All.
 Here is an updated (and citechecked) stay/cert before judgment filing. It's substantively identical to what I sent last night. (With one exception: an eastern member of our coalition, apparently unfamiliar with the cut-and-suck method of treating rattlesnake bites, asked for the removal of that reference.)
 We think this anticipates everything any adverse panel decision might say, so it should not take long to add responses to the Sixth Circuit.

Hello,

We are working on logistics for the events on the attached agenda and would like to have a good headcount to pass along to our counterparts in McAllen. Please let me know by 3:00 PM CST on Monday, January 10th if you plan on attending and how many people you will be bringing with you, security included. If you are bringing security, please send me a good contact so we can pass that along to our security team. I will also need a good ground contact for the week of as we move through the event. Be on the lookout for security detail briefing next week and hopefully a final agenda.

As always, feel free to call or text me anytime.

Thank you,

All,

Here is a draft brief. We will do all we can to finalize and file shortly after midnight.

Having reviewed the Sixth Circuit opinion, I think it is a gift.

I enjoyed working with you on stories and always appreciated your knowledge of topics and your willingness to give me some of your time.                 Thanks too for letting Jack take those Scotcheroots. He was kind enough to share them, and honestly I'm not sure I would have done that. Attached is the draft comment prepared by Kentucky. In light of the additional challenges that have been filed and the broader interest in the issue, we would invite any other AG's who would like to join these comments to do so. The comment letter is due TOMORROW, 12/16. Accordingly, if interested in joining, please let me know by noon (12:00 EST) tomorrow (Thursday), and provide a copy of your AG's signature block for inclusion. Attached is the draft comment prepared by Kentucky. In light of the additional challenges that have been filed and the broader interest in the issue, we would invite any other AG's who would like to join these comments to do so. The comment letter is due TOMORROW, 12/16. Accordingly, if interested in joining, please let me know by noon (12:00 EST) tomorrow (Thursday), and provide a copy of your AG's signature block for inclusion. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.                 Thank you, Christopher L. As you can see, our flight home for today has been cancelled. We are now scheduled for tomorrow instead, so it looks like I will not be in the office tomorrow. I have that one opinion that Ally says must be out before next week so I will be working on that today. Let me know if there's anything else I need to do before the end of the year.

All,
 Attached is an updated version of the Head Start Rule comment letter prepared by Kentucky and Louisiana. Responding to a good suggestion from Kansas, we have added a section addressing the Rule's violation of the Congressional Review Act ("CRA"). This new section is highlighted at pages 5-6 in the attached version. In addition to Kentucky and Louisiana, at this point we have received sign-ons from Kansas, Mississippi, South Dakota, Georgia, Alaska, Indiana, Oklahoma, Ohio, Alabama, and South Carolina. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with the new section.

If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST Thursday, December 30.

Thank you,

All,
 In connection with our litigation challenging the Interim Final Rule, 86 Fed. Reg. 68,052 (November 30, 2021), entitled "Vaccine and Mask Requirements to Mitigate the Spread of COVID-19 in Head Start Programs" (the "Head Start Rule"), Kentucky and Louisiana have prepared the attached comment letter in opposition to the Head Start Rule. We would invite any other AG's who would like to join these comments to do so, whether or not you are already party to one of the lawsuits challenging the Head Start Rule. The comment letter is due Thursday, 12/30. Accordingly, if interested in joining, please let me know by noon (12:00 EST) on Thursday (12/30), and provide a copy of your AG's electronic signature for inclusion at the end of the comment letter. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.
 Thank you,

This new section is highlighted at pages 5-6 in the attached version. In addition to Kentucky and Louisiana, at this point we have received sign-ons from Kansas, Mississippi, South Dakota, Georgia, Alaska, Indiana, Oklahoma, Ohio, Alabama, and South Carolina. Unless I hear otherwise, I will assume that those that have already signed-on are fine with the new section.

If anyone else would like to sign-on, please let me know by 12:00 (noon) EST Thursday, December 30.

Thank you,

All,
 In connection with our litigation challenging the Interim Final Rule, 86 Fed. Reg. 68,052 (November 30, 2021), entitled "Vaccine and Mask Requirements to Mitigate the Spread of COVID-19 in Head Start Programs" (the "Head Start Rule"), Kentucky and Louisiana have prepared the attached comment letter in opposition to the Head Start Rule. We would invite any other AG's who would like to join these comments to do so, whether or not you are already party to one of the lawsuits challenging the Head Start Rule. The comment letter is due Thursday, 12/30. Accordingly, if interested in joining, please let me know by noon (12:00 EST) on Thursday (12/30), and provide a copy of your AG's electronic signature for inclusion at the end of the comment letter. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.
 Thank you,

Also this morning, I became aware of his letter to the editor, which I have attached too. From: clyde reilly &lt;clydecarol1973@gmail.com&gt; Sent: Monday, January 3, 2022 6:11 AM To: Oliver, Lee A. &lt;loliver@nd.gov&gt; Subject: Flanders Hey Lee Ann Oliver, We successfully conducted a recall petition here in Pembina County this past summer. You were most helpful for us to understand the process and get the details for the petition right. I must acknowledge that our County Auditor Linda Schlintenhart was also very cooperative and helpful. The electors of Pembina County were given an opportunity to affect change and the incumbent county commissioner was soundly defeated and the candidate that we endorsed has been seated. The result of the process was a good thing but there is more to do. Loren Estad, one of us Despicable, Radical, Anarchists from Crystal emailed to the Office of Attorney General of North Dakota a petition to conduct an investigation of Pembina County States Attorney Rebecca Flanders according to NDCC 44-11. A copy of this petition was also sent by Loren Estad to the Secretary of State. Attached Lee Ann, is a copy of the response to us from the AG and a copy of that was provided to the Secretary of State. We the people of Pembina County are desperately in need of the remedy provided by law. Prior to the signature gathering that I, Clyde Reilly conducted, a query was sent to the AG asking if there was a format or instructions for the petition needed to move forward with NDCC 44-11. The response to this question from the Office of Attorney General of ND was, "No there is not.", so I proceeded to collect about 80 signatures though only 50 were needed.. Based on this response and the letter attached it would be obvious that the AG would rather not conduct the investigation of our rogue States Attorney Flanders. Note paragraph three of the letter of refusal to do their job from the AG, skip the first sentence as the petition did state the charges. In the second part of the paragraph the writer passes the buck to the Office of Secretary of State(NDCC16.1-01) and the explanation is vague. I also don't understand what is meant by the last sentence that individual pages of the petition be verified. Can you please help unravel the mystery of NDCC 44-11. I get it that the AG doesn't want to do this but it is needed desperately and the law requires it to be done. I fully expected the petition that I presented to be rejected, I gave them obvious reasons to do so, no affidavit by the collector being the main one. I am confused by the last line of paragraph three in the rejection letter where verification of each page of the petition is "apparently" required by NDCC 44-11-03. Seems a bit vague and kind of a stretch. If the petition that I presented to the AG is totally unusable then I am fully prepared to do it again but next time I would like the advice of the Office of Secretary of State now that the AG has referenced it even though there is no mention of Secretary of State in NDCC 44-11. "Apparently". Have a Happy New Year Lee Ann Oliver Clyde Reilly at Stokesville                 12-31-21 |

Also this morning, I became aware of his letter to the editor, which I have attached too. From: clyde reilly &lt;clydecarol1973@gmail.com&gt; Sent: Monday, January 3, 2022 6:11 AM To: Oliver, Lee A. &lt;loliver@nd.gov&gt; Subject: Flanders Hey Lee Ann Oliver, We successfully conducted a recall petition here in Pembina County this past summer. You were most helpful for us to understand the process and get the details for the petition right. I must acknowledge that our County Auditor Linda Schlintenhart was also very cooperative and helpful. The electors of Pembina County were given an opportunity to affect change and the incumbent county commissioner was soundly defeated and the candidate that we endorsed has been seated. The result of the process was a good thing but there is more to do. Loren Estad, one of us Despicable, Radical, Anarchists from Crystal emailed to the Office of Attorney General of North Dakota a petition to conduct an investigation of Pembina County States Attorney Rebecca Flanders according to NDCC 44-11. A copy of this petition was also sent by Loren Estad to the Secretary of State. Attached Lee Ann, is a copy of the response to us from the AG and a copy of that was provided to the Secretary of State. We the people of Pembina County are desperately in need of the remedy provided by law. Prior to the signature gathering that I, Clyde Reilly conducted, a query was sent to the AG asking if there was a format or instructions for the petition needed to move forward with NDCC 44-11. The response to this question from the Office of Attorney General of ND was, "No there is not.", so I proceeded to collect about 80 signatures though only 50 were needed.. Based on this response and the letter attached it would be obvious that the AG would rather not conduct the investigation of our rogue States Attorney Flanders. Note paragraph three of the letter of refusal to do their job from the AG, skip the first sentence as the petition did state the charges. In the second part of the paragraph the writer passes the buck to the Office of Secretary of State(NDCC16.1-01) and the explanation is vague. I also don't understand what is meant by the last sentence that individual pages of the petition be verified. Can you please help unravel the mystery of NDCC 44-11. I get it that the AG doesn't want to do this but it is needed desperately and the law requires it to be done. I fully expected the petition that I presented to be rejected, I gave them obvious reasons to do so, no affidavit by the collector being the main one. I am confused by the last line of paragraph three in the rejection letter where verification of each page of the petition is "apparently" required by NDCC 44-11-03. Seems a bit vague and kind of a stretch. If the petition that I presented to the AG is totally unusable then I am fully prepared to do it again but next time I would like the advice of the Office of Secretary of State now that the AG has referenced it even though there is no mention of Secretary of State in NDCC 44-11. "Apparently". Have a Happy New Year Lee Ann Oliver Clyde Reilly at Stokesville                 12-31-21 |

It has been a remarkable honor to work with you and your offices. Over the past ten years, we have set the standard for how companies and AGs can work together to combat harm and educate consumers. The AG-escalation channel and law enforcement portal, as well as our policy work combating issues from online predation to price gouging, have made a significant difference in people's lives. I firmly believe your offices are the single most effective channel for protecting people from serious harm and I am constantly inspired by how solemnly you take that responsibility. Of course, there were times when you had serious questions and concerns, which you did not hesitate to raise with me. Despite the gravity of some of those conversations, your offices were always honest brokers and treated me with nothing but respect and kindness. I will always appreciate your professionalism, decency, and often friendship. In the new year, I will be joining a small firm where I will focus on helping socially-minded companies, organizations, and policymakers tackle hard policy issues. The goal is to shape the issues that will impact society for the next 100 years and ensure that people with good ideas can bring them to market. Starting on January 1, Dan Sachs will be running our AG outreach program. I will be working with him to ensure the transition is smooth in the new year. All of you who know Dan recognize what a fantastic job he will do in this role. He and I approached issues the same way, but he has much better spelling and grammar. He asked me to pass on his contact information along with his assurance that the company's commitment to working with you and your teams will not change. (dans@fb.com 202.716.2172) Please have a wonderful holiday and, again, thank you for everything. Let me know if you are in Maryland ( willcastleberry@gmail.com 202.420.0173) - it would be great to grab a beer or catch an Orioles game*. All the best, Will *O's game offer may exclude certain AG offices, including MA, RI, CT, VT, NH, and ME or any other Red Sox fans. |

It has been a remarkable honor to work with you and your offices. Over the past ten years, we have set the standard for how companies and AGs can work together to combat harm and educate consumers. The AG-escalation channel and law enforcement portal, as well as our policy work combating issues from online predation to price gouging, have made a significant difference in people's lives. I firmly believe your offices are the single most effective channel for protecting people from serious harm and I am constantly inspired by how solemnly you take that responsibility. Of course, there were times when you had serious questions and concerns, which you did not hesitate to raise with me. Despite the gravity of some of those conversations, your offices were always honest brokers and treated me with nothing but respect and kindness. I will always appreciate your professionalism, decency, and often friendship. In the new year, I will be joining a small firm where I will focus on helping socially-minded companies, organizations, and policymakers tackle hard policy issues. The goal is to shape the issues that will impact society for the next 100 years and ensure that people with good ideas can bring them to market. Starting on January 1, Dan Sachs will be running our AG outreach program. I will be working with him to ensure the transition is smooth in the new year. All of you who know Dan recognize what a fantastic job he will do in this role. He and I approached issues the same way, but he has much better spelling and grammar. He asked me to pass on his contact information along with his assurance that the company's commitment to working with you and your teams will not change. (dans@fb.com 202.716.2172) Please have a wonderful holiday and, again, thank you for everything. Let me know if you are in Maryland (willcastleberry@gmail.com 202.420.0173) - it would be great to grab a beer or catch an Orioles game*. All the best, Will *O's game offer may exclude certain AG offices, including MA, RI, CT, VT, NH, and ME or any other Red Sox fans. |

Dear Attorney General Stenehjem – I am sorry that I missed you when you stopped into my office during Homecoming week. I understand that you met with Dr. Lavinia Iancu, our new director of Forensic Studies. She and I are both supportive of doing all we can to meet the needs of the state’s crime labs. We have more than 100 majors in Forensic Science consistently, and we are open to aligning our curriculum so that our graduates enter the workforce with the skills they need. I am happy to discuss this further at your convenience.

