MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MN – The Minnesota Twins, in conjunction with Major League Baseball, today announced the 2025 regular season broadcast schedule and linear television distribution lineup for Twins.TV Presented by Progressive. A linear television channel finder for Twins.TV Presented by Progressive is now available at twins.com/watch; Twins fans can easily locate where and how to watch games depending on the video distributor they utilize, including DIRECTV satellite and streaming (Ch. 668-3 or Ch. 668), Xfinity/Comcast (Ch. 1261), Spectrum (Ch. 428 or 468, and Ch. 319 for Spectrum Wisconsin), Midco (Ch. 638), Fubo and more.

Thanks to the Twins' production and distribution partnership with MLB, in-market fans throughout Twins Territory (all of Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota, along with western Wisconsin) can also watch all locally-distributed regular season Twins games live or on-demand - with no blackouts - via one of three primary Twins.TV Presented by Progressive direct-to-consumer (DTC) streaming subscription packages, available now at Twins.TV: Twins.TV Yearly Subscription for $99.99 (less than $1 per game), Twins.TV Monthly Subscription for $19.99 per month, or the MLB.TV All Teams + Twins.TV Subscription for $199.99 (including all out-of-market MLB regular season games).

Twins.TV Presented by Progressive debuts with today's Opening Day contest in St. Louis, beginning with a special pregame show live from Busch Stadium at 2:45 p.m. before Twins-Cardinals first pitch at 3:15 p.m. CT.

"Beginning with Opening Day, Twins fans can finally watch our games where, when and how they choose with Twins.TV Presented by Progressive," said Twins Executive Chair Joe Pohl. "This is a day we have been eagerly anticipating. We are truly ecstatic to deliver this unprecedented access to Twins Baseball for our fans throughout Twins Territory all season long. We are grateful to our partners at Major League Baseball and excited to work with them on this new era of broadcast excellence in 2025 and beyond."

Twins.TV Presented by Progressive will broadcast all locally-distributed Twins regular season games in 2025. The club currently has 11 scheduled exclusive national broadcasts this season on Apple TV (April 11 vs. DET and May 9 vs. SF), FOX (May 10 vs. SF, May 17 at MIL, May 31 at SEA, August 16 vs. DET and September 6 at KC) and Roku (August 10 vs. KC and August 31 vs. SD).

Three-time Minnesota Sportscaster of the Year Cory Provus is the play-by-play voice for Twins.TV Presented by Progressive; he is joined on air by Twins Hall of Famer Justin Morneau (primary analyst), Twins alumni LaTroy Hawkins (analyst), Glen Perkins (analyst), Trevor Plouffe (analyst), Denard Span (analyst) and Tim Laudner (pre and postgame host), and experienced voices Audra Martin (reporter) and Katie Storm (pre and postgame host). Twins.TV Presented by Progressive broadcasts will be led by multi-time Emmy Award winning producer Trevor Fleck

Along with today's special Opening Day coverage from St. Louis, all Twins.TV Presented by Progressive home game broadcasts from Target Field will feature a 30-minute pregame show (1 hour for the April 3 Home Opener); each broadcast (home and road) will close with a 20-minute postgame show. Select broadcasts will also include special features normally reserved for nationally-televised games, including Ump Cam., Wire Cam., a new RF camera with a shallow depth-of-field look and increased access such as in-game player interviews. Twins.TV will also feature live look-ins to the MLB Replay Operations Center and, thanks to the MLB-led production of MiLB.TV, exclusive live look-ins on Twins minor league affiliate game broadcasts as warranted.
