

Slick Travel Possible through Monday Morning

March 1, 2026
12:35 PM CST

Expect slick/icy roads and reduced visibility

Key Messages

- Wintry mix of light snow and freezing drizzle will be possible along and south of I-80 this evening through early Monday morning (40-70%).
- The best chance of a dusting of snow and/or a glaze of ice is near the Nebraska/Kansas/Missouri border.

Impacts & What to Do

- Light snow and ice accumulations could lead to slick spots on untreated roads and walkways.
- Icy conditions could linger into the Monday morning commute.
- If you must travel, take it slow and give yourself extra time.

Important Forecast Changes:

Winter Weather Advisory expanded westward along the KS/NE border.