Best wishes,
 Brad

That doesn't necessarily mean changing the dollar amount of those contracts, but including language that requires workers on those projects to be vaccinated. UND has more than $100 million in active federal contracts for research and educational programs. At present, the contractors of two of those deals have requested UND add language requiring vaccines. The Biden administration issued the mandate on Sept. 9. "The bottom line is everybody's trying to figure this out, especially at the university level," said John Mihelich, interim vice president for research and economic development. The State Board of Higher Education OK'd a motion at its most recent meeting that gives state universities and colleges the authority to require some employees be vaccinated. The alternative could have potentially been the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars for those institutions. The two contracts at UND that are in the process of being modified come from the U.S. Department of Energy and General Services Administration. The value of those contracts could be up to $20 million. The contracts involve work being done with national defense, technology and biomedical research companies Leidos, and Applied Research Associates. According to Mihelich, contracts beginning on or after Nov. 14 must include language about requiring vaccinated workers. Ongoing contracts awarded before Oct. 15 must also include the language if they are extended or modified. Contracts entered into between those dates can only encourage the specific vaccination language. It's unclear how many of UND's 2,460 benefited staff and faculty members will be required to get the shots. The university has not required employees to disclose their vaccination status, and until now, it hasn't had to. Administrators are working to determine the number of employees who work on a particular federal contract or subcontract, who will then be informed they need to verify they have been vaccinated. "We're working on how we're going to do that logistically," said Meloney Linder, vice president of marketing and communications. "Our (information technology) folks have identified a program that would allow us to easily be able to let people upload their information, and verify that they're vaccinated." The vaccination mandate will also apply to students and graduate students who are doing work on a federal contract or subcontract. Federal grants are not included in the mandate. In a Tuesday, Nov. 2, message to the campus community, President Andrew Armacost said the school will comply with the mandate, the details of which are still unfolding. More information will be released on who must get the shots and when. Armscott is president of UND. <hr/> From: Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Thursday, November 4, 2021 8:14 AM To: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Subject: RE: federal contracts I don't have a subscription to this paper, so I can't read it. <hr/> From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Thursday, November 4, 2021 6:37 AM To: Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt; Subject: federal contracts Matt: FYI https://www.grandforks Herald.com/news/education/1267227-UND-evaluates-federal-contracts-to-see-how-many-employees-fall-under-federal-vaccine-mandate |

That doesn't necessarily mean changing the dollar amount of those contracts, but including language that requires workers on those projects to be vaccinated. UND has more than $100 million in active federal contracts for research and educational programs. At present, the contractors of two of those deals have requested UND add language requiring vaccines. The Biden administration issued the mandate on Sept. 9. "The bottom line is everybody's trying to figure this out, especially at the university level," said John Mihelich, interim vice president for research and economic development. The State Board of Higher Education OK'd a motion at its most recent meeting that gives state universities and colleges the authority to require some employees be vaccinated. The alternative could have potentially been the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars for those institutions. The two contracts at UND that are in the process of being modified come from the U.S. Department of Energy and General Services Administration. The value of those contracts could be up to $20 million. The contracts involve work being done with national defense, technology and biomedical research companies Leidos, and Applied Research Associates. According to Mihelich, contracts beginning on or after Nov. 14 must include language about requiring vaccinated workers. Ongoing contracts awarded before Oct. 15 must also include the language if they are extended or modified. Contracts entered into between those dates can only encourage the specific vaccination language. It's unclear how many of UND's 2,460 benefited staff and faculty members will be required to get the shots. The university has not required employees to disclose their vaccination status, and until now, it hasn't had to. Administrators are working to determine the number of employees who work on a particular federal contract or subcontract, who will then be informed they need to verify they have been vaccinated. "We're working on how we're going to do that logistically," said Meloney Linder, vice president of marketing and communications. "Our (information technology) folks have identified a program that would allow us to easily be able to let people upload their information, and verify that they're vaccinated." The vaccination mandate will also apply to students and graduate students who are doing work on a federal contract or subcontract. Federal grants are not included in the mandate. In a Tuesday, Nov. 2, message to the campus community, President Andrew Armacost said the school will comply with the mandate, the details of which are still unfolding. More information will be released on who must get the shots and when. <small>Armscott is president of UND.</small> <hr/> From: Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Thursday, November 4, 2021 8:14 AM To: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Subject: RE: federal contracts I don't have a subscription to this paper, so I can't read it. <hr/> From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Thursday, November 4, 2021 6:37 AM To: Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt; Subject: federal contracts Matt: FYI https://www.grandforks Herald.com/news/education/2467227-UND-evaluates-federal-contracts-to-see-how-many-employees-fall-under-federal-vaccine-mandate |

I think it goes without saying that our office is extremely excited about the Court's decision to hear this important case. We're looking forward to continuing working with you all through the next stages. Can we find a time in the next few days to discuss thoughts on coordinating as co-petitioners during the briefing process? My colleague Michael Williams is joining me heading up the West Virginia team for the State coalition, and we're available for a call tomorrow (Friday) 8:30-10:30 and 1:00-4:00 ET. If early next week is better, Monday after 3:00 ET and most of Tuesday work for us too. Looking forward to talking more soon. Lindsay Lindsay SeeSolicitor GeneralOffice of the West Virginia Attorney GeneralState Capitol, Bldg 1, Room E-26Charleston, WV 25305(681) 313-4550 <small>This email is intended only for the use of the named individual or individuals and may contain information that is confidential, unclassified, or exempt from release. I can make the Friday afternoon timeslot work as well if that time is better for the group. +Grossman Best regards, Mark Mark DeLaquilPartner  Washington Square1050 Connecticut Ave. N.W. I think it goes without saying that our office is extremely excited about the Court's decision to hear this important case. We're looking forward to continuing working with you all through the next stages. Can we find a time in the next few days to discuss thoughts on coordinating as co-petitioners during the briefing process? My colleague Michael Williams is joining me heading up the West Virginia team for the State coalition, and we're available for a call tomorrow (Friday) 8:30-10:30 and 1:00-4:00 ET. If early next week is better, Monday after 3:00 ET and most of Tuesday work for us too. Looking forward to talking more soon. Lindsay Lindsay SeeSolicitor GeneralOffice of the West Virginia Attorney GeneralState Capitol, Bldg 1, Room E-26Charleston, WV 25305(811) 313-4550 <small>This email is intended only for the use of the named individual or individuals. | Body | This is a great start!!Wayne <hr/> From: Quinn, Robyn &lt;rquinn@nd.gov&gt;Sent: Thursday, November 4, 2021 12:52 PMTo: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;Subject: UND - update Lavinia just sent me an email. She asked me to review the updated curriculum for the Forensic Science concentration in Biology at UND. If it is approved, graduates will meet the FBI Quality Assurance Standards educational requirements. She is also meeting with my friend Tracey Dawson Green (Virginia Commonwealth University) on Monday. Tracey worked at a private lab before starting the graduate program at VCU. She was also very involved in FEPAC and was an officer in the Mid-Atlantic Association of Forensic Scientists (MAAFS). She will be a tremendous source of knowledge for Lavinia. I hired a few graduates of Tracey's program when I was in Delaware... no regrets. |

She asked me to review the updated curriculum for the Forensic Science concentration in Biology at UND. If it is approved, graduates will meet the FBI Quality Assurance Standards educational requirements. She is also meeting with my friend Tracey Dawson Green (Virginia Commonwealth University) on Monday. Tracey worked at a private lab before starting the graduate program at VCU. She was also very involved in FEPAC and was an officer in the Mid-Atlantic Association of Forensic Scientists (MAAFS). She will be a tremendous source of knowledge for Lavinia. I hired a few graduates of Tracey's program when I was in Delaware... no regrets. |

Biden Administration Publishes Vaccine Mandate for Large Businesses

The Biden administration rolled out a new COVID-19 vaccine mandate Thursday morning, giving large companies until Jan. 4 to ensure that their workforces are fully vaccinated.

In a conference call with reporters Wednesday night, a senior administration official said the sweeping new measure, which is scheduled to be published in Friday's Federal Register, will apply to about 84 million private sector workers.

The new rule will be enforced by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. It requires employers with 100 or more employees to ensure each of their workers is fully vaccinated by Jan. 4, and mandates at least weekly testing for unvaccinated employees after that.

The OSHA rule will also require that these employers provide paid time off for employees to get vaccinated, and ensure all unvaccinated workers wear a face mask in the workplace.

In addition, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services at the Department of Health and Human Services on Thursday announced details of its requirement that health care workers at facilities participating in Medicare and Medicaid are fully vaccinated.

The rule applies to more than 17 million workers at approximately 76,000 health care facilities, including hospitals and long-term care facilities, the White House said.

The administration has previously implemented policies requiring millions of federal employees and federal contractors to be fully vaccinated.

"While we are encouraged to know that vaccination requirements have already helped cut the number of unvaccinated Americans by nearly 40%, it's important to understand that there are still so many workers who are not protected and remain at risk from becoming seriously ill or dying from COVID-19," the administration official said.

"OSHA estimates that this rule will save thousands of lives and prevent over 250,000 hospitalizations during the six months after implementation," the official continued.

A number of major companies have already embraced COVID-19 vaccination policies similar to those imposed by the Biden administration, seeing them as a corporate responsibility.

Others have moved more slowly, waiting for clarification from the government on how they should proceed, who will pay for testing, and how the rules apply to the large number of people who are now working from home for these companies.

The Federal Register listing, which clocks in at 490 pages, is expected to answer many of these questions.

And while the mandate takes effect immediately, it serves as a proposal for a final standard that could extend the vaccine requirements to smaller businesses.

That means OSHA is soliciting comment on a number of questions, including: Have you instituted vaccination mandates (with or without alternatives), or requirements for regular COVID-19 testing or face covering use? What have been the benefits of your approach? What challenges have you had or could you foresee in implementing such programs? Is there anything specific to your industry, or the size of your business, that poses particular obstacles in implementing the requirements in this standard? How much time would it take, what types of costs would you incur, and how much would it cost for you to implement such requirements?

A senior administration official said OSHA will offer compliance assistance to businesses implementing the new standard beginning Thursday, including sample plans, fact sheets, frequently asked questions, and other materials.

POTUS WATCH

It's another light day on President Joe Biden's public schedule as the White House remains focused on netting key parts of the president's agenda passed on Capitol Hill.

Body

Biden's day began with him and Vice President Kamala Harris receiving the daily intelligence brief in the Oval Office.

