

Assistant Audio Producer/ Community News Reporter | Calgary, Alberta Full-Time

About Us

Windspeaker Radio Network is Western Canada's largest Indigenous radio broadcaster and home to CFWE North & CJWE South, Raven Radio Network, and Red Beats! As Alberta's fastest-growing radio network with over 31 transmitters, we are deeply rooted in community. We are proud to offer Indigenous language programming in Nakota Sioux, Cree, Dene, Blackfoot, and Michif. By amplifying Indigenous stories and celebrating our heritage, we are dedicated to preserving our culture, our language, and our people.

The Role

Windspeaker Radio Network is looking for an Assistant Audio Producer / Community News Reporter in our Calgary office.

If you are a natural storyteller, interact well with listeners, enjoy traveling and have some broadcasting experience, WE want to hear from you!

This is a full-time position.

Based in Calgary, this dual role requires an ambitious self-starter with a responsible service-minded attitude, who is genuinely interested in the community. You will be working as part of a regional team of hardworking, dedicated reporters and on-air staff, with local and remote supervision and support.

Production

- Collaborate with Account Executives to bring ideas to life on-air and online
- Record voices and produce commercials & in-house programs, promos, and station imaging for all Windspeaker Radio network stations

Multimedia Journalist

- Newscasting, field and desk reporting
- Creating multimedia news content for Windspeaker Radio Network Stations, websites and our social media platforms
- Research & Write news stories for on air, and websites
- Represent radio stations at community events

On-Air

- Fill in on-air hosting duties as necessary
- Available for Remote Broadcasts and Station appearances

Apply
