that you are aware of the grievance policy and your rights under that policy. I am not sure if you are inferring that you wish to file a grievance, but regardless, you should receive an answer to the questions you have posed. Can you please confirm for me who you have received what notifications from? That will help me determine next steps. My initial thought is that Jeff Stenseth should be able to answer some of your questions, as he is the senior leader within your chain of command, but I am not certain who you have already talked to or asked these questions of. Also, if you have received any notifications in writing please send those to me. Thank you, Becky, for the work that you do. That it was not only me but also my counterparts in the other human service centers in the state. I was told that part of my accounts payable duties and others that had the same position as me, were going to be done by the Business Managers and the rest of it was going to 2 office assistants at SEHSC who would take over the remainder of our duties statewide. I was told that this decision was made by Donna Aukland. I asked why those positions that were given to SEHSC staff were not posted internally for me or others to apply for and I did not receive an answer, even though Jeff Stenseth was in the meeting and would certainly know why his staff were just handed our duties. I was told that Donna would be giving us new job duties but there has been nothing so far and that the new duties would have nothing to do with anything that I had experience in. I am retiring in January (a little earlier than I intended because of this) and am very bitter that my 15 years with the state is ending this way. I know that the decisions that were made had nothing to do with my job performance because I was excellent in my position as everyone can attest to. What I would like from you is an explanation on how this can happen? How and why would I and others not have been able to at least apply for the job that was being taken away from us and just given to others with no notice? Is this a new direction the state is going in regards to how they treat state employees? Are you the person that can answer my questions or would it be legal or someone else? Your response will not change anything. I will retire in January but like I said, this has had an impact on my mental health and I feel that I am at least owed an explanation and should have asked for it months ago. Thank you Becky Savaloja Accounts Tech II Northeast Human Service Center

STENEHJEM: GIFT CARD SCAMS ON THE INCREASE

BISMARCK, ND – As the holidays approach, Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem reminds North Dakotans that gift cards are for gifts.

“Only buy gift cards if you are giving them as gifts to family or friends, because gift cards are a favorite tool used by scam artists,” cautioned Stenehjem.

According to the Federal Trade Commission, many gift card scams start with a phone call from someone impersonating a government agency. Scammers may claim that they will freeze your accounts or threaten to arrest you, unless you make an immediate payment. The scammers will even stay on the phone with their victims while they go to the store to purchase specific gift cards or a prepaid card. Once the victim has purchased the gift cards, the scam artist asks them for the numbers on the back of the cards. Those numbers are all anyone needs to go online from anywhere in the world and transfer the balance of the gift card into their own account.

“No government agency ever accepts gift cards to pay a debt,” Stenehjem warned.

The Attorney General’s Consumer Protection division reports that in the last two weeks, they have received nine reports from victims of gift card scams, with losses totaling $45,000. The victims, who range in age from 26 to 75, reportedly fell for different versions of the scam, including:

- telephone calls from fake government officials threatening the victim would lose their benefits;
- phony sweepstakes officials pretending the victim had won a prize but needed to make an upfront payment;
- fake online job listings; and
- false account payment error emails supposedly from Amazon and other well-known businesses.

“The one thing all these scams had in common is that the victim was told to purchase prepaid cards and gift cards,” said Parrell Grossman, director of the Consumer Protection division. “The government and legitimate companies do not demand that you make payments using gift cards. If that is what you are told, it is guaranteed to be a scam,” he continued.

$100,000 POWERBALL PRIZE WON IN WILLISTON

Bismarck – A lucky North Dakota Powerball player hit it big for the holidays with a lucky ticket! A $100,000 Powerball with Power Play ticket for Saturday night’s draw won by matching four white balls and the Powerball. The winning numbers were 3, 25, 44, 53, 64 and the Powerball was 10. The Power Play multiplier was 2.

The lucky ticket was sold at Simonson Station Store #6, 1409 2nd Avenue West, in Williston. The prize was $50,000, but as the player had also purchased the Power Play option, the ticket is worth $100,000. Simonson Station Store #6 will receive a $2,000 bonus for selling the winning Powerball ticket. No one has contacted the Lottery office to claim the prize.

Winners have 180 days from the date of the drawing to claim their prize. Prizes over $599 must be claimed at the North Dakota Lottery office, which recently moved and is now located at 1720 Burlington Drive Suite C in Bismarck.

The Powerball jackpot for the Monday, December 13 draw is $320 million. For winning numbers and other information, visit us on the web at LOTTERY.ND.GOV.

ATTORNEY GENERAL STENEHJEM WORKS TO STOP INTERNATIONAL SCAM CALLS

BISMARCK, ND – This week, Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem joined a bipartisan group of attorneys general in urging the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to adopt measures to help stem the tide of foreign-based illegal robocalls that attempt to scam Americans.

“Illegal robocalls are more than just a nuisance. Every day, my office receives reports from victims of these scam calls. Unfortunately, when consumers unwittingly respond to these calls, they may lose thousands of dollars, often with financially devastating results. I will continue my efforts to protect North Dakotans,” said Stenehjem, who reminded consumers not to accept or return any of these calls under any circumstances.