Thursday afternoon, Principal Deputy Press Secretary Karine Jean-Pierre will do a briefing with reporters.

Thursday night, First Lady Jill Biden is scheduled to attend the White House Historical Association's 60th Anniversary gala in New York.

IN OTHER NEWS

Speaker Nancy Pelosi continues to maintain she wants a House vote on both the Build Back Better Act and the $1 trillion bipartisan infrastructure bill sooner rather than later — meaning before the weekend.

As of Thursday morning, no such votes were on the schedule but Pelosi seems intent on pressuring the Senate to get a move on regarding the budget reconciliation bill, which has been hung up due to a lack of support by Sens. Joe Manchin, D-W.Va. and Kyrsten Sinema, D-Ariz.

The prospects for the bills in the House aren't so great either, with moderates wanting time for a Congressional Budget Office analysis of the reconciliation bill and progressives wanting firm promises that the Senate will pass a bill containing all the social programs they want.

Wayne:

I absolutely recommend North Dakota join in these Reply Comments.
Please let me know if you would like to do so and I will take care of it. Thank you for your consideration.

For contractors, guidance on ever-evolving federal vaccine mandate makes compliance difficult

Update: The Biden administration on Thursday extended the deadline for federal contractors to comply with the vaccine mandate, a day after this story was initially posted. Contractors now have until Jan. 3, the same deadline that private sector companies have under new requirements from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

This story was updated on Thursday, Nov. 4, 2021 at 9:10 a.m. to reflect the new deadline.

Federal contractors now have two months to comply for their employees to comply with the president's recent executive order requiring COVID-19 vaccines.

So far, government vendors and other stakeholders have reacted to the federal vaccine mandate in a variety of ways.

Insight by Tanium: In this exclusive executive briefing, executives will discuss their approach to building a flexible and dynamic zero trust network.

Some states have sued.

Republicans on the House Oversight and Reform Committee are looking for more information. They wrote to the Defense Department, General Services Administration and Office of Management and Budget on Wednesday seeking a variety of documents that explain the administration's decision making process for the mandate.

Government contracts attorneys and professional services organizations say many of their clients are complying with the federal vaccine mandate, or at least they're trying to.

All: Attached are the final PDFs of the Petition for Review and Exhibit A that we filed this morning. We received electronic confirmation that the filing fee was processed, but it appears that we will not get file-stamped versions until the clerks come into the office this morning. We are working to update the motion to stay and will get you the updated draft asap. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AL, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-23633/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard> [federalregister.gov]

Probably the best course is to file the PJR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) if it does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central. Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible. Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!! Thanks a lot, John <hr/> From: Sauer, John                 Sent: Tuesday, October 26, 2021 6:47 AM                 To: cori.mills@alaska.gov; Nicholas Bronni &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; Christopher Bond &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; Ryan Schelhaas &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; Langholz, Sam &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Boal, Michael [GOV] &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt;; Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;masagsve@nd.gov&gt;; Bangert &lt;Bangert@adfflegal.org&gt;; matt@vbmlaw.com; matt@vbmlaw.com; jd@keatinglaw.com &lt;jd@keatinglaw.com&gt;                 Cc: Roydsen, Beau &lt;Beau.Roydsen@azag.gov&gt;; Ensign, Drew &lt;Drew.Ensign@azag.gov&gt;; Dewhirst, David &lt;David.Dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; Campbell, Jim &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt;; Osete, Jesus &lt;Jesus.Osete@ago.mo.gov&gt;; Talent, Michael &lt;Michael.Talent@ago.mo.gov&gt;                 Subject: RE: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#246; PRIVILEGED &amp;#246; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel- We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer <hr/> From: Sauer, John                 Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:34 PM                 To: cori.mills@alaska.gov; Nicholas Bronni &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; Ryan Schelhaas &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; Langholz, Sam &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Wstenehjem@nd.gov; Wstenehjem@nd.gov; Boal, Michael [GOV] &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt;; Roydsen, Beau &lt;Beau.Roydsen@azag.gov&gt;; Ensign, Drew &lt;Drew.Ensign@azag.gov&gt;; Dewhirst, David &lt;David.Dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; Campbell, Jim &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt;                 Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp;#246; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#246; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp;#246; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel- As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PJR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a "state-plan State"? Thanks a lot,                 John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. ### For contractors, guidance on ever-evolving federal vaccine mandate makes compliance difficult

Update: The Biden administration on Thursday extended the deadline for federal contractors to comply with the vaccine mandate, a day after this story was initially posted. Contractors now have until Jan. 3, the same deadline that private sector companies have under new requirements from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

This story was updated on Thursday, Nov. 4, 2021 at 9:10 a.m. to reflect the new deadline.

Federal contractors now have two months to comply for their employees to comply with the president's recent executive order requiring COVID-19 vaccines.

So far, government vendors and other stakeholders have reacted to the federal vaccine mandate in a variety of ways.

Insight by Tanium: In this exclusive executive briefing, executives will discuss their approach to building a flexible and dynamic zero trust network.

Some states have sued.

Republicans on the House Oversight and Reform Committee are looking for more information. They wrote to the Defense Department, General Services Administration and Office of Management and Budget on Wednesday seeking a variety of documents that explain the administration's decision making process for the mandate.

Government contracts attorneys and professional services organizations say many of their clients are complying with the federal vaccine mandate, or at least they're trying to.

All: Attached are the final PDFs of the Petition for Review and Exhibit A that we filed this morning. We received electronic confirmation that the filing fee was processed, but it appears that we will not get file-stamped versions until the clerks come into the office this morning. We are working to update the motion to stay and will get you the updated draft asap. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AA, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-23633/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard> [federalregister.gov]

Probably the best course is to file the PJR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) if it does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central. Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible. Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!! Thanks a lot, John <hr/> From: Sauer, John Sent: Tuesday, October 26, 2021 6:47 AM To: cori.mills@alaska.gov; cori.mills@alaska.gov; Nicholas Bronni &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; Ryan Schelhaas &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; Langholz, Sam &lt;sam.langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Boal, Michael [GOV] &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt;; Sagsveen, Matthew A. &lt;msagsve@mt.gov&gt;; Bangert &lt;Bangert@adfflegal.org&gt;; matt@vbmlaw.com &lt;matt@vbmlaw.com&gt;; jd@keatinglaw.com &lt;jd@keatinglaw.com&gt; Cc: Roydsen, Beau &lt;Beau.Roydsen@arag.gov&gt;; Ensign, Drew &lt;Drew.Ensign@arag.gov&gt;; Dewhirst, David &lt;David.Dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; Campbell, Jim &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt;; Osete, Jesus &lt;Jesus.Osete@ago.mo.gov&gt;; Talent, Michael &lt;Michael.Talent@ago.mo.gov&gt; Subject: RE: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#246; PRIVILEGED &amp;#246; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel- We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer <hr/> From: Sauer, John Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:34 PM To: cori.mills@alaska.gov; Nicholas Bronni &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; Ryan Schelhaas &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; Langholz, Sam &lt;sam.langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; Langholz, Sam &lt;sam.langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us; Wstenehjem@nd.gov &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; Benjamin.Royden@arag.gov; Boal, Michael [GOV] &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt;; Roydsen, Beau &lt;Beau.Roydsen@arag.gov&gt;; Ensign, Drew &lt;Drew.Ensign@arag.gov&gt;; Dewhirst, David &lt;David.Dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; Campbell, Jim &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp;#246; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#246; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp;#246; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel- As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PJR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a "state-plan State"? Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. ### For contractors, guidance on ever-evolving federal vaccine mandate makes compliance difficult

 Nicole Ogrysko@uogryskoWFED

Update: The Biden administration on Thursday extended the deadline for federal contractors to comply with the vaccine mandate, a day after this story was initially posted. Contractors now have until Jan. 4, the same deadline that private sector companies have under new requirements from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

This story was updated on Thursday, Nov. 4, 2021 at 9:10 a.m. to reflect the new deadline.

Federal contractors now have two months to comply for their employees to comply with the president's recent executive order requiring COVID-19 vaccines.

So far, government vendors and other stakeholders have reacted to the federal vaccine mandate in a variety of ways.

Insight by Tanium: In this exclusive executive briefing, executives will discuss their approach to building a flexible and dynamic zero trust network.

Some states have sued.

Republicans on the House Oversight and Reform Committee are looking for more information. They wrote to the Defense Department, General Services Administration and Office of Management and Budget on Wednesday seeking a variety of documents that explain the administration's decision making process for the mandate.

Government contractors attorneys and professional services organizations say many of their clients are complying with the federal vaccine mandate, or at least they're trying to.

All - Attached are the final PDFs of the Petition for Review and Exhibit A that we filed this morning. We received electronic confirmation that the filing fee was processed, but it appears that we will not get file-stamped versions until the clerks come into the office this morning. We are working to update the motion to stay and will get you the updated draft asap. Thanks a lot, John

All: Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AAJ, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-23643/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard/federalregister.gov/>

Probably the best course is to file the PJR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) & Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

Subject: Re: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

Sam

We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central. Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible. Thanks a lot for your support in this important project! Thanks a lot, John From: Sauer, JohnSent: Tuesday, October 26, 2021 6:47 AMTo: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov' &lt;cori.mills@alaska.gov&gt;; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov' &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Scheelhaas' &lt;ryan.scheelhaas@ny.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'Boal, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Sagsveen, Matthew A.' &lt;msagsvye@nd.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Bangert' &lt;rbangert@adfflegal.org&gt;; 'matt@vblaw.com' &lt;matt@vblaw.com&gt;; 'jd@keatinglaw.com' &lt;jd@keatinglaw.com&gt; Cc: 'Roysden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Roysden@iag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@iag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt;; 'Osete, Jesus' &lt;Jesus.Osete@ago.ms.gov&gt;; 'Talent, Michael' &lt;Michael.Talent@ago.ms.gov&gt; Subject: RE: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#8220; PRIVILEGED &amp;#8220; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel-- We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer From: Sauer, JohnSent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:34 PMTo: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov' &lt;cori.mills@alaska.gov&gt;; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov' &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Scheelhaas' &lt;ryan.scheelhaas@ny.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'wstenehjem@nd.gov' &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; 'Boal, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt; Cc: 'Roysden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Roysden@iag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@iag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp;#8220; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#8220; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp;#8220; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel-- As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't yet have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PJR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &amp;#8220;co-estate-plan States&amp;#8220;? Thanks a lot,John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. ### For contractors, guidance on ever-evolving federal vaccine mandate makes compliance difficult

 Nicole Ogrysko@uogryskoWFED

Update: The Biden administration on Thursday extended the deadline for federal contractors to comply with the vaccine mandate, a day after this story was initially posted. Contractors now have until Jan. 4, the same deadline that private sector companies have under new requirements from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

This story was updated on Thursday, Nov. 4, 2021 at 9:10 a.m. to reflect the new deadline.

Federal contractors now have two months to comply for their employees to comply with the president's recent executive order requiring COVID-19 vaccines.

So far, government vendors and other stakeholders have reacted to the federal vaccine mandate in a variety of ways.

Insight by Tanium: In this exclusive executive briefing, executives will discuss their approach to building a flexible and dynamic zero trust network.

Some states have sued.

Republicans on the House Oversight and Reform Committee are looking for more information. They wrote to the Defense Department, General Services Administration and Office of Management and Budget on Wednesday seeking a variety of documents that explain the administration's decision making process for the mandate.

Government contractors attorneys and professional services organizations say many of their clients are complying with the federal vaccine mandate, or at least they're trying to.

All - Attached are the final PDFs of the Petition for Review and Exhibit A that we filed this morning. We received electronic confirmation that the filing fee was processed, but it appears that we will not get file-stamped versions until the clerks come into the office this morning. We are working to update the motion to stay and will get you the updated draft asap. Thanks a lot, John

All: Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AAJ, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-23643/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard-federalregister.gov/>

Probably the best course is to file the PJR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) & Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

Sam

We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central. Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible. Thanks a lot for your support in this important project! Thanks a lot, John From: Sauer, John Sent: Tuesday, October 26, 2021 6:47 AM To: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov' &lt;cori.mills@alaska.gov&gt;; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov' &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Scheelhaas' &lt;ryan.scheelhaas@ny.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'Boal, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Sagsveen, Matthew A.' &lt;msagsve@nd.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Bangert' &lt;rbangert@hofflegal.org&gt;; 'matt@vblaw.com' &lt;matt@vblaw.com&gt;; 'jd@keatinglaw.com' &lt;jd@keatinglaw.com&gt; Cc: 'Roysden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Roysden@iag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@iag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt;; 'Osete, Jesus' &lt;Jesus.Osete@ago.ms.gov&gt;; 'Talent, Michael' &lt;Michael.Talent@ago.ms.gov&gt; Subject: RE: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#216; PRIVILEGED &amp;#216; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel-- We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer From: Sauer, John Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:34 PM To: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov' &lt;cori.mills@alaska.gov&gt;; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov' &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Scheelhaas' &lt;ryan.scheelhaas@ny.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'wstenehjem@nd.gov' &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; 'Boal, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt; Cc: 'Roysden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Roysden@iag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@iag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp;#216; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#216; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp;#216; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel-- As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PJR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &amp;#216;coestate-plan States&amp;#216;? Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. Rep Porter-

Attached is the legislation, drafted by AAG Allyson Hicks, that we discussed. It is needed for the Department of Health to conduct FBI compliant background checks on applicants seeking initial EMS licensure. The background checks are necessary for us to remain in the EMS Compact after September of 2022, therefore waiting until next session isn't ideal.

Thanks for your help with this. Let me know if you have any questions. Also, I cc'd Chris Price on this email as he should be able to answer any questions I cannot.

Thanks again,

It is needed for the Department of Health to conduct FBI compliant background checks on applicants seeking initial EMS licensure. The background checks are necessary for us to remain in the EMS Compact after September of 2022, therefore waiting until next session isn't ideal.

Thanks for your help with this. Let me know if you have any questions. Also, I cc'd Chris Price on this email as he should be able to answer any questions I cannot.

Thanks again,

It is needed for the Department of Health to conduct FBI compliant background checks on applicants seeking initial EMS licensure. The background checks are necessary for us to remain in the EMS Compact after September of 2022, therefore waiting until next session isn't ideal. Thanks for your help with this. Let me know if you have any questions. Also, I cc'd Chris Price on this email as he should be able to answer any questions I cannot. Thanks again. R. Good Morning!

I spoke with Chris Price this morning regarding this bill. If this passes, this bill would meet the requirements of the EMS Compact.

The next step would be getting it assigned by Legislative Council – it looks like it would be assigned as NDCC 12-60-24(2)(fff). Once assigned, I forward the statute to the FBI for their review. The FBI will let me know whether or not they approve the Department of Health to run the federal record checks. We may not hear whether it's approved for several months since the FBI has a large backlog.

If approved, I will reach out to Chris and we can begin the record check process. Until we receive that approval, BCI will not be able to do a federal record check for this purpose.

Chris guesstimated that it would entail about 200-300 record checks per year. BCI will be able to handle the extra record checks with their current staff.

If I can answer any other questions, please let me know.

Rep. Porter,

Thank you sir.

Julie Spotts with NDBCI is working on this already today and will have a reply e-mail for us later today.

Thank you for the information, this is very helpful.

It is needed for the Department of Health to conduct FBI compliant background checks on applicants seeking initial EMS licensure. The background checks are necessary for us to remain in the EMS Compact after September of 2022, therefore waiting until next session isn't ideal. Thanks for your help with this. Let me know if you have any questions. Also, I cc'd Chris Price on this email as he should be able to answer any questions I cannot. Thanks again, R. Good Morning!

I spoke with Chris Price this morning regarding this bill. If this passes, this bill would meet the requirements of the EMS Compact.

The next step would be getting it assigned by Legislative Council – it looks like it would be assigned as NDCC 12-60-24(2)(fff). Once assigned, I forward the statute to the FBI for their review. The FBI will let me know whether or not they approve the Department of Health to run the federal record checks. We may not hear whether it's approved for several months since the FBI has a large backlog.

If approved, I will reach out to Chris and we can begin the record check process. Until we receive that approval, BCI will not be able to do a federal record check for this purpose.

Chris guesstimated that it would entail about 200-300 record checks per year. BCI will be able to handle the extra record checks with their current staff.

If I can answer any other questions, please let me know.

Rep. Porter,

Thank you sir.

Julie Spotts with NDBCI is working on this already today and will have a reply e-mail for us later today.

Thank you for the information, this is very helpful.

It is needed for the Department of Health to conduct FBI compliant background checks on applicants seeking initial EMS licensure. The background checks are necessary for us to remain in the EMS Compact after September of 2022, therefore waiting until next session isn't ideal. Thanks for your help with this. Let me know if you have any questions. Also, I cc'd Chris Price on this email as he should be able to answer any questions I cannot. Thanks again, R. I got the call because Liz forwarded her phone to me. Did you want me to get Liz to call him from home or did you have a day/time next week you just wanted me to call him back with? He said he's basically wide open next week so whenever you would want to do it he will be happy to do it then. Thank you and I hope you have a fantastic day! Nikki Tryhus Administrative Assistant I Office of Attorney General www.attorneygeneral.nd.gov (701)328-2210 ntryhus@nd.gov |

Tim Olson with the Theodore Roosevelt Foundation called back to schedule a meeting with you next week. I got the call because Liz forwarded her phone to me. Did you want me to get Liz to call him from home or did you have a day/time next week you just wanted me to call him back with? He said he's basically wide open next week so whenever you would want to do it he will be happy to do it then.

Thank you and I hope you have a fantastic day!

Jim is the Special AG who has been assisting the state with various bankruptcy cases (namely, Whiting Petroleum). If you recall from the September Special Land Board meeting, Jim pointed out the fact that certain federal bankruptcy courts have been seeing a disproportionate volume of cases due to the reputation of those courts for being debtor-friendly. Jim asked that I forward you the below e-mail and recently indicated that today may be the deadline to sign on. I have not had the opportunity to review the bills myself, but would be happy to answer any questions that I can. Thank You,James Wald <hr/> From: Lodoen, Jim &lt;jlodoen@spencerfane.com&gt;Sent: Tuesday, November 2, 2021 10:19 AMTo: Wald, James J. &lt;jawald@nd.gov&gt;Subject: NAAG Letter Regarding Bankruptcy Venue Reform   CAUTION: This email originated from an outside source. Do not click links or open attachments unless you know they are safe.   James, Good morning James. The below e-mail from my partner Eric in Texas is fairly self-explanatory. This all relates to venue reform at the federal level to change the bankruptcy venue laws so that large company's located in North Dakota or Minnesota for example need to file bankruptcy where they are located, instead of the larger companies filing in such locations as Delaware, NY or Texas, either because that is their state of incorporation or because they have a nominal link to those states. The possibility of venue reform has gained significant momentum in the past month, and there appears a real possibility that this legislation could now pass. Attorney General Stenehjem signed onto the AG's letter last year, and I am sending this in order to make sure this is on his radar screen again this year. JimJames A. Attorney General,

You may have already received notice of this, but below is an e-mail we received from Jim Lodoen requesting your support for pending federal bankruptcy venue reform bills H.R. 4193 and S. 2827. Jim is the Special AG who has been assisting the state with various bankruptcy cases (namely, Whiting Petroleum). If you recall from the September Special Land Board meeting, Jim pointed out the fact that certain federal bankruptcy courts have been seeing a disproportionate volume of cases due to the reputation of those courts for being debtor-friendly. Jim asked that I forward you the below e-mail and recently indicated that today may be the deadline to sign on. I have not had the opportunity to review the bills myself, but would be happy to answer any questions that I can.

Thank You,
James Wald

James,

Good morning James. The below e-mail from my partner Eric in Texas is fairly self-explanatory. This all relates to venue reform at the federal level to change the bankruptcy venue laws so that large company's located in North Dakota or Minnesota for example need to file bankruptcy where they are located, instead of the larger companies filing in such locations as Delaware, NY or Texas, either because that is their state of incorporation or because they have a nominal link to those states. The possibility of venue reform has gained significant momentum in the past month, and there appears a real possibility that this legislation could now pass. Attorney General Stenehjem signed onto the AG's letter last year, and I am sending this in order to make sure this is on his radar screen again this year.

Hi Jim,

As we discussed yesterday, NAAG is seeking support from state attorneys general for the pending bankruptcy venue reform bills (H.R. 4193 and S. 2827).

The bills are the same or substantially similar to the bill endorsed by NAAG in February 2020 (H.R. 4421). That 2020 letter is available here: <https://www.naag.org/policy/letter/attorneys-general-support-bankruptcy-venue-reform-act-of-2019/>

Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem signed the 2020 letter and my contact at the Texas Attorneys' General Office has asked for assistance with outreach to attorneys general regarding this year's letter.

The October 2021 email and letter from NAAG would have been sent to whomever in the ND AG's office is designated as the liaison for NAAG.

Can you please ask your ND AG contacts to check with their liaison and, if they would like, to please email my contact in Texas (Rachel.Chalido@oag.texas.gov) and she can send them the email and letter so that they can pass it along to be sure that it is reviewed and considered by Attorney General Stenehjem?

Best,
Eric

Correct, General Stenehjem, you were one of the first AGs to do so.

James,
I believe we've already signed on to this.
Parrell can correct me if I'm wrong.

Attorney General,

You may have already received notice of this, but below is an e-mail we received from Jim Lodoen requesting your support for pending federal bankruptcy venue reform bills H.R. 4193 and S. 2827. Jim is the Special AG who has been assisting the state with various bankruptcy cases (namely, Whiting Petroleum). If you recall from the September Special Land Board meeting, Jim pointed out the fact that certain federal bankruptcy courts have been seeing a disproportionate volume of cases due to the reputation of those courts for being debtor-friendly. Jim asked that I forward you the below e-mail and recently indicated that today may be the deadline to sign on. I have not had the opportunity to review the bills myself, but would be happy to answer any questions that I can.

Thank You,

Correct, General Stenehjem, you were one of the first AGs to do so.

Attorney General,

You may have already received notice of this, but below is an e-mail we received from Jim Lodoen requesting your support for pending federal bankruptcy venue reform bills H.R. 4193 and S. 2827. Jim is the Special AG who has been assisting the state with various bankruptcy cases (namely, Whiting Petroleum). If you recall from the September Special Land Board meeting, Jim pointed out the fact that certain federal bankruptcy courts have been seeing a disproportionate volume of cases due to the reputation of those courts for being debtor-friendly. Jim asked that I forward you the below e-mail and recently indicated that today may be the deadline to sign on. I have not had the opportunity to review the bills myself, but would be happy to answer any questions that I can.

Thank You,

Subject: NAAG Letter Regarding Bankruptcy Venue Reform

Hi Jim,

As we discussed yesterday, NAAG is seeking support from state attorneys general for the pending bankruptcy venue reform bills (H.R. 4193 and S. 2827).

The bills are the same or substantially similar to the bill endorsed by NAAG in February 2020 (H.R. 4421). That 2020 letter is available here: <https://www.naag.org/policy-letter/attorneys-general-support-bankruptcy-venue-reform-act-of-2019/>

Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem signed the 2020 letter and my contact at the Texas Attorneys' General Office has asked for assistance with outreach to attorneys general regarding this year's letter.

The October 2021 email and letter from NAAG would have been sent to whomever in the ND AG's office is designated as the liaison for NAAG.

Can you please ask your ND AG contacts to check with their liaison and, if they would like, to please email my contact in Texas (Rachel.Obaldo@oag.texas.gov) and she can send them the email and letter so that they can pass it along to be sure that it is reviewed and considered by Attorney General Stenehjem?