The comment letter, which was signed by the attorneys general from all 50 states, calls for the FCC to require “gateway providers” – companies that allow foreign calls into the United States – to take steps to reduce how easily robocalls have been able to enter the US telephone network, including requiring those providers to implement caller ID technology that helps prevent spoofed calls.

The letter states that based upon consumer complaints, these fraudulent foreign-originated robocalls often involve caller ID spoofing US phone numbers. The attorneys general called on the FCC to take decisive action, stating “[T]he time has come to start cutting the strings that form the nets that these illegal robocallers cast over the public.”

The attorneys general asked the FCC to require these gateway providers to take additional steps to reduce robocalls, including to:

- Block calls when providers are aware of an illegal or likely fraudulent caller.
- Block calls that originate from numbers that are on a “do not originate” list – such as government phone numbers that take incoming calls only.
- Ensure that foreign telephone companies they partner with are ensuring that calls are being made from legitimate numbers.
- Respond to requests from law enforcement, state attorneys general, or the FCC to trace back calls within 24 hours.

The attorneys general encouraged the FCC to require all phone companies to block calls from any gateway provider that fails to meet these requirements. Illegal robocalls are a scourge – in 2020, Americans lost more than $520 million through robocall scams.

$150,000 POWERBALL PRIZE WON IN BISMARCK

Bismarck, ND – A lucky North Dakota Powerball player continues the big winning in January! A $150,000 Powerball with Power Play ticket for last night’s draw won big by matching four white balls and the Powerball. The winning numbers were 11, 15, 43, 55, 61 and the Powerball was 10. The Power Play multiplier was 3.

The lucky ticket was sold at Superpumper #80246, 1833 East Main Avenue, in Bismarck. The prize was $50,000, but as the player had also purchased the Power Play option, the ticket is worth $150,000. Superpumper will receive a $2,000 bonus for selling the winning Powerball ticket. No one has contacted the Lottery office to claim the prize.

“January has been an extremely lucky month for North Dakota Powerball players,” said Randy Miller, director of the North Dakota Lottery. “Since 2018, January has produced four $100,000 Powerball winners, one $150,000 winner and two $1 Million winners.” Winners have 180 days from the date of the drawing to claim their prize.

The Powerball jackpot for the Saturday, January 22 draw is $76 million. For winning numbers and other information, visit us on the web at LOTTERY.ND.GOV.

I forgot to send this to you earlier. Do you want to do an interview on either/both of the topics?

Good evening,

I am reaching out to see if the AG would be able to have a short interview to talk about the Anti-Corporate farming laws in the state, and recent legislative challenges.

If that subject is off the table, we would still love to have the AG on to talk about his tenure as AG and what are his plans for the future.

Thanks,

Why the change? The collection outgrew itself over the last couple of years. It included more than just town and county histories. Church, school, township, and organization histories were also part of the collection. To more accurately reflect the collection's content, county and town was dropped from the name, and we're left with a more precise (and shorter) title: North Dakota Histories. The rebranding opened the door for consolidation, and certain items that were previously uploaded to different collections were moved to North Dakota Histories where they more accurately belong (such as the book about the

| Body | Good morning. I am sorry to say that I will be missing todays years of service award’s ceremony. I was looking forward to coming and seeing everyone and receiving my years of service recognition in person. However, the roads are not the best, slippery. It is a cold and windy ND day and not ideal for 7 hours of driving. I can’t believe I have nearly 21.5 years of combined service to Grand Forks County and the State. Time flies. Thank you both for giving me the opportunity to do the work that I do and for being wonderful to work with/for. I hope to see you soon. Merry Christmas. Nancy Nancy Yon Assistant Attorney General Office of General Counsel 264 Centennial Drive Stop 8196 Grand Forks, ND 58202-8196 701-777-6345 ndyon@nd.gov |

| Body                                            | Good morning. I am sorry to say that I will be missing todays years of service award’s ceremony. I was looking forward to coming and seeing everyone and receiving my years of service recognition in person. However, the roads are not the best, slippery. It is a cold and windy ND day and not ideal for 7 hours of driving. I can’t believe I have nearly 21.5 years of combined service to Grand Forks County and the State. Time flies. Thank you both for giving me the opportunity to do the work that I do and for being wonderful to work with/for. I hope to see you soon. Merry Christmas. Nancy Nancy Yon Assistant Attorney General Office of General Counsel 264 Centennial Drive Stop 8196 Grand Forks, ND 58202-8196 701-777-6345 ndyon@nd.gov |

Regulatory Potholes Loom For Expanding Electric Fleet

Plenty of recent groundwork has been laid for getting more electric vehicles on the road, but solid regulatory frameworks for EV infrastructure must still be erected in order to kick electrification efforts into high gear. Here, policy experts identify five regulatory issues that must be addressed in order to accelerate EV deployment in the U.S.

Regulatory Potholes Loom For Expanding Electric Fleet

Plenty of recent groundwork has been laid for getting more electric vehicles on the road, but solid regulatory frameworks for EV infrastructure must still be erected in order to kick electrification efforts into high gear. Here, policy experts identify five regulatory issues that must be addressed in order to accelerate EV deployment in the U.S.