Best,
 Eric

DO NOT REPLY ALL

Good Morning Land Board Members –
On Thursday, the ND Delegation introduced our Federal Bill – NORTH DAKOTA TRUST LANDS COMPLETION ACT – which will authorize the State of North Dakota to relinquish state-owned lands and minerals contained within Tribal Reservations and the Little Missouri National Grasslands to the U.S. Department of the Interior and, in exchange, receive federal land and minerals of equal value within North Dakota.

The below news release was sent out yesterday morning.

I will place this as an agenda item on the next Land Board Agenda.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Thank you,

Jodi Smith, MNM, MNT
Land Commissioner

Currently, North Dakota holds more than 130,000 acres of minerals and over 31,000 surface acres within Tribal Reservations alone, which are largely unavailable for development. At the same time, existing federal laws do not adequately allow for the state and federal government to exchange land and minerals. This leaves surface and mineral rights within the National Grasslands and Tribal Reservations fragmented, while limiting the state’s ability to generate revenue from the land and minerals it owns. The North Dakota Lands Trust Completion Act would resolve this issue by allowing equal value transactions between North Dakota and the Interior Department to exchange land and mineral rights, thereby: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enabling North Dakota to access the lands and minerals that were promised upon statehood to fund education and other public purposes.</li> <li>• Providing tribes greater ownership over the lands within their reservation boundaries.</li> <li>• Helping ensure future conservation of the National Grasslands.</li> </ul> “Federal, state and tribal land and mineral rights have long been intermixed. This has created duplicative layers of regulation, prevented North Dakota from developing the energy resources it owns and limited the state’s ability to generate revenue for education and other purposes,” said Senator Hoeven. “Our legislation helps ensure North Dakota can access the full land and mineral rights it was promised, while restoring tribal ownership over lands and minerals within reservations and enhancing conservation efforts on the National Grasslands.” “The federal government’s ownership of small tracts of land and minerals throughout North Dakota makes our energy development challenging. We are changing this with our bill, which authorizes land transfers and therefore eliminates unnecessary levels of regulation,” said Senator Cramer. “Our legislation ensures North Dakota can better access our natural resources, helps industry permitting efficiency, and increases revenues to the state and its education trust funds, while restoring tribal ownership and conservation of lands we have no intent to develop.” “The comingling of federal, state, and tribal lands has long prevented North Dakota’s resources from being fully utilized,” said Congressman Armstrong. “Our bill will give the state of North Dakota and the tribes more control over lands within their jurisdiction, which will reduce the amount of duplicative regulations and benefit people across our state.” “The North Dakota Board of University and School Lands is grateful to the North Dakota delegation for their support of our effort to pass an act that will authorize the State of North Dakota to relinquish land grant parcels located within the reservations and the Little Missouri National Grasslands and to select other Federal land or minerals in lieu of those parcels the State of North Dakota attained at statehood. This effort will provide the Tribes greater Tribal sovereignty and control of land and minerals within the reservations. Additionally, this act will provide for greater conservation and preservation of the Little Missouri National Grasslands. This effort is a win-win solution for the State of North Dakota, the Tribes, and conservationist groups,” said Jodi Smith, North Dakota Department of Trust Lands Commissioner. “We were glad to help shape how the draft bill would restore some Reservation land previously taken from us,” said Mark Fox, Chairman of the Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara Nation. “We support its introduction and look forward to working closely with our congressional delegation and the Congress to ensure the preservation of our treaty rights to land and minerals on the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation.” Valuations conducted under this legislation would be determined by Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisitions and the Uniform Standards for Professional Appraisal Practice. Valid existing rights will be respected in these transactions and there will be no impact on any Indian treaty rights. DO NOT REPLY ALL

Good Morning Land Board Members –
On Thursday, the ND Delegation introduced our Federal Bill – NORTH DAKOTA TRUST LANDS COMPLETION ACT – which will authorize the State of North Dakota to relinquish state-owned lands and minerals contained within Tribal Reservations and the Little Missouri National Grasslands to the U.S. Department of the Interior and, in exchange, receive federal land and minerals of equal value within North Dakota.

The below news release was sent out yesterday morning.

I will place this as an agenda item on the next Land Board Agenda.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Thank you,

Jodi Smith, MNM, MNT
Land Commissioner

Currently, North Dakota holds more than 130,000 acres of minerals and over 31,000 surface acres within Tribal Reservations alone, which are largely unavailable for development. At the same time, existing federal laws do not adequately allow for the state and federal government to exchange land and minerals. This leaves surface and mineral rights within the National Grasslands and Tribal Reservations fragmented, while limiting the state’s ability to generate revenue from the land and minerals it owns. The North Dakota Lands Trust Completion Act would resolve this issue by allowing equal value transactions between North Dakota and the Interior Department to exchange land and mineral rights, thereby: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enabling North Dakota to access the lands and minerals that were promised upon statehood to fund education and other public purposes.</li> <li>• Providing tribes greater ownership over the lands within their reservation boundaries.</li> <li>• Helping ensure future conservation of the National Grasslands.</li> </ul> “Federal, state and tribal land and mineral rights have long been intermixed. This has created duplicative layers of regulation, prevented North Dakota from developing the energy resources it owns and limited the state’s ability to generate revenue for education and other purposes,” said Senator Hoeven. “Our legislation helps ensure North Dakota can access the full land and mineral rights it was promised, while restoring tribal ownership over lands and minerals within reservations and enhancing conservation efforts on the National Grasslands.” “The federal government’s ownership of small tracts of land and minerals throughout North Dakota makes our energy development challenging. We are changing this with our bill, which authorizes land transfers and therefore eliminates unnecessary levels of regulation,” said Senator Cramer. “Our legislation ensures North Dakota can better access our natural resources, helps industry permitting efficiency, and increases revenues to the state and its education trust funds, while restoring tribal ownership and conservation of lands we have no intent to develop.” “The comingling of federal, state, and tribal lands has long prevented North Dakota’s resources from being fully utilized,” said Congressman Armstrong. “Our bill will give the state of North Dakota and the tribes more control over lands within their jurisdiction, which will reduce the amount of duplicative regulations and benefit people across our state.” “The North Dakota Board of University and School Lands is grateful to the North Dakota delegation for their support of our effort to pass an act that will authorize the State of North Dakota to relinquish land grant parcels located within the reservations and the Little Missouri National Grasslands and to select other Federal land or minerals in lieu of those parcels the State of North Dakota attained at statehood. This effort will provide the Tribes greater Tribal sovereignty and control of land and minerals within the reservations. Additionally, this act will provide for greater conservation and preservation of the Little Missouri National Grasslands. This effort is a win-win solution for the State of North Dakota, the Tribes, and conservationist groups,” said Jodi Smith, North Dakota Department of Trust Lands Commissioner. “We were glad to help shape how the draft bill would restore some Reservation land previously taken from us,” said Mark Fox, Chairman of the Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara Nation. “We support its introduction and look forward to working closely with our congressional delegation and the Congress to ensure the preservation of our treaty rights to land and minerals on the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation.” Valuations conducted under this legislation would be determined by Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisitions and the Uniform Standards for Professional Appraisal Practice. Valid existing rights will be respected in these transactions and there will be no impact on any Indian treaty rights. However, the new meeting times conflict with Pardon Board meeting. I have spoken to the Commissioners and they are willing to back-load the discussions where it is imperative I attend. I will attend Pardon Board and will interview witnesses assigned to me, but I would appreciate it if we could visit Monday about the matter.                 This was unanticipated but, as stated above, I can work around it I believe. Under the circumstances, it might be better for Wayne &amp; or one of the other members act as Chairman. However, the new meeting times conflict with Pardon Board meeting. I have spoken to the Commissioners and they are willing to back-load the discussions where it is imperative I attend. I will attend Pardon Board and will interview witnesses assigned to me, but I would appreciate it if we could visit Monday about the matter.                 This was unanticipated but, as stated above, I can work around it I believe. Under the circumstances, it might be better for Wayne &amp; or one of the other members act as Chairman. $100,000 POWERBALL WITH POWER PLAY PRIZE WON IN FARGO

Bismarck – North Dakota Powerball players continue their lucky streak, as another player won big! A $100,000 Powerball with Power Play ticket for Saturday night’s draw won by matching four white balls and the Powerball. The winning numbers were 8, 30, 48, 57, 64 and the Powerball was 9. The Power Play multiplier was 2.

The lucky ticket was sold at Cash Wise Fuel, 4907 Timber Parkway South, in Fargo. The prize was $50,000, but as the player had also purchased the Power Play option, the ticket is worth $100,000. The retailer will receive a $2,000 bonus commission for selling the large tier ticket. No one has contacted the Lottery office to claim the prize.

Another North Dakota Lottery player hit it big, matching all four numbers to win the $22,000 2by2 jackpot in Saturday night’s draw. The winning numbers for the November 6 draw were Red: 6 and 11; White: 7 and 11. The lucky ticket was sold via the North Dakota Lottery’s Pick & Click online play service in Lincoln. The prize has yet to be claimed.

“North Dakota Lottery players have been very lucky as of late,” said Randy Miller, director of the North Dakota Lottery. “Players have won over $1.3 million in large tier prizes since October 4, 2021.”

Winners have 180 days from the date of the drawing to claim their prize. Prizes over $599 must be claimed at the North Dakota Lottery office, which recently moved and is now located at 1720 Burlington Drive in Bismarck.

The Powerball jackpot for the Monday, November 8 draw is $151 million. For winning numbers and other information, visit us on the web at LOTTERY.ND.GOV.

$100,000 POWERBALL WITH POWER PLAY PRIZE WON IN FARGO

Bismarck – North Dakota Powerball players continue their lucky streak, as another player won big! A $100,000 Powerball with Power Play ticket for Saturday night’s draw won by matching four white balls and the Powerball. The winning numbers were 8, 30, 48, 57, 64 and the Powerball was 9. The Power Play multiplier was 2.

The lucky ticket was sold at Cash Wise Fuel, 4907 Timber Parkway South, in Fargo. The prize was $50,000, but as the player had also purchased the Power Play option, the ticket is worth $100,000. The retailer will receive a $2,000 bonus commission for selling the large tier ticket. No one has contacted the Lottery office to claim the prize.

Another North Dakota Lottery player hit it big, matching all four numbers to win the $22,000 2by2 jackpot in Saturday night’s draw. The winning numbers for the November 6 draw were Red: 6 and 11; White: 7 and 11. The lucky ticket was sold via the North Dakota Lottery’s Pick & Click online play service in Lincoln. The prize has yet to be claimed.

“North Dakota Lottery players have been very lucky as of late,” said Randy Miller, director of the North Dakota Lottery. “Players have won over $1.3 million in large tier prizes since October 4, 2021.”
 Winners have 180 days from the date of the drawing to claim their prize. Prizes over $599 must be claimed at the North Dakota Lottery office, which recently moved and is now located at 1720 Burlington Drive in Bismarck.

The Powerball jackpot for the Monday, November 8 draw is $151 million. For winning numbers and other information, visit us on the web at LOTTERY.ND.GOV.

Shalyn,

Great, thank you!

Troy, Michelle, and Gabe, please review the updated letter once received and I'll circulate to the membership once I hear from each of you for approval.

Thanks,
Ryan

Thank you so much for the update Ryan! AG Weiser would still like to send a letter – a tweak of the current version – encouraging a quick floor vote. I am in process of updating the letter and will recirculate soon.

All,

Shalyn in Colorado provided me the draft (attached). As I updated her, the request in the letter was achieved an hour ago when the Senate Judiciary Committee voted the nomination favorably to the floor. All but three members of the committee (Sens. Lee, Hawley, Blackburn) voted in favor of her nomination.

Thank you so much for the update Ryan! AG Weiser would still like to send a letter – a tweak of the current version – encouraging a quick floor vote. I am in process of updating the letter and will recirculate soon.

All,

Shalyn in Colorado provided me the draft (attached). As I updated her, the request in the letter was achieved an hour ago when the Senate Judiciary Committee voted the nomination favorably to the floor. All but three members of the committee (Sens. Lee, Hawley, Blackburn) voted in favor of her nomination.

CWAG reached out to us this week and said your offices had been interested in circulating a letter through our process supporting the Hawaii Attorney General's nomination as US Attorney. Please feel free to forward me the draft letter your offices wrote and I am glad to circulate it from there. I've also attached our step-by-step process for letters and am always glad to be a resource for any questions about the process. Thanks,Ryan Ryan GreensteinLegislative Director andSpecial Assistant to the Executive DirectorNational Association of Attorneys General1850 M Street NW, 12th FloorWashington, DC 20036202.326.6262rgreenstein@naag.orgwww.naag.org  |

Your first interview is scheduled for 9:30. Do you think you will be available by then? We should be able to start the meeting with a quorum and take care of some of paperwork before jumping into interviews. It's like the legislature is going to try to keep testimony brief and limited during this session which may help. Steve From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;Sent: Monday, November 08, 2021 8:11 AMTo: Hall, Steven D. &lt;shall@nd.gov&gt;; Weir, Pat &lt;pweir@nd.gov&gt;; Brocker, Liz &lt;lbrocker@nd.gov&gt;; Adams, Beverly L. &lt;bladams@nd.gov&gt;; Lamb, Carmelita &lt;clamb@nd.gov&gt;; Thompson, Jennifer L. &lt;jthomps@nd.gov&gt;; Krabbenhoft, David L. &lt;dkrabben@nd.gov&gt;Subject: RE: Hall, Steven D. shared "November 2021 Pardon advisory Board Victim notes" with you. Thanks for sending this.With the special session of the legislature convening, I will have some time crunch of my own to contend with.I have a hearing on a budget request at 8:30, and hope I will be done by the 9 am convening of the meetingI'll know more this morning.Wayne From: Hall, Steven D. &lt;shall@nd.gov&gt;Sent: Sunday, November 7, 2021 6:02 PMTo: Weir, Pat &lt;pweir@nd.gov&gt;; Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; Brocker, Liz &lt;lbrocker@nd.gov&gt;; Adams, Beverly L. &lt;bladams@nd.gov&gt;; Lamb, Carmelita &lt;clamb@nd.gov&gt;; Thompson, Jennifer L. &lt;jthomps@nd.gov&gt;; Krabbenhoft, David L. &lt;dkrabben@nd.gov&gt;Subject: RE: Hall, Steven D. shared "November 2021 Pardon advisory Board Victim notes" with you. Pat, Thanks for letting me know. However, the new meeting times conflict with Pardon Board meeting. I have spoken to the Commissioners and they are willing to back-load the discussions where it is imperative I attend. I will attend Pardon Board and will interview witnesses assigned to me, but I would appreciate it if we could visit Monday about the matter.This was unanticipated but, as stated above, I can work around it I believe. Under the circumstances, it might be better for Wayne &amp; or one of the other members act as Chairman. Your first interview is scheduled for 9:30. Do you think you will be available by then? We should be able to start the meeting with a quorum and take care of some of paperwork before jumping into interviews. It's like the legislature is going to try to keep testimony brief and limited during this session which may help. Steve From: Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;Sent: Monday, November 08, 2021 8:11 AMTo: Hall, Steven D. &lt;shall@nd.gov&gt;; Weir, Pat &lt;pweir@nd.gov&gt;; Brocker, Liz &lt;lbrocker@nd.gov&gt;; Adams, Beverly L. &lt;bladams@nd.gov&gt;; Lamb, Carmelita &lt;clamb@nd.gov&gt;; Thompson, Jennifer L. &lt;jthomps@nd.gov&gt;; Krabbenhoft, David L. &lt;dkrabben@nd.gov&gt;Subject: RE: Hall, Steven D. shared "November 2021 Pardon advisory Board Victim notes" with you. Thanks for sending this.With the special session of the legislature convening, I will have some time crunch of my own to contend with.I have a hearing on a budget request at 8:30, and hope I will be done by the 9 am convening of the meetingI'll know more this morning.Wayne From: Hall, Steven D. &lt;shall@nd.gov&gt;Sent: Sunday, November 7, 2021 6:02 PMTo: Weir, Pat &lt;pweir@nd.gov&gt;; Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; Brocker, Liz &lt;lbrocker@nd.gov&gt;; Adams, Beverly L. &lt;bladams@nd.gov&gt;; Lamb, Carmelita &lt;clamb@nd.gov&gt;; Thompson, Jennifer L. &lt;jthomps@nd.gov&gt;; Krabbenhoft, David L. &lt;dkrabben@nd.gov&gt;Subject: RE: Hall, Steven D. shared "November 2021 Pardon advisory Board Victim notes" with you. Pat, Thanks for letting me know. However, the new meeting times conflict with Pardon Board meeting. I have spoken to the Commissioners and they are willing to back-load the discussions where it is imperative I attend. I will attend Pardon Board and will interview witnesses assigned to me, but I would appreciate it if we could visit Monday about the matter.This was unanticipated but, as stated above, I can work around it I believe. Under the circumstances, it might be better for Wayne &amp; or one of the other members act as Chairman. Lori: Per your request, the following is some information regarding The North American Coal Corp (NACC) and why we are looking at being a party to a syndicated loan facility.

PNC Bank has reached out to BND to gauge our interest in participating in a revolving line of credit to NACC. BND has not previously participated in this deal however due to an exit by a prior lender due to the nature of the borrower's industries (coal), BND has been approached to participate. BND has been requested to be a direct signer on the credit agreement rather than a participant in PNC's share.

The proposed terms are as follows:

1. $150,000,000 revolving line of credit (RLOC)
  1. 4 year term (pretty standard for this type of facility)
  2. PNC will hold $55,000,000
  3. KeyBank $40,000,000
  4. Another lender $10,000,000
  5. BND $45,000,000 (30% of total)

The borrower is involved in coal surface mining/coal mining planning, mining of other diversified aggregates and reclamation and remediation. They are involved in the Coyote Creek, Freedom and Falkirk mine operations in ND. They have more than 100 years of mining experience. The RLOC may be used for working capital or for CapEx that may arise as they continue to diversify their operations.

If you have any questions or need any additional information, please let me know!

BND has not previously participated in this deal however due to an exit by a prior lender due to the nature of the borrower's industries (coal), BND has been approached to participate. BND has been requested to be a direct signer on the credit agreement rather than a participant in PNC's share. The proposed terms are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. $150,000,000 revolving line of credit (RLOC)             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. 4 year term (pretty standard for this type of facility)</li> <li>2. PNC will hold $55,000,000</li> <li>3. KeyBank $40,000,000</li> <li>4. Another lender $10,000,000</li> <li>5. BND $45,000,000 (30% of total)</li> </ol> </li> </ol> The borrower is involved in coal surface mining/coal mining planning, mining of other diversified aggregates and reclamation and remediation. They are involved in the Coyote Creek, Freedom and Falkirk mine operations in ND. They have more than 100 years of mining experience. The RLOC may be used for working capital or for CapEx that may arise as they continue to diversify their operations. If you have any questions or need any additional information, please let me know! Kaylen Hausauer         Business Banker Bank of North Dakota         1200 Memorial Highway   Bismarck, ND 58504         P: 701-328-5604   C: 701-226-6067   F: 701-328-5731         E: krhausauer@nd.gov   bnd.nd.gov Sign up to get email updates from Bank of North Dakota. <hr/> <small>The information contained in this email message, and any attachments, may be privileged and confidential. BND has not previously participated in this deal however due to an exit by a prior lender due to the nature of the borrower's industries (coal), BND has been approached to participate. BND has been requested to be a direct signer on the credit agreement rather than a participant in PNC's share. The proposed terms are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. $150,000,000 revolving line of credit (RLOC)             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. 4 year term (pretty standard for this type of facility)</li> <li>2. Another lender $10,000,000</li> <li>5. BND $45,000,000 (30% of total)</li> </ol> </li> </ol> The borrower is involved in coal surface mining/coal mining planning, mining of other diversified aggregates and reclamation and remediation. They are involved in the Coyote Creek, Freedom and Falkirk mine operations in ND. They have more than 100 years of mining experience. The RLOC may be used for working capital or for CapEx that may arise as they continue to diversify their operations. If you have any questions or need any additional information, please let me know! Kaylen Hausauer         Business Banker Bank of North Dakota         1200 Memorial Highway   Bismarck, ND 58504         P: 701-328-5604   C: 701-226-6067   F: 701-328-5731         E: krhausauer@nd.gov   bnd.nd.gov Sign up to get email updates from Bank of North Dakota. <hr/> <small>The information contained in this email message, and any attachments, may be privileged and confidential. All-

Several of you have inquired about plans to file a lawsuit challenging the federal CMS vaccine mandate for health-care workers. Attached is a proposed draft complaint that Nebraska and Missouri have prepared, which we plan to file tomorrow morning in E.D. Mo. We hope to follow up promptly with a motion for preliminary injunction. Special thanks to Jim Campbell for a lot of incredibly fast heavy lifting on this draft over the last several days. Please let us know by tomorrow morning at 9:30 am Central if your State is interested in joining. Please copy me, Jim, and Jesus Osete of our office (cc'ed) on your responses.

Thanks a lot, John Sauer

Attached is a proposed draft complaint that Nebraska and Missouri have prepared, which we plan to file tomorrow morning in E.D. Mo. We hope to follow up promptly with a motion for preliminary injunction. Special thanks to Jim Campbell for a lot of incredibly fast heavy lifting on this draft over the last several days. Please let us know by tomorrow morning at 9:30 am Central if your State is interested in joining. Please copy me, Jim, and Jesus Osete of our office (cc'ed) on your responses. Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. He was charged yesterday with Criminal Vehicular Homicide and Reckless Driving after an accident on Saturday that killed a woman and her 7-year-old daughter. Mr. Bearce is alleged to have been drinking and driving. Apparently there is a staff member in the Williams County SAO that is related to the defendant and the victim was a social worker with Williams County. The Highway Patrol is investigating the accident so our case should be in good hands. Just wanted to keep you in the loop. Britta K. He was charged yesterday with Criminal Vehicular Homicide and Reckless Driving after an accident on Saturday that killed a woman and her 7-year-old daughter. Mr. Bearce is alleged to have been drinking and driving. Apparently there is a staff member in the Williams County SAO that is related to the defendant and the victim was a social worker with Williams County. The Highway Patrol is investigating the accident so our case should be in good hands. Just wanted to keep you in the loop. Britta K. AG Weiser agrees and would like the letter sent today. If you agree, would you be willing to send me your AG's signature and we will get the letter out today? Thank you so much! Shalyn Kettering         Counsel to the Attorney General   Colorado Department of Law         P: 805-975-2932   Shalyn.Kettering@coag.gov |

As you know, the rise of delta-8 THC products is a hot button issue. Following the October webinar AGA supported on the topic, counterparts at the US FDA reached out to inquire whether our members (your offices) would be interested in collaborating to address the issue. On Friday, November 19, at 2:30pm EST, AGA and FDA will be convening a closed door meeting between to discuss how to share information and collaborate on the enforcement. This meeting is closed to AGO staff only. The purpose of this meeting is to have a preliminary conversation about information sharing, potential investigations and enforcement activity, and partnership across levels of government. My understanding is that expected attendance from FDA includes staff from intergovernmental affairs, legal, and investigative verticals. I will be sharing a separate email with a calendar invite that FDA generated to those on this email chain. If you are the appropriate contact for your office to join this preliminary conversation, please accept the invite. If another member of your office is a more appropriate point of contact on the delta-8 THC issue, please forward the calendar invite and notify me. Please feel free to reach out with any comments, questions, or concerns. Best Austin P. As you know, the rise of delta-8 THC products is a hot button issue. Following the October webinar AGA supported on the topic, counterparts at the US FDA reached out to inquire whether our members (your offices) would be interested in collaborating to address the issue. On Friday, November 19, at 2:30pm EST, AGA and FDA will be convening a closed door meeting between to discuss how to share information and collaborate on the enforcement. This meeting is closed to AGO staff only. The purpose of this meeting is to have a preliminary conversation about information sharing, potential investigations and enforcement activity, and partnership across levels of government. My understanding is that expected attendance from FDA includes staff from intergovernmental affairs, legal, and investigative verticals. I will be sharing a separate email with a calendar invite that FDA generated to those on this email chain. If you are the appropriate contact for your office to join this preliminary conversation, please accept the invite. If another member of your office is a more appropriate point of contact on the delta-8 THC issue, please forward the calendar invite and notify me. Please feel free to reach out with any comments, questions, or concerns. Best Austin P. Heather has been struggling with [REDACTED] and recently learned she is suffering from [REDACTED]. She has been placed on the [REDACTED] for [REDACTED]. She does not know how long the wait will take, but her doctor expects her to have the [REDACTED] within a year. Heather is also in the process of having family and friends tested. Once she finds a match, Heather will typically have to be at the hospital (Bismarck or Fargo) within a few hours. Once she has the surgery, she will be expected to be out of work for approximately a month. In the meantime, she will be having several appointments each week. I just wanted to pass on the message. Thank you, Lonnie   Director Lonnie Grabowska             Bureau of Criminal Investigation             P.O. The Government has just filed its opposition to our motion to stay the OSHA mandate (along with motion for leave to file). See Attached. We will start reviewing and drafting immediately, and attempt to get a mature draft reply circulated by Monday morning. Thanks, John

All-

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength & combined response of about 7000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private-party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Network et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all! I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
P.S. OSHA Act is short for Occupational Safety and Health Act, but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners' reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-403645 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners' stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

Good with us too. One additional typo: on first line of the argument section on page 2, granted should be grant.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's 174 stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

All- As we are working to update and finalize the stay motion, I have collected all the final versions of declarations that I currently have to support the stay motion. These are all attached. If we are still waiting for a declaration from you, or if you have sent it and I missed it (which is very possible), please send it to me ASAP. We hope to file by mid-to-late afternoon today. Thanks a lot, John

By way of update, attached is the email we sent this morning to OSHA's designated service address for challenges to this ETS. We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-11-04/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergencies-temporary-standard-federal-register>

Probably the best course is to file the PIR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &c. Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All-

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

Thanks a lot, John

ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &#8216; PRIVILEGED &#8216; CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel:

We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be joined to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS&#8216;s publication and filing the stay motion.

By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner.

Thanks a lot for your support in this project!

Thanks, John Sauer

PRIVILEGED &#8216; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &#8216; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &#8216; CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel:

As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA&#8216;s anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don&#8216;t have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better.

Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &#8216;state-plan State&#8216;?

Thanks a lot,

The Fifth Circuit has extended its stay of the OSHA mandate in a 22-page opinion, see attached. This should give a lot of support for our reply brief due Monday.

The Government has just filed its opposition to our motion to stay the OSHA mandate (along with motion for leave to file). See Attached. We will start reviewing and drafting immediately, and attempt to get a mature draft reply circulated by Monday morning. Thanks, John

All-

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength & combined response of about 7000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private-party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Network et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all! I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
P.S. OSHA Act is short for Occupational Safety and Health Act, but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners' reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-403645 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners' stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

Good with us too. One additional typo: on first line of the argument section on page 2, granted should be grant.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's 174 stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

By way of update, attached is the email we sent this morning to OSHA's designated service address for challenges to this ETS. We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-11-04/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergencies-temporary-standard-federal-register>

Probably the best course is to file the PIR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &c? Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All-

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

Thanks a lot, John

ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &#8216; PRIVILEGED &#8216; CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel:

We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be joined to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS&#8216;s publication and filing the stay motion.

By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner.

Thanks a lot for your support in this project!

Thanks, John Sauer

PRIVILEGED &#8216; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &#8216; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &#8216; CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel:

As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA&#8216;s anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don&#8216;t have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better.

Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &#8216;state-plan State&#8216;?

Thanks a lot,

The Fifth Circuit has extended its stay of the OSHA mandate in a 22-page opinion, see attached. This should give a lot of support for our reply brief due Monday.

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength afccombinedat response of about 7000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Networks et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all! I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
 P.S. Occupational Safety and Health Act is short for Occupational Safety and Health Act but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners' reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-60845 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners' stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

All- Attached is a mature draft of a motion for expedited consideration that I propose filing in the Eighth Circuit at the opening of business today, i.e., around 8:30 am Central. Please let me know if anyone has any comments, and sorry for the short notice. Thanks, John

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

P.S. We will also plan to update the BJR to include a brief statement forecasting our arguments on the merits, to make our initial filing tomorrow morning more substantive. I will circulate the updated version by this afternoon. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the BJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business,

Body

but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AAI, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-notices/2021-11-04/2021-19-vacation-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard> [federalregister.gov]

Probably the best course is to file the JRT tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &C Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition and the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All,

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested states except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer From: Sauer, John Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:24 PM To: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov' &lt;cori.mills@alaska.gov&gt;; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov' &lt;christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov&gt;; 'Ryan Schelhaas' &lt;ryan.schelhaas@iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Swedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'wstenehjem@nd.gov' &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; 'Booi, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;michael.booi@governor.iowa.gov&gt; Cc: 'Roysden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Roysden@azag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@azag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel: As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to CIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PJR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a 30-state-plan State? Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. The Fifth Circuit has extended its stay of the OSHA mandate in a 22-page opinion, see attached. This should give a lot of support for our reply brief due Monday.

The Government has just filed its opposition to our motion to stay the OSHA mandate (along with motion for leave to file). See attached. We will start reviewing and drafting immediately, and attempt to get a mature draft reply circulated by Monday morning. Thanks, John

All-

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength afccombinedat response of about 7000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Networks et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all! I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
 P.S. www.osha-slc.gov is short for www.osha-slc.gov but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners' reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-60845 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners' stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

By way of update, attached is the email we sent this morning to OSHA's designated service address for challenges to this ETS. We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

P.S. We will also plan to update the BIR to include a brief statement forecasting our arguments on the merits, to make our initial filing tomorrow morning more substantive. I will circulate the updated version by this afternoon. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the BIR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AAI, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow. <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-21643-covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard> [federalregister.gov]

Probably the best course is to file the JRT tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &C Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition and the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All,

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested states except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer From: Sauer, John Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:24 PM To: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov'; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansas.gov&gt;; 'christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov'; 'Ryan Schelhaas' &lt;ryan.schelhaas@iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Sweedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Sweedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'wstenehjem@nd.gov' &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; 'Joel Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Joel.Michael@igov.iowa.gov&gt; Cc: 'Roydsen, Beau' &lt;Beau.Roydsen@azag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@azag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel: As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to GIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PJR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a 30-state-plan State? Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General's Office. The Fifth Circuit has extended its stay of the OSHA mandate in a 22 page opinion, see attached. This should give a lot of support for our reply brief due Monday.

The Government has just filed its opposition to our motion to stay the OSHA mandate (along with motion for leave to file). See attached. We will start reviewing and drafting immediately, and attempt to get a mature draft reply circulated by Monday morning. Thanks, John

 Subject: RE: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate

All

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength &@ecombined& response of about 7000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private-party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Network et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all (cc) I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
 P.S. OSHA Act is short for Occupational Safety and Health Act, but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners' reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-60845 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners' stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

Good with us too. One additional typo: on first line of the argument section on page 2, granted should be grant.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

By way of update, attached to this email we sent this morning to OSHA's designated service address for challenges to this ETS. We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AAI, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-21643/COVID-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-response-mandate>

Probably the best course is to file the PJR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &C Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All-

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the petition for judicial review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT & "PRIVILEGED &" CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel-

We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion.

By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner.

Thanks a lot for your support in this project!

Thanks, John Sauer

PRIVILEGED & "ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &" JOINT DEFENSE
 PRIVILEGE &" CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel-

As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the P/R as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better.

Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &state-plan State?

Thanks a lot,
 John Sauer

The Government has just filed its opposition to our motion to stay the OSHA mandate (along with motion for leave to file). See attached. We will start reviewing and drafting immediately, and attempt to get a mature draft reply circulated by Monday morning. Thanks, John

All:

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength &@ecombined& response of about 7000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private-party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Network et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all (cc) I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
 P.S. OSHA Act is short for Occupational Safety and Health Act, but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners' reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-60845 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners' stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

Good with us too. One additional typo: on first line of the argument section on page 2, granted should be grant.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's<sup>TM</sup> stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

By way of update, attached to this email we sent this morning to OSHA's designated service address for challenges to this ETS. We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

All- Attached are the final PDFs of the Petition for Review and Exhibit A that we filed this morning. We received electronic confirmation that the filing fee was processed, but it appears that we will not get file-stamped versions until the clerks come into the office this morning. We are working to update the motion to stay and will get you the updated draft asap. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PJR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHA's points, and we'd rather take the extra business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AAI, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-21643/record-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-response-mandate-1-federalregister.gov/>

Probably the best course is to file the PJR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &C" Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All-

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the petition for judicial review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT & "PRIVILEGED &" CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel-

We have heard rumors that the OSHA ETS mandating vaccines for employers with 100+ employees may be published today. These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS's publication and filing the stay motion.

By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner.

Thanks a lot for your support in this project!

Thanks, John Sauer

 PRIVILEGE & "CLOSED RECORD

Dear Counsel-

As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA's anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don't have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the P/R as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better.

Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &state-plan State?

Thanks a lot,
 John Sauer

The Fifth Circuit has extended its stay of the OSHA mandate in a 22-page opinion, see attached. This should give a lot of support for our reply brief due Monday.

All-

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength (4200 combined) response of about 2000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private-party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Network et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all &C I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit&TM's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
 P.S. &COSH&C is short for &COccupational Safety and Health Act&C, but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA&TM's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners&TM reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-60845 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit&TM's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners&TM stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

By way of update, attached is the email we sent this morning to OSHAA's designated service address for challenges to this ETS. We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

All- Attached are the final PDFs of the Petition for Review and Exhibit A that we filed this morning. We received electronic confirmation that the filing fee was processed, but it appears that we will not get file-stamped versions until the clerks come into the office this morning. We are working to update the motion to stay and will get you the updated draft asap. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PIR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHAM's points, and we'd rather take the extra

business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AA, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-23643/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard> [federalregister.gov]

Probably the best course is to file the PIR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &c? Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All-

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!!

Thanks a lot, John

These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS&amp;#201;s publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer <hr/> From: Sauer, John Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:34 PM To: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov'; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansasag.gov&gt;; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; Ryan Schelhaas &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@ag.iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Svedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Svedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'wstenehjem@nd.gov' &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; 'Boal, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt; Cc: 'Woytsden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Woytsden@azag.gov&gt;; 'Ernsign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ernsign@azag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhurst, David' &lt;david.dewhurst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp;#201; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#201; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp;#201; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel: As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA&amp;#201;s anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don&amp;#201;t have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, "Iowa," could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a 600state-plan State&amp;#201;? Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General&amp;#201;s Office. The Fifth Circuit has extended its stay of the OSHA mandate in a 22-page opinion, see attached. This should give a lot of support for our reply brief due Monday.

The Government has just filed its opposition to our motion to stay the OSHA mandate (along with motion for leave to file). See attached. We will start reviewing and drafting immediately, and attempt to get a mature draft reply circulated by Monday morning. Thanks, John

All-

As you have probably seen, DOJ is asking for our consent to file an overlength (4200 combined) response of about 2000 words to our motion to stay and the motion to stay in the consolidated private-party challenge (brought by Boyden Gray on behalf of Job Creators Network et al.). See attached email chain. I am not happy about this request because I think it is an obvious gambit to evade the 5200 word limitation for motion replies in FRAP 27. That said, I think it will be granted given the expedited briefing schedule, and the extra words will probably not make a big difference. I am considering telling DOJ that we will consent to this request if they will consent to a proportionate increase of words for our reply brief due Monday (i.e. from 2600 to 3500 words). Please let me know if anyone has thoughts.

Thanks, John

Thanks to all &C I have entered all changes. I have also added the additional (bolded) language to leave open the prospect of arguing that we are protected by the Fifth Circuit&TM's stay. We will file asap. Thanks, John
 P.S. &COSH&C is short for &COccupational Safety and Health Act&C, but since several of you flagged that, I have changed it.

On November 6, 2021, the Fifth Circuit, facing a parallel motion to stay the ETS filed by private employers on November 5, entered a temporary administrative stay and ordered expedited briefing on the stay motion, with OSHA&TM's brief responding to the stay motion due on November 8, and Petitioners&TM reply due on November 9. See Order in No. 21-60845 (5th Cir. Nov. 6, 2021) (attached as Ex. A). Though the Fifth Circuit&TM's order may be construed to have nationwide effect, it does not make an explicit statement on this point. See id. To avoid any confusion and to secure full protection of their rights, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court enter a similar order here. Because Respondents will already be responding to a similar stay motion in the Fifth Circuit today, requesting a response to Petitioners&TM stay motion here by tomorrow should impose no prejudice on them.

That makes sense to me as well. If DOJ has to respond in the Fifth Circuit by 5pm CST tomorrow, there is no reason why they could not file a response to our motion raising similar arguments by midnight Monday, or at least 5pm Tuesday.

They have had far longer to prepare for this than us (and access to the ETS rule itself), so I don't think they have much of a leg to stand on (particularly with the 15-day state plan deadline).

All- As you may have seen, the Fifth Circuit granted a temporary stay and ordered expedited briefing on the Texas Policy Foundation's stay motion this afternoon. In light of that, I plan to prepare a motion for similarly expedited consideration of our stay motion, requesting a ruling in a week. I will cite the concerns of the state plan states that must now act within 15 days, among others. Please let me know if anyone has concerns about that approach. Thanks, John

We are asking their consent to an administrative stay pending consideration of the stay motion, a stay pending judicial review, and expedited briefing on the stay motion. Notwithstanding what I said yesterday, we are going to try mightily to get the stay motion on file today, so please look for an updated draft this afternoon. Thanks, John

P.S. We will also plan to update the PIR to include a brief statement forecasting our arguments on the merits, to make our initial filing tomorrow morning more substantive. I will circulate the updated version by this afternoon. Thanks a lot, John

All- Given the length of the ETS, which we are still digesting, we propose filing the PIR tomorrow morning at the opening of business, but target filing the stay motion on Monday. Based on our review so far, we plan to re-work some of the arguments in the draft stay motion to address OSHAM's points, and we'd rather take the extra

business day to get it right. If you are still preparing declarations, please get them to us by COB tomorrow. (I think I have finalized declarations from Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Wyoming, Missouri, AA, and Doolittle). Thanks, John

Looks like they put an unpublished version on the federal register with intent to publish tomorrow: <https://www.federalregister.gov/public-inspection/2021-23643/covid-19-vaccination-and-testing-emergency-temporary-standard> [federalregister.gov]

Probably the best course is to file the PIR tomorrow morning, at the same time as the stay motion (which we will be able to update and finalize today) &C" Does that sound like a good course of action to all?

John,

I thought we needed to wait to file until our petition until the ETS is actually published in the Federal Register. Today's Federal Register is already out and does not include the ETS, so tomorrow is the earliest it could be published. Am I mistaken about that?

All-

We are anticipating that the OSHA mandate will be announced this morning at 7:45 am Central. We would like to file the Petition for Judicial Review as soon as possible after it is announced. Attached is the near-final Petition for Judicial Review, which is virtually the same as the one I circulated last week, with minor formatting changes. There are still highlighted blanks for the Fed. Reg. cites, but otherwise it should be final. I understand that Missouri still has full authority from each of you to file this in the Eighth Circuit on your behalf, and we will pull the trigger as soon as we can. If anyone has last-minute changes or objections, please let me know before 7:30 am Central.

Once we have the mandate, we will also plan to update the stay motion and circulate it for review as soon as possible as well. I would like to have it on file by tomorrow morning if possible.

Thanks a lot for your support in this important project!

Thanks a lot, John

These rumors may or may not be accurate, but we would like to be prepared to file the Petition for Review immediately after the ETS is published, and follow up with the stay motion within one business day. Attached are updated circulation drafts of the Petition for Review and Stay Motion. I think I have received confirmation of joining from all potentially interested States except South Dakota. If you have joined but I am still missing your signature block (Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Iowa, Alaska), please send it asap this morning so that we can be poised to file the Petition right away if necessary. Also, if you are still working on state or employer declarations, please work on finalizing them promptly, as we expect a one-day turnaround between the ETS&amp;#x26#x20;s publication and filing the stay motion. By joining, you are designating me and the Missouri AGO to jointly represent your State for the sole purpose of this case in the Eighth Circuit (and SCOTUS, if necessary). This will avoid the need to file multiple briefs for each co-petitioner. Thanks a lot for your support in this project! Thanks, John Sauer <hr/> From: Sauer, John Sent: Thursday, October 14, 2021 1:34 PM To: 'cori.mills@alaska.gov'; 'Nicholas Bronni' &lt;nicholas.bronni@arkansasag.gov&gt;; christopher.bond@doj.nh.gov; Ryan Schelhaas &lt;ryan.schelhaas@wyo.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@iowa.gov&gt;; 'Langholz, Sam' &lt;Sam.Langholz@iowa.gov&gt;; 'Paul.Svedlund@state.sd.us' &lt;Paul.Svedlund@state.sd.us&gt;; 'wstenehjem@nd.gov' &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; 'Boal, Michael [IGOV]' &lt;Michael.Boal@governor.iowa.gov&gt; Cc: 'Woyden, Beau' &lt;Beau.Woyden@azag.gov&gt;; 'Ensign, Drew' &lt;Drew.Ensign@azag.gov&gt;; 'Dewhirst, David' &lt;david.dewhirst@mt.gov&gt;; 'Campbell, Jim' &lt;Jim.Campbell@nebraska.gov&gt; Subject: ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT - CONFIDENTIAL - Draft Eighth Circuit Challenge to OSHA Vaccine Mandate PRIVILEGED &amp;#x26#x20; ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT &amp;#x26#x20; JOINT DEFENSE PRIVILEGE &amp;#x26#x20; CLOSED RECORD Dear Counsel: As I have discussed with many of you, Missouri, Arizona, Montana, and Nebraska are planning to file a legal challenge in the Eighth Circuit to OSHA&amp;#x26#x20;s anticipated vaccine mandate for employers with 100 or more employees. The proposed rule was sent by OSHA to OIRA on Tuesday, and we anticipate it may be published as soon as tomorrow. Once it is filed, we anticipate filing a petition for judicial review immediately, and following up as soon as possible with a motion for stay of the ETS pending judicial review. Attached are advance drafts of those two pleadings. Please note that the stay motion is anticipatory and subject to change, because we don&amp;#x26#x20;t have a copy of the ETS yet, but the draft should provide an outline of most likely major lines of argument. Please let us know if you would like to join this coalition challenging the ETS, and if so, please send a signature block for your State or private employer. We intend to file the PR as quickly as possible after the ETS is promulgated, so the sooner you could let us know, the better. Also, attached please find sample declarations for States and private employers that detail the adverse impact of the ETS on petitioners. If you pull together a similar declaration for your State (and feel free to expand on it if you have other injuries), that would be very helpful. In addition to these, &amp;#x26#x20;Iowa,&amp;#x26#x20; could you please provide a declaration that explains your status as a &amp;#x26#x20;state-plan State&amp;#x26#x20;? Thanks a lot, John Sauer This email message, including the attachments, is from the Missouri Attorney General&amp;#x26#x20;s Office. Two of the three positions are still vacant and the one position that has been hired is being trained. All three of these administrative positions have a very steep learning curve in order to effectively, accurately, and efficiently do the jobs assigned to them, as we found out by the loss of not one but two new administrative staff who left shortly after being hired. Throughout this time, Liz has not only stepped in to write painstakingly detailed instructions on how to do the tasks that need completing, making sure they are kept in a place central to all affected personnel, and clear enough for anyone to be able to complete the tasks, but she has done the vast majority of the training for the State &amp; Local position that is already hired. It is very likely that she will also handle the training for the administrative assistant position hired for the Criminal &amp; Regulatory Division as well. Liz has done this while handling all the administrative work for the Criminal &amp; Regulatory Division, training me to handle the Crim &amp; Reg work while she is gone, answering the numerous questions and continued training requirements for State &amp; Local, as well as handling her own job duties! Lastly, Liz has also written detailed instructions and been training me to cover her job duties while she is out of the office, including the processes required for Attorney General Opinions and News Releases. Properly handling these are no small task in that you must follow specific formatting to prepare the finals, publish them to our website, and disseminate that information in the proper forms to media, staff and whomever else is necessary for Attorney General Opinions and News Releases. I don't know of many other individuals who could take on all that Liz has been, and still is, doing with the poise and grace she has exhibited. Alice M. | Body        | Alice,                 What a nice tribute!                 Thanks for taking the time to write it!                 Wayne <hr/> From: Johnson, Alice M. &lt;amjohnson@nd.gov&gt; Sent: Monday, November 15, 2021 8:06 AM To: Kelsch, Mary Kae M. &lt;mkelsch@nd.gov&gt; Cc: Seibel, Troy T. &lt;tseibel@nd.gov&gt;; Stenehjem, Wayne K. &lt;wstenehjem@nd.gov&gt;; Eisenbeis, Ashley &lt;aeisenbeis@nd.gov&gt; Subject: Appreciation I wanted to take the time to let you know how much I have come to appreciate Liz Brocker, especially over the past month. The skills, organization, and work ethic Liz has exhibited since the retirement of our two long-term administrative assistants (whose jobs have now been split into three different positions) have served to allow this office to continue operating fairly smoothly while being completely understaffed and without personnel knowledgeable in the required tasks for any of the positions. As you know, we are "in flux" with the administrative staff for not only State &amp; Local Division, but also the Criminal &amp; Regulatory Division as well as the Human Resources division. Two of the three positions are still vacant and the one position that has been hired is being trained. All three of these administrative positions have a very steep learning curve in order to effectively, accurately, and efficiently do the jobs assigned to them, as we found out by the loss of not one but two new administrative staff who left shortly after being hired. Throughout this time, Liz has not only stepped in to write painstakingly detailed instructions on how to do the tasks that need completing, making sure they are kept in a place central to all affected personnel, and clear enough for anyone to be able to complete the tasks, but she has done the vast majority of the training for the State &amp; Local position that is already hired. It is very likely that she will also handle the training for the administrative assistant position hired for the Criminal &amp; Regulatory Division as well. Liz has done this while handling all the administrative work for the Criminal &amp; Regulatory Division, training me to handle the Crim &amp; Reg work while she is gone, answering the numerous questions and continued training requirements for State &amp; Local, as well as handling her own job duties! Lastly, Liz has also written detailed instructions and been training me to cover her job duties while she is out of the office, including the processes required for Attorney General Opinions and News Releases. Properly handling these are no small task in that you must follow specific formatting to prepare the finals, publish them to our website, and disseminate that information in the proper forms to media, staff and whomever else is necessary for Attorney General Opinions and News Releases. I don't know of many other individuals who could take on all that Liz has been, and still is, doing with the poise and grace she has exhibited. Alice M.
